Comment on the Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS.

INTERESTING dispatch: "E. P. Cramer, advertising man of West Orange, New Jersey, who last week admitted before a senate committee that he had suggested a whispering campaign against President Roosevelt, was dismissed today from Thomas A. Edison, Inc."

FAIR enough. Men whose minds turn to whispering campaigns have no place in modern industry, which, in the main, is honest.

HERE'S an interesting headline: "Postmaster Loses Pot of Gold Coins."

The postmaster is Otto Remig, of Snoqualmie, Wash., and the coins were taken from him by the state of Washington, acting under the recent law, which holds that whatever is nobody else's belongs to the state.

The coins, amounting to $187.50, were left on the postmaster's step in January of 1934, supposedly by somebody who feared prosecution as a gold hoarder.

(Since we went off the gold standard, you know, it has been illegal to own gold coins.)

NOTE, please, that these gold coins were left on the Snoqualmie postmaster's front porch away back in January of 1934. It has taken all this time for the law to make up its mind as to their ownership.

In an age when nearly everything else is getting faster and faster, the law is getting slower and slower.

THIS dispatch comes from Joliet, Illinois:

"Four guards at the state prison were discharged today for 'inefficiency and negligence which resulted in the inexcusable escape' on Saturday of Henry Midget Furnace, mild appearing but deadly shooting gunman."

INEFFICIENT and negligent? Possibly. But a lot of suspicious-minded people will jump to the conclusion that they took money in return for permitting the small but wicked gunman to escape.

This suspicion is heightened by charges that a former Oregon parole officer entered into a contract to secure a pardon for a convicted murderer in return for a money payment.

HOWEVER, it has been brought about, far too many convicted criminals have been enabled to escape, in one way or another, from confining prison walls.

NEFF INFANT DIES ON VACATION TRIP

Nancy Jean, eight-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Neff, well-known young people of Medford, passed away during a brief illness at Bandon, Ore., Thursday.

The Neffs were motoring up the Coast highway when the infant became critically ill. They stopped at Bandon where the little girl succumbed to convulsions.

Besides the parents, there are left three sisters and one brother, Joan, Barbara, Betty and LeRoy Neff; also the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Neff of Medford.

The body was brought to Medford Friday morning and services will be held at the Conger, chapel under the auspices of the Apostolic Faith, at 2 p. m. Saturday.

"ALL-BRAN FORMS MAJOR PORTION OF MY BREAKFAST"

Delicious Cereal Relieved His Constipation*

Read Mr. Huyghe's voluntary letter: "After suffering for years, I happened to notice in the grocery a box of ALL-BRAN. I determined to give it a fair trial.

"I cannot say enough for its effect. In I am a man 55 years of age, at the time in life when one needs just what ALL-BRAN does for you!"—Mr. Robt. A. Huyghe, 810 Union St., New Orleans, La.

*Constipation due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

Research shows that Kellogg's ALL-BRAN furnishes "bulk" to exercise the intestines. ALL-BRAN also supplies vitamin B and iron.

Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. With each meal, in serious cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Wall St. Report

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—(AP)—The stock market shook off its lethargy today and leaped ahead with a vigor that resembled some of the old "boom" seasons.

Merchandise, motor, steel and aircraft issues led the upturn which registered many new highs for the year or longer. The close was strong. It was one of the largest turnovers in several months, transfers approximating 2,725,000 shares.

Bullish forces took the bit in their teeth shortly after the opening and, despite occasional profit taking, bid prices substantially in virtually all categories.

Food for cheerfulness was contained in the freight car loadings report for the past week which showed a small but contra-seasonal increase over the previous seven days. A stock exchange seat also sold for $125,000, the best price since May 2, 1934. An encouraging statement was issued by President Wood of Sears Roebuck.

TROEH CRACKS 199 TO KEEP TRAP CUP IN OREGON HANDS

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 9.—(AP)—Frank Troeh of Portland cracked 199 out of a possible 200 pigeons to keep the class A trophy in Oregon while gunners from other states monopolized other class championships as the Pacific International trapshoot started here today.

Joe Constant of Pasco, Idaho, and Guy Chlesman of Spokane gave Troeh a close run when they each finished with 198 out of 200.

Facing the traps yesterday were 174 shooters, six less than at the start of the 1935 Oregon state championship at Medford, which was the largest opening day shoot ever held in the west.

C. E. Jossy of Tillamook and Al Brundige of Reno, Nev., tied at 197 each in the class B division, with Brundige winning when Jossy missed after 24 more hits in the shoot-off.

In class C William H. Cree of Long Beach, Cal. won with a 195.

D. H. Soverford of Ogden, Utah won the class D event with a score of 193.

E. Gunter Jr., 17, Camino, Cal., won the junior shoot with a 193.

The women's shoot was won by Mrs. J. Steiner of Portland, with 193.

Interest in the Coquille-Medford baseball game here Sunday is growing rapidly in the city, with prospects for the best game of the season. The Logger nine comes to Medford with a six-and-win tie with the locals, which both teams have resolved to break in their own favor.

Bauman, Rogue twirler who pitched beautiful ball at Coquille Sunday, only to lose his game on bad breaks, has been working out all week at top speed so as to be able to stand the pace Sunday. His howling curves against Coquille's seven southpaw hitters, are being depended upon by his teammates to make up the winning margin.

Boulevard and Welton, Bellingham Normal stars who have been with the Rogues most of the year, will be here for the game, and their support is expected to strengthen the Rogue infield considerably.

Manager "Booster" Hoffard, who called to get a hit last Sunday against Brewer, Logger hurler, considers the collection of several wallops a personal matter Sunday.

Defeat School Plan. THE DALLES, Ore., Aug. 9.—(AP)—Voters in the city schools here defeated a proposed $5000 bond issue for a new building to house a Smith-Hughes course of agriculture, a vote count showed today. The vote was 154 against the issue to 79 for it.
