

TROEH BREAKS TIE TO CAPTURE MAIN TRAPSHOOT HONOR

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 12.—(AP)—J. B. Troeh of Eugene, Ore., won the grand Pacific handicap title here yesterday as a new attendance mark for shooting competition was set at the Pacific International Trapshooting association's meet.

Competing for the championship were 251 gunners, more than ever faced the line on any similar event in the United States excepting the Grand American itself.

Troeh won his championship only by breaking 25 targets in a shoot-off after ending in a four-way tie for first. In a tie with Troeh was H. Croissant of Grants Pass, Ore., who took second by breaking 23 in the shoot-off, followed by Herman R. Peterson, Dillon, Mont., who broke 22 in the shoot-off, and Alex Seavey of Eugene, Ore., who broke 20 in the shoot-off.

Ed Merrithew of San Mateo, Cal., broke 20 targets in the shoot-off to win the doubles championship over George Young of Buckley, Wash.

Miss J. Steiner of Portland scored 61 to win the women's event in the Grand Pacific handicap. Ernest Cassien, Jr., of Camano, Cal., made a clean sweep of the junior events by breaking an even 90 from 22 yards.

Frank Troeh of Portland was high over all on registered targets for the week with 834 out of 870. C. G. Hillbrand of Independence, Ore., was second with 833 out of 870.

Chet Rehfield of Portland, won the skeet championship with the high score of 99. The junior title went to E. Carsten, Jr., on 87.

Portland won the team shoot with 232. Wenatchee, Wash., was second with 224 and Seattle third with 187.

Class results were: class A, C. W. Richards of Seattle, 46; Grayson Davis of Wenatchee, 46; class B, W. B. Farmer of Salt Lake City, 45; D. V. McGary of Victoria, B. C., 43; class C, D. C. Rich of Lewiston, Idaho, 42; G. A. Hawman of McMinnville, Ore., 35.

YOUNGSTERS, VETERANS BOOM PENNANT DRIVE

In their startling drive for the top of the National League, the Chicago Cubs have been aided by the sensational work of rookies and veterans alike. Among reasons for the smile on the face of Manager Grimes (top center) are these outstanding players: Frank Demarce (left), heavy hitting outfielder; Augie Galan (upper left), dependable lead off man; Stan Hack (center below), versatile infielder. Two veterans who have sparked are Catcher Gabby Hartnett (top right) and Pitcher Charlie Root (lower right). (Associated Press Photos)

SID NEWTON TOPS TRAP CHAMPIONS

Sid Newton, Medford trap shooter who blazed his way to the top in the Oregon state handicap shoot held in Medford in June, yesterday unlimbered his heavy artillery and showed to Oregon, and to the seven other coast states, that his rating was not accidental, when he took the "Champion-of-Champions" title in a shoot-off of all Pacific coast handicap champions at the Pacific International shoot at Portland.

Newton, in perfect form, mowed down 81 birds out of a possible one hundred in the first flight, to tie for high with Joe Cotant, Idaho state bomber from Boise. In the shoot-off, Newton steadied and smashed a remarkable 25-straight to drop the Idaho champ by two birds, Cotant breaking a nice 25. The win for the local dead-eye is even more outstanding in view of the fact that he had had no time for extensive practice at the Portland traps, having driven up from Medford the afternoon before, arriving in Portland after dark.

Newton is noted as one of the deadliest shots on the coast when forced into a dangerous position.

Other Medford shooters attending the meet were Mayor George Porter, John Tomlin, T. E. "Dan" Daniels, president of the Medford club; Dr. Chas. Lemery and Ray Coleman of Jacksonville.

EARLY APPLE HAS CALL IN ENGLAND

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.—(AP)—The agriculture department reported today that a serious freeze in England had increased the British demand for early apples.

Whether the increased demand would continue for the whole season, the department said was a question it could not answer.

August crop reports indicated the Cumberland valley crop will be larger this year than last year.

The forecast for western states exceeded the 1934 commercial crop by 7 per cent, but was 12 per cent below the 1928-32 average.

Intense heat in mid-July was said to have produced some sunscald and burn in the orchards of Washington and Oregon.

Orchards in northern Virginia, Maryland and West Virginia and in Missouri and Kansas were showing need of rain by August 1.

ROGUES REVIVAL COMES TOO LATE, DEFEATED 12-10

Failure of the Medford Rogues' outfielders to get within yelling distance of pop flies they should have been able to catch in their hip pockets, errors in the infield, and a general listlessness which bore a marked resemblance to spring fever allowed the Coquille baseball team to take their second straight baseball win from Medford yesterday, 12-10.

At the beginning of the second half of the 5th, the score stood at 8-0, and Coquille had the eight. Apparently nobody cared much. Donovan, on 3rd, showing his first slump of the playing season just couldn't get his glove on grounders that he generally takes in stride, and had five errors for five innings. The rest of the team didn't look much better.

With the score standing 8-0, Manager Hoffard finally shifted Arnie to 3rd, swung Cavelli into 2nd, and put Donovan on short to halt the avalanche of runs and the Rogues, perking up somewhat, drove in five runs in the second half of the 5th.

The change apparently had the desired effect. The outfielders shook themselves from their lethargy somewhat, the infield stiffened, and a steady march resulted in enough runs to bring the score to 12-10, but in the last half of the 9th, with Kenton on 3rd and Bauman on 2nd, Cavelli wound up for his third strike, and did just that, ending the game, and Medford's hopes of knighting the count.

For the visitors, Hal Sowers, former Medford star now with the Loggers, was the fly in the Rogues' omelette, covering the entire outfield like a madman, and turning in some beautiful heaves from the far gardens.

Most of the runs scored by Coquille were results of cool-headed capitalizing on Medford errors.

A large delegation from the coast town accompanied the team to Medford.

the watersheds of the various streams would be worth while. Should the preliminary survey prove as favorable as other portions of the area along the coast, Dr. Needham stated he would recommend an immediate study of that section.

The party will investigate Pistol river, the Chetco and Winchuck.

A crew of volunteer workers expect to assemble this week at Canfield riffle on the lower Rogue river to blast an adequate fishway from the stream's bed, sufficient for the steelhead and salmon to pass up stream across the bar, according to word from Gold Beach.

At the present time the riffle is very shallow, the waters of the Rogue flowing beneath the gravel, leaving barely enough water for the migratory fish to go upstream. Powder for blasting was secured from the forest service.

STRENGTHEN RING FOR BATTLE ROYAL

Promoter Mack Lillard started arrangements today for strengthening of the wrestling ring at the armory in view of the battle royal of five grip and grapple artists there on Thursday night. "With about a thousand pounds of wrestlers and two referees in the ring at once, it is going to take a plenty strong platform to stand up," declared the promoter. Additional seats are also to be installed as it is expected that the sight of five huskies all tangling at once will draw the largest crowd ever to visit the armory.

Under the battle royal rules Pete Belcastro, Al Karasick, Sam Leathers, Johnny Boos and Joe Hubka will enter the arena and start operations at the same time. When all have been thrown except two, the pair will be given five minutes rest and will then return to continue for 30 minutes or until one scores a fall.

It will be one of the few times in sport history that heavyweights have consented to engage in a battle royal.

SUGAR CREST NINE CHAMPS OF LEGION

WOODBURN, Ore., Aug. 12.—(AP)—The Sugar Crest team of Portland today held the coveted position as 1935 State American Legion Junior Baseball champions, following a decisive 16 to 6 conquest of The Dalles here Sunday, in which Johnny Linde, Sugar Crest soubriaw, hurled no-hit, no-run ball.

Linde issued six free passes to first, but only two men reached second, both on sacrifices. His team played errorless ball behind him.

The Sugar Crest team today was on its way to Great Falls, Mont., to enter the regional playoffs with state champions of Washington, Idaho and Montana, on Wednesday and Thursday.

Roseburg noosed out Milwaukee 5 to 4 in a consolation battle featured by a triple play by Milwaukee in the second inning.

The most valuable player award went to Gordon Williamson, Sugar Crest third baseman.

FORE!

WHAT about that mashie, that driver, that golf bag you've been thinking of buying? Do you need a new swim suit? Beach towels? A new racquet, tennis shoes, slacks?

Just make a list of the things that would raise your scores and make your summer sports more enjoyable. But, before you buy, let us say "fore!" Don't drive your money down the fairway of trade until you are sure the course is clear, until you can see the flag at the next hole. Study the advertisements in this paper, and learn exactly where to get what you want at the prices you can afford to pay.

That is the professional, money-saving way to buy. Though buying in fun, you'll get better results if you make a business of it and shop in your newspaper before you go to the stores.
