WRITER FIRM FOR BEING FROZEN AS SCIENTIFIC TEST

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 12.—(AP) Regardless of what objections his parents may have, Stephen K. Simkhovitch, husky Hollywood writer, today declared he will go through with what has been promised as a round trip to the "great beyond" by allowing himself to be frozen and then, if possible, revived.

"I have my own life to lead," he said, "and if it is to be sacrificed for science, it won't make any difference. There are no girls in my life. I am not a curiosity-seeker, and I am not afraid."

Dr. Ralph Willard, California biometrician, claims he can freeze Simkhovitch to a state of "suspended animation" and then revive him.

Mrs. Mary K. Simkhovitch, president of the National Public Housing conference and director of Greenwich House in New York, was reported to have urged Dr. George Parrish, city health officer of Los Angeles, asking official interference. She described the proposed experiment as "incredible." Her husband is Dr. Vladimir G. Simkhovitch, professor of economic history at Columbia university.

Technicolor Film At Craterian Now Delights Audience

Coming as an epochal event in the history of film entertainment, the much heralded local feature, "Becky Sharp" had its first premiere at the Craterian theatre last night.

The picture elicits cheers and expressions of admiring wonder. Gorgeously beautiful, stunningly lifelike, the picture is all that has been claimed for it, and more.

"Becky Sharp" moreover is far beyond being a mere pageant of gorgeous color. It is a gem of screen entertainment, sparkling with humor, replete with romance, and rich with drama. Perfectly enacted, expertly directed, and lavishly produced, it is a masterpiece of dramatic art.

Miriam Hopkins, starring in the title role, rises to heights in her characterization of the lovely, vivacious, and successful coquette. She has invested her role with life and understanding, to make the beautiful, wayward, Becky a character to linger long in the memory.

Alan Mowbray, as Rawdon Crawley; Frances Dee, as Amelia Gledley; and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, as the Marquis of Steyne; are splendid in their roles. Other outstanding performances are given by Nigel Bruce, G. P. Huntley, Jr., Billie Burke, Alison Skipworth, Colin Tapley and William Faversham.

"Becky Sharp" as most lovers of literature know, is the story of a willful and clever beauty, who uses her loveliness to advance her social position and make a sweeping conquest of the hearts of men. True to Thackeray's story, the picture deals with the elite of the London society of the early nineteenth century.

Creighton Given Schisslers Post

CHICAGO, Aug. 12.—(AP) A player-coach—the first in the National Professional Football league since 1931—will direct the Chicago Cardinals this fall.

Milan Creighton, a lineman and member of the Cardinals since 1931, was appointed to succeed Paul Schissler, who resigned his post at the conclusion of last fall's campaign.

The last player-coach in the national league was Ernie Nevers, former all-American fullback at Stanford, who left the Cardinals after the 1931 season.

Creighton, who attended the University of Arkansas, is the youngest coach in the league. He is 37 years old. He made the all-star professional team in 1931.
