HOOVER SIGNALS OPENING OF WAR WITH DEMOCRATS

While some Republicans and Democrats interpret the statement as a bid by Mr. Hoover for the presidential nomination next year, other denied this was necessarily the correct way to construe it.

Meantime, there was no indication that President Roosevelt, who returned last night from a fishing trip on the yacht Sequoia, would make any statement, from Rep. Vinson (D., Ky.) came the comment: "No constitutional amendment has been submitted and nobody has said that one will be."

been raised since the civil war. Common frankness requires that the administration come forward to the people and declare precisely whom, under our constitution, we can not correct evils and can not prevent social maladjustments.

Close to half-way between Victoria and Vancouver are the straits of Georgia. These are narrow straits which wind in and out among the islands. This stretch of water was quite narrow and the steamer had to pass through at a slow speed. After leaving the straits of Georgia, the boat passed out into the Puget sound onto a stretch about 40 miles in length.

After the boat had passed this stretch of water and landed at Vancouver, the boys got off the boat to see the Canadian city.
