We are very happy to say that by the faithful labors of Bro. Snyder and those men who have so freely helped him, it is possible for us to announce that by the SUNDAY OF AUGUST 18th we will be in the new church building on the corner of East Jackson and Beate street. We were expecting to be in for this Sunday, but Brother Snyder was called away and we were unable so to do. We cordially invite those on the east side of the city to come and be with us, if they are not active in some other church. This is a little church, but we want to have a big welcome and warm hearts to those who come. Come once and you will not be a stranger the second time.

The W. C. T. U.
W. C. T. U. met Thursday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. E. A. Odenburg, 365 E. Jackson street. The purpose of holding an evening meeting was to give the men an opportunity of attending and several did so, nearly all being honorary members of the union. An honored guest of the evening was Dr. Clara Cogswell Ingham of Portland, state W. C. T. U. director of health. Dr. Ingham was in attendance at the convention of the League of Western Writers here and read one of her poems, "Answering Echoes" which she had written for the convention. During the evening she gave fine talks on health and on the work of her department. Mrs. Augusta McCormick of Ashland, county W. C. T. U. president was also a guest.
Mrs. Minnie Bryant, program chairman, introduced Rev. Welford A. Daves, new pastor of the Baptist church and his wife, Mrs. Daves, conducted an inspiring devotional service. Mrs. Knotts closing with prayer. The topic for discussion was "Temperance Teaching in the Sunday School" and representatives of several churches spoke on how the work was carried on among their young people. Mrs. Bryant spoke on behalf of the Baptist Sunday school. Miss Helen Wilson brought an encouraging message from the Nazarene church telling of the plan of their general assembly to endorse the work of the W. C. T. U. in all their activities; to start study classes in temperance teaching and to come out as never before for temperance. Mrs. Lucretia Whitlock spoke of the methods used in the First M. E. Sunday school. Rev. Weston Shields and Mrs. Bell Littlell told of the work in the Presbyterian school. Mrs. Julia Gregory gave an interesting account of the temperance training carried on in all departments of the Christian Sunday school.
Regret was expressed that Rev. ad Mrs. E. N. Long are leaving Medford. Mrs. Long has been a worker in the union during their stay here. Mrs.
