2 HURT IN BEND STORE EXPLOSION

BEND Ore., Aug. 17.—(AP)—Several persons were injured, one seriously, and the Bend Hardware company's store was badly damaged by an explosion late today.

Firemen believed the blast was caused by explosion of several kegs of black powder and dynamite caps in the store. A match, dropped into a trail of powder, is believed to have been responsible.

M. E. Simpson, store clerk, was badly burned and cut and suffered greatly from shock. Mrs. Ralph Grimes was cut and burned.

A fire that followed the explosion was quickly checked.

The store is one of the largest of
