

WRITERS REELECT ALL OFFICERS AS MEET NEARS END

mittes and music originally scheduled for Saturday will take place this afternoon to make way for the caravan, which is expected to leave Medford about mid-morning Saturday.

Outstanding feature of this morning's program was a talk by Edna Rowe of Fresno, Cal., secretary-treasurer of the San Joaquin chapter of the League of Western Writers, whose subject was "Short Story in Class." She stated that the greatest fault of short story writers is that they oftentimes lack a good background of English. "Short story writers as a rule are well-educated regarding authors and background of material such as the one found in pulp magazines," Miss Rowe stated, "but are poorly-informed on material found in the leading magazines."

"Plays for Club Women" was the subject taken by Rose K. Hamilton of Pendleton, Ore., who described her work of writing works that are adopted by colleges and schools of the Northwest for student production and study.

Agnes E. Hines of Forest Grove, Ore., presided during a session this morning entitled "Our Historical Meeting Place," introducing many of the pioneer residents and their descendants of the valley. She also presented a reel of movies on pioneer subjects this afternoon at the Flukio theater.

Miss Mary Ann Gates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gates, was to present a group of vocal numbers on this afternoon's musical program at the M. E. church.

An outstanding feature of the convention's entertainment was a vocal program rendered this morning by Frederick Guezeloff, popular Medford singer. He was given an ovation, and upon returning sang with such feeling and depth of expression that the convention voted unanimously to draw up a resolution expressing their deepest appreciation of his art.

Thursday evening's programs were marked by an address by Dr. Walter Hedford, president of Southern Oregon Normal school, whose subject was "Contemporary Literature in Our Schools." He stated that the teacher is the most important factor in linking the writer and the consumer.

L. E. Nelson, who is head of the English department of Redlands university, Cal., spoke on "Feature Articles."

Suicide Fixation And Scant Attire Land Him In Jail

Thomas Harris Campbell, 40, of Beatty street, came down town last night nattily attired in a pair of pants, a pair of socks, an idea that he should commit suicide and very little else, a city police report stated today. The report says that Campbell was drunk.

During the evening a telephone call came into the police station that Campbell was "running for" his wife. A search of the downtown streets revealed Campbell, but he had no gun. He was locked up in the city jail, to get over his "jag."

While in jail, Campbell knotted his handkerchief about his neck, and asked the Lord to "take him away." Close observation on the part of the police through the bars indicated no action on this request, but it was deemed advisable to take his handkerchief and his belt away from him.

This morning he was released to his wife.

The Times So Short! HURRY!
Raspberries won't be cheap much longer!

No Work Now TO MAKE PERFECT JELLY OR JAM!

AND I GET HALF AGAIN MORE GLASSES, WITH CERTO!

TAKES LESS THAN 15 MINUTES AFTER THE FRUIT IS PREPARED

SEE HOW EASY THIS RECIPE IS!
RASPBERRY JAM
4 cups prepared fruit
6 1/2 cups sugar 1/2 bottle Certo

To prepare fruit, crush or grind about 2 quarts fully ripe raspberries. Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, mix well, and bring to a full rolling boil over hot fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in Certo. Then stir and skim by forks for just 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Pour quickly. Paraffin at once. Makes about 10 glasses (6 fluid ounces each).

Just imagine being able to make up a whole batch of jelly or jam in less than 15 minutes after your fruit is prepared. Read the recipe at right and you'll see how easy it is!

With Certo, you never boil jellies more than 1/2 minute... jams only a little longer. And because of this extremely short boil, none of your juice is boiled away. So you get half again more glasses from your fruit... often as much as 11 glasses from only 4 cups of juice!

You always get much finer flavor, too, when you use Certo. That short boil retains all the natural fresh fruit flavor... the rich flavor of the ripe fruit itself. (There is none of that "boiled-down" taste!)

Surely now you will want to make up a generous supply of jam and jelly to last the whole year through. What a thrill you'll get when you see your cupboard shelves full. Remember, too, how good they'll taste when fresh fruits are so scarce next winter.

So order fruit, sugar and Certo from your grocer right away! Now is the time to take advantage of his wonderful fruit bargains.

Certo, the pure fruit pectin that makes jelly making so easy, is a product of General Foods. You can buy it at any grocer's.
