Justice Agents Move to Place Lynching Blame

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Agents of justice in California sought today to fix responsibility for investigating the "lynch law" hanging near Yreka Saturday morning of Clyde L. Johnson, accomplice in the killing of P. R. Daw, Dunsuir police chief.

Governor Frank F. Merriam, again refused the lynching, hoped to take the inquiry out of the hands of county officials by invoking a new state law which he said "believed" would allow Attorney General U. S. Webb to make an investigation.

Webb, however, reiterated his declaration that he would take no steps until legal proof were given the Siskiyou County authorities would take no action.

Meanwhile the federal circuit court at San Francisco touched upon another angle of the case yesterday by denying a writ of habeas corpus to George Hall, who in 1933 killed a police officer at Yreka. The court held that Hall had not exhausted his resources in the state courts. The ruling paved the way for further appeals of the conviction on which Hall was sentenced to death.

He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and taken from state's attorney's officials, who in five days of questioning had been unable to shake his contention that he knew nothing of the death of Dr. Bauer.
