Big Applegate

BIG APPLEGATE, Aug. 2.—(Spl.)—Only minor cuts were sustained by two occupants of a CCC truck from Camp Klamath which was wrecked at the west approach of the Cameron bridge early Tuesday night. The truck, failing to make the sharp turn at the bridge entrance, crashed through the railing, dropping 12 feet to the bank below. Bik, the driver, and his companion were taken to the infirmary at the Medford district headquarters.

The truck, which was not badly damaged, was one of a caravan transporting 190 New York and New Jersey CCC recruits and supplies to their new headquarters at Camp Applegate, the accident occurring on the return trip to Medford.

Collections of the varied shrubs and flowers found on Dutchman's peak in the Siskiyous were made recently by Mr. Thompson, Seattle botanist, who is obtaining specimen from all sections of the Pacific northwest. Mr. Thompson, who was accompanied by his wife, expressed great satisfaction in being able to reach such altitudes by automobile.
