CALIFORNIA TEST ON AAA VALIDITY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Constitutionality of the agricultural adjustment act was challenged today by the state of California. Officials here said it was the first such action taken by a state.
State Attorney General U. S. Webb filed today in United States district court here on behalf of the state an action against John B. Lewis as collector of internal revenue for recovery of $20,845 he said the state government has paid in processing taxes.
The tax was levied in connection with supplies for state institutions.

HUMORIST'S KIN GATHER FOR SAD TRIP BACK HOME

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Will Rogers and her daughter, Mary, arrived in New York today after a hurried trip from Maine, en route to their California home to lay to rest the remains of husband and father, Will Rogers.
With Dorothy Stone, daughter of actor Fred Stone, an intimate of the dead comedian, the Rogers motored into the city from Stamford where they left the train which had brought them from Oakland, Me.
Here they went into seclusion, avoiding the public gaze and — friends said—hiding their grief even from persons closest to them. They will await the arrival of the eldest son of the philosopher-humorist, Will, Jr., arriving by airplane tonight from the west coast, before completing plans for the trip to Santa Monica.
At the hotel where Jimmy Rogers, another son, was still registered today, it was said he had not returned. It was assumed he had joined his mother and sister. With them, too, was Miss Theda Blake, sister of Mrs. Rogers.

Attractive Child Contest To Open

The Kennell Ellis studio's fifth annual "most attractive child contest" will open tomorrow, August 19, with free sittings for entrants between the ages of five months and five years, according to announcement by Mrs. Howard LeClerc.
Forty dollars in cash prizes will be awarded at the end of the event, $10 going to the winner in each of the four groups. The contest is open to all babies, girls, boys, twins from five months to five years and each one has an equal chance to win. Appointments for photographs should be made as soon as possible, Mrs. LeClerc stated.

ST. PETER'S LUTHERAN CHURCH
10 Portland Ave.

Rev. H. H. Young
Pastor, St. Peter's Lutheran Church

Relative to age St. Peter's Lutheran church is an infant in the church-family of Medford. Though work has been carried on in southern Oregon for the last ten years it was not until four years ago that the congregation gained a foothold in Medford. Services were originally conducted near Jacksonville and in Ashland. On June 7, 1928 an organization was effected in Ashland. The six charter members were: Messrs. John Hessenauer, L. W. Kruggel, E. R. Pech, John Hueners, R. Scheidereiter, and the pastor H. H. Young. The congregation became associated with the Missouri Synod branch of the Lutheran church.

Because Medford was more ideally situated for the constituency of the congregation, the property on the corner of East Main and Portland Ave. was purchased in the summer of 1930 on which a chapel-parsonage combination was erected. The chapel was dedicated May 10, 1931. This relocating was a wise move, for the congregation has doubled its membership within the last four years, having at present a baptized membership of 106.

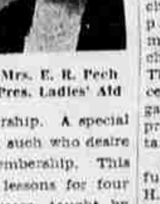
W. W. Thiede
Chr. Church Council

The congregation prides itself on the active participation of all members. During the year 1934 the congregation enjoyed an average of 71 percent church attendance.

In order not to over-organize the congregation only such organizations have been called into being which meet the normal requirements of church activity and social life. The church council, consisting of all officers of the church, serve as the pastor's right hand in conducting the spiritual and business affairs of the church. Mr. W. W. Thiede of Jacksonville is the chairman. Messrs. E. R. Pech, John Hueners, E. C. Guetzlaff, Theo. Guetzlaff, and Ernest Hueners are present members of the council.

Ernest Hueners
Supt. Sunday Schl.

The educational phase of the church is largely taken care of by the Sunday school, Bible class, and special membership classes. The Sunday school is well regulated to accommodate the children from ages three to fourteen. A staff of well trained teachers are in charge of the various classes. Mr. Ernest Hueners has faithfully served as superintendent for the last three years. Other members of the staff are Mrs. A. Reinking, Mrs. E. Tams, Mrs. Ernest Hueners, Miss Sarah Thiede, Ida Bowman, and Ora Mie Thiede. The senior Bible class absorbs all ages from 15 to 85. Graduation from Sunday school does not qualify the child for communicant membership. A special class is formed for all such who desire communicant membership. This course offers weekly lessons for four months up to two years, taught by the pastor.



Mrs. E. R. Pech
Pres. Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid is entering its third year of service. Its aim is chiefly that of being an auxiliary to the church. And many fine improvements in and about the church speak the praise of this worthy organization. Mrs. E. R. Pech has ably served as president for two years, and Mrs. H. H. Young is entering her second term as secretary of the aid. Mrs. J. E. Nickols is the treasurer.

An organization enjoying great popularity is the Young People's society. Sociability and charity are its aim. It has succeeded admirably in keeping the youth with the church and in participating in many worthy and charitable causes. The present officers of this organization are Mr. Kermit Thiede, president; Miss Ann Guetzlaff, secretary; Mrs. E. Tams, treasurer.

Kermit Thiede
Pres. Y. P. S.

The congregation has been faithfully served by the present pastor, H. H. Young, for the last ten years. May God bless the activities of St. Peter's Lutheran church in this community.
