Miss Parsons Weds John Day Saturday At Hillcrest Home

At a beautiful ceremony at Hillcrest, summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald H. Parsons of this city and Seattle, their daughter Miss Mary Bowne Parsons became the bride of John Stewart Day, son of Judge and Mrs. Earl B. Day of Sams Valley at 7:00 o'clock last night, while Mr. Carlton Jones played Mendelssohn's Wedding March on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Jones at the piano. The wedding gown of cream satin had a high neckline and bertha of lace with the tulle veil and Limerick lace caught with orange blossoms and falling from the head to the end of the train, a replica of her mother's wedding gown.

The bridesmaid, Miss Betty Bardwell, wore a gown of Elinor blue chifon with bertha of pale blue combined with Elinor blue, with accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and blue delphinium.

The bride's mother was wearing a gown of pastel print with a corsage of yellow roses, the same as that carried by the groom's mother, who wore a blue lace gown.

The bridegroom's sister, Miss Nancy Day, wore yellow taffeta.

Eric C. Westergren, Edward Reames, Charles Reum, William S. Newhall, F. K. Beuel and George H. Parsons acted as ushers, and assisting were Mrs. D. A. McDonald, Mrs. B. J. Day, Jr., Mrs. Robert Maentz, Mrs. Charles Barnes, Mrs. J. C. Daniel, Miss Dorothy Roberts, Miss Mary Hayes, Miss Gloria Getchell, and Miss Betty Bardwell.

The Rev. Frederick A. McDonald, brother of Mrs. George H. Parsons, read the impressive ceremony, after which the bridal couple, members of the family, and intimate friends adjourned to the dining room, attractively decorated, as was the rest of

Silver Anniversary For Carl Ludwigs

Last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ludwigs of 511 Austin street were very pleasantly surprised when about 35 members of Mistletoe club, and friends, appeared unannounced to help them celebrate their twenty-fifth, or "silver" wedding anniversary.

The club presented them with a beautiful sheaf of flowers and a silver sugar and cream set. Mr. and Mrs. Roy McConchie gave them a silver salt and pepper set. At the close of the very enjoyable evening, delicious refreshments were served, including a lovely appropriately decorated cake. Those responsible for the happy occasion were Neighbor Francis McConchie and her committee, Neighbors Nora Glascock, Maude Lovell, Marie Ganterben and Jessie Lains.
