

ROGUES, COQUILLE PROMISE FAST GO HERE ON SUNDAY

The Medford fans have wanted to see a fast team in action in Medford all year, and that's just what they'll do Sunday if they see the Coquille game."

Early in the season the Rogues dumped the Loggers at Coquille for one of the only two defeats sustained by the coast line in 25 starts. The other defeat was at the hands of the House of David. The walloping by Medford didn't sit too well on the Loggers, and they clamored for a return game, which they received, and won, last week. Now it's the Rogues' turn to soothe their ruffled feelings with a return game here Sunday.

The fracas at Coquille Sunday was said to be the best ever seen there. With Bauman, the Medford chucker, in rare form the locals feel that it was only the breaks that defeated them. The infield and outfield gave great support to Bauman, and the team clicked beautifully, according to their own peculiarity of always coming through in the pinches. That has been one thing noticeable about the Rogues all year. When they meet a weak team they looked even weaker, and often lost their easiest set-los. But stacked against a fast line they invariably showed surprising power, and won most of their really tough games, as witness the jack-pot in which the Southern Oregon league ended, with Grants Pass and Klamath tied by virtue of stinging defeats handed the Klamath Red Sox at strategic times by the Rogues.

BEAVER INFIELD HUMBLER REDS

Whenever the Portland Beavers play a ball game they manage to keep the biggest part of it confined to the infield. The Duck inner garden is known as the class of the league, but their case of infielditis seems to be contagious. Every team they meet tries to play them at their own game.

The Portland-Mission game last night was settled definitely around the bases, as the Ducks won 4 to 3. The Reds had a swell chance to nip the Ducks' winning streak when they trapped two runners between bases simultaneously. The ball was thrown to about everyone but the umpire before Gil English had the tying run on third and the winning score on second. Eddie Joost grounded out and feet-footed Wayne Osborne dashed madly to third only to find Clyde Beck still parked on the bag. Red Worthington fled out to end the affair.

FRANK THOMAS VOTED COACH FOR ALL STARS

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Frank Thomas, who led Alabama's Crimson Wags to victory over Stanford in the last Rose Bowl game, will do the chief master minding for the college all stars of 1934 against the Chicago Bears of the National Professional Football league at Soldier Field, August 29.

Coch Thomas won the coaches' poll for the all star game by piling up the tremendous total of 2,492,299 points and was trailed, in order, by Charles Bachman of Michigan State, Dr. C. W. Spears of Wisconsin and Edward "Blip" Madigan of St. Mary's, who will be invited to act as his assistants.

Many Flood Deaths. MANILA, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Many persons met death in last week's floods in central and northern Luzon island, it was indicated as belated reports reached Manila today with communications partially restored.

Will Meet Limber Texan

It will be the fall and short of it Thursday night at the Armory when Awful Al Karasick of Russia (above) meets Limber Les Wolfe of Texas in one of the double main event wrestling matches. The Russian Lion is counted on to give the tall Texan plenty to worry about despite his dwarfish figure.

EGAN GIVES PAR SEVERE LACING

Proving that he is still as much in the running as when he captured national, coast and northwest titles and won a place on last year's Walker cup team, R. Chandler Egan, shattering par by four strokes, turned in a card of 66 Monday afternoon while playing a friendly match at Rogue Valley course.

His drives and iron shots were clicking nicely, and had it not been for a bad green "chain" would have registered at 65. As he was holing out on number 10, he muffed a short putt that robbed him of an easy stroke. He was playing with John Kirk, Ed Simmons, George Parsons, Jr., and E. Raymond Brown.

WRESTLING

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON—Danno O'Mahoney, 230, Ireland, defeated Joe Savoldi, 206, Indiana, Savoldi disqualified after 25 minutes.

LOUIS-KINGFISH BATTLE EXCITES CASH CUSTOMERS

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—(AP)—Their imaginations stirred by the prospect of a duplicate of the immortal Jack Dempsey-Luis Firpo thriller, upwards of 40,000 action hungry fans will pack Comiskey park tonight to watch Joe Louis, brown bomber from Detroit, throw his devastating bombs at the kingfish, King Levinsky of Chicago.

The pre-battle set-up was almost a carbon copy of the Dempsey-Firpo drama of flying fists and tumbling bodies except that no heavyweight champion prize will be at stake tonight. Louis, cool and deliberate, was the better strategist and boxer like the Manassas mauler of old, but before him he had a man like Firpo, who didn't know what danger meant.

Louis, winner of spectacular knock-outs in 19 out of 21 professional fights, ruled the favorite at varying odds from two to three to one with plenty of takers from the pro-Levinsky. Nothing was wanted in the way of training. Both fighters reached condition through a rigorous schedule. There wasn't much of an advantage in the physiques, either, Louis weighing 196 to 198 for Levinsky, although the negro had the advantage of reach by 2 inches and was 21 years old, three younger than the kingfish.

LAUNDRYMAN TO BUY BOSTON BALL CLUB

BOSTON, Aug. 7.—(AP)—As soon as the bankers approve, George Preston Marshall, wealthy Washington laundryman, whose hobby apparently is collecting Indian-named sports enterprises, will head the corporation that will assume management of the financially harassed Boston Braves.

Marshall is now the owner of the Boston Redskins professional football club, an organization he nursed from infancy to affluence in less than three years.

He and Charles F. Adams, who was forced to add the Braves to his multiple sports and business interests a few days ago when Emil Fuchs retired from the club, have come to an agreement about the Braves' future.

KIWANIS CLUB PICNIC AT ROGUE ELK TONIGHT

Members of Medford Kiwanis club will hold their annual picnic this evening at Rogue Elk, with a dinner-dance beginning at 7 o'clock. Cards, dancing and entertainment is scheduled for the evening. Everett Trowbridge is in charge of the affair. An attendance of 50 club members and their lady guests are expected.

Ardent in Archery

C. W. Davis of Medford, elected secretary of the Oregon State Archery association at the annual tournament in 1935. Is one of the veteran bow and arrow enthusiasts of Oregon. For many years he has been instrumental in promoting the ancient sport. He aided in forming the Medford Archery club in 1931.

Chain Letter Death

FAIRFIELD, Ill. (UP)—The chain letter craze was blamed for the suicide of Cecil Headlee, 39, father of five children, who shot himself to death. He left notes indicating he feared the wrath of the "mob" because he broke the chain by not sending out letters.

AL KARASICK FACING TOUGH ASSIGNMENT IN TALL TEXAS MATMAN

When Awful Al Karasick of Russia returns to Medford for a main event appearance Thursday night at the Armory, he will be facing one of the toughest assignments of his colorful wrestling career, because he has been stacked up against Limber Les Wolfe of Texas, one of the country's leading leg-hold experts.

With popular Les standing nearly six inches taller than the diminutive Russian, it will be a novel and colorful tussle. Wolfe has been in the game 15 years, but Karasick claims an experience of nearly twice that length, during which time he has met many of the world's greatest wrestlers, and pinned many of them. Wolfe's speed and younger strength will serve to offset the older man's edge in experience, but it will probably take every ounce of the southerner's power to pin the wary Russian. Karasick, who has traveled widely since his last appearance here, will be greeted by many fans who recognize him as a mat wizard.

Fete (Dynamite) Hjalstrom, who will tangle with Sad Sam Lethers in the other main event bout, steadfastly refuses to put up his coast junior heavyweight championship belt, but has condescended to put it on exhibit at the Armory Thursday night.

His third match since returning to southern Oregon, Lethers will have his hardest test this time in making good a boast that he is back to defeat all the wrestlers in the district. Promoter Lillard has not yet announced a preliminary, but is dealing with such top-notch material as Floyd Wolfgang, Curly Woods, Bob Kennamont and Roland Warren.

DIZZY HOMES TO GIVE CARDS WIN

By the Associated Press. Dizzy Dean, having peeked over the fence to observe the feats of Wes Ferrell in the American league, whaled out a tenth inning home run yesterday to give the Cards a 6-3 victory over Cincinnati. The mighty sock added another pitching victory to the record of the fractious twirler, running his total to 18, highest in the National league. Ferrell leads the American league with 18.

It was on July 21 that Ferrell rode the ball out of the field to save Lefty Grove's six-game winning Streak. The next day, against St. Louis, he again honored in the ninth to win for the Red Sox.
