PORTLAND BUTTER SHOWS FIRM TONE, EGGS STATIONARY

PORTLAND, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Market for butter showed a firm tone as a result of increased outside inquiry although the local market was holding up well. Advance of 1/2 lb. was in effect for two top scores with butter-fat up likewise.

Stationary prices were showing for eggs because of decreased demand due to the lack of uniformity of grades under the new state law. Other markets were generally strong.

There was no special change in the cheese market situation. In practically all leading markets of the country quotations were continued on much the same basis as during the preceding six days. This applied to both primary and consuming markets.

Scarcity of live chickens continued in the local trade with prices generally firm for resales. The shortage of broilers (under 1 1/2 lbs.) is more apparent each day.

Lower prices have been forced for tomatoes as a result of increasing Yakima, Wapato and the Dalles stock. Sales in general were down to 50¢ a box during the day. Quality was generally below normal.

Cantaloupe prices were firm to higher in spots. Some Dillards appeared during the day and sold up to $2 while the best from other sections ruled $1.50 to $1.00 generally with a few $1.65 crates.

Some local face and fill Bartlett pears priced $1.25 box.

CHARLES BLITCH OF JACKSONVILLE TAKEN BY DEATH

Charles Blich, retired veteran of the U. S. army and well known resident of Jacksonville, passed away at his residence there at 2.45 p. m. Sunday at the age of 66.

He was born at Dupont, Georgia, Jan. 29, 1869. At the age of 21 he enlisted in the army, serving through both the Spanish-American and world wars. Probably the most significant part of his army career was the two years spent in Alaska, where privation, hunger and exposure came near costing him his life. This was in the days of the Alaskan gold rush when that locality was in its primitive state and soldiers were stationed there to protect the interests of the government.

Another three years were spent in Panama and after more than 30 years of continuous service he retired in 1920 and moved to Jacksonville in the same year.

Mr. Blich was a Mason, holding membership in the Jacksonville lodge. He leaves his wife, Minnie, and one son, Charles F. Blich of Jacksonville. Also one brother and one sister, W. D. Blich of Alachua, Florida and Mattie Taylor of Poulton, Georgia.

Following Mr. Blich's request, the body will be forwarded without funeral services to the Portland crematorium, leaving this evening accompanied by the son, Conger Funeral Parlor, directors.

SEATTLE, Aug. 19.—(AP)—William Collier, 61, father of Herbert L. Collier, Seattle city treasurer, died here yesterday after a six weeks' illness.

Born in Scotland, he came to the United States in 1869, first residing in Portland, Ore. He reached Portland by taking boat from New York.

Dynamic Role

Never since "Scarface" has George Raft had such a dynamic role as in the great mystery by Hammer, "The Glass Key," starting at the Rialto theater tomorrow for a three-day run. In "The Glass Key," Dashiell Hammett's most exciting story, George Raft plays the part of a hair trigger hard guy who can lead with a wink or a wallop. Edward Arnold, Claire Dodd, Rosalind Keith, Ray Milland and Tammany Young have important parts with Raft in this story about a gorilla-buster, "Old Man Rhythm" has its final showing tonight.

"Love Me Forever". Combining drama, music and romance, Grace Moore's new picture is a gift for the whole family, a thrilling evening of heart-warming entertainment.

Not since "One Night of Love" has the screen been in better form. Not since Miss Moore's last picture has anything so satisfying to the soul been flashed before our eyes or sung into our ears.

Telling the story of Margaret Howard, a debutante who suddenly finds herself penniless, "Love Me Forever" takes her from the moment she meets Stephano Correll until she sings her astoundingly beautiful debut at the Metropolitan in lovely "La Boheme." Correll, a big-time gambler, falls in love with Margaret when he hears her sing, and sponsors her career.

The advent of the girl into his life throws Correll into confusion. He lives with but one thought—the ultimate operatic success of Margaret. To this end he sacrifices everything—to the extent of plunging himself into unprofitable chaos. But his martyrdom comes to naught, for just before she signs the Metropolitan contract he has secured for her, she announces her intention of marrying Philip Cameron, a socially prominent young man of the set she used to know.

Filled with the God-given voice of Grace Moore, as Margaret Howard, "Love Me Forever" swirls on to a heart-rending dramatic climax. As Correll, Leo Carrillo certainly gives his finest portrayal. Michael Bartlett, American-born tenor who sings opposite Miss Moore in the "La Boheme" sequences, has been a hidden treasure. Robert Allen, another newcomer to the screen, is admirable and refreshing. In fact, every member of the cast seems to have been inspired by their leading lady's divine voice.

Victor Schertzinger, who was responsible for "One Night of Love" does an equally fine directorial job on this new Grace Moore vehicle. And his songs, "Whoo!" and "Love Me Forever" are tunes that will linger with you. All in all, "Love Me Forever" hits high "C" in picture-making.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Tate, who recently purchased the McCloud camp ground, have returned to Los Angeles to ship their furniture to their new home. They will return in a few weeks, and go ahead with improving the camp. They have plans for a new store, home and several new modern cabins to be ready for the coming season.

The last thing that it is possible to do for the loved one who has gone is to arrange a funeral service that will fittingly symbolize the esteem and affection in which they were held. When services are held here they have that fitting character and quality you desire so much. And the cost is comparatively moderate.
