LOS ANGELES, Cal. Aug. 21.—(AP)
—With the expected arrival here during the afternoon of the bereaved family of Will Rogers, final arrangements for the famed humorist-actor's funeral services were held up.

Mrs. Rogers and the three children —Will Jr., Mary and James—were to arrive here shortly after noon from the east. It was believed the group would leave the train at some point outside the city and drive first to Glendale, where the comedian's body, lying in a simple bronze casket, rests in Forest Lawir chapel.

As the entire nation prepared to pay honor tomorrow to "the man who never met a man he didn't like." Governor Frank F. Merriam announced he would proclaim a state-wide moment of mourning during the funeral hour tomorrows.
