

PENSION LEAGUE SWEEPS ELECTION IN ALBERTA, CAN.

Group Favoring $25 Month for All Over 50 Gains Political Power in First Entry Provincial Politics

CALGARY, Alberta, Aug. 23.—(AP)—The Social Credit League, advocating pensions of $25 a month for everyone over 50 who is a bona fide citizen of Alberta, was swept into political power today on a mounting wave of votes.

Invading provincial politics for the first time in yesterday's election, the league won 30 seats in the country ridings and held the lead for 28 others as the proportional representation count proceeded in the cities. There were 63 seats to be filled.

The last standing showed: Social credit elected, 30; liberals elected, 1; Social credit leading, 28; liberals leading, 2; united farmers leading, 1; conservative leading, 1.

William Aberhart, the 57-year-old Calgary evangelist who founded the league, undoubtedly will be Alberta's next premier, succeeding Premier R. B. Reid of the United Farmers of Alberta party, which went down to overwhelming defeat.

Surrounded by members of the Social Credit league in Calgary, Aberhart received the election returns at the Prophetic Bible institute he founded some years ago. It was there he organized the league.

A member of the Social Credit league winning a seat will resign and a by-election will be held to place Aberhart as premier.

While Aberhart was being congratulated by his supporters, Premier Reid of Edmonton conceded his personal defeat in his own riding of Vermilion which gave him 868 votes compared with 2,454 for W. A. Fallow, Social Credit; 1,084 for A. Hunter, liberal; 725 for W. Halina, communist; and 237 for A. E. Williams, conservative.

In an early morning address to his followers, Aberhart said: "I feel our opponents failed because they were fighting against the greatest economic movement that has ever been seen."

He described the election as a

COMFORT in hot weather

Kellogg's Corn Flakes—light, crisp and refreshing—are an ideal hot-weather food. Millions of Americans have found they suffer less from the heat when they enjoy Kellogg's daily.

Delicious for breakfast, with milk or cream and fruits or berries. A perfect hot-weather lunch. Fine for the children's supper, or a bedtime snack to help you sleep more soundly.

Ask your grocer for Kellogg's in the red-and-green package. Oven-fresh and crisp, even in hot, humid weather. An exclusive manufacturing process gives them that extra crispness. And they're protected by the heat-sealed WAXTITE inner bag—a patented Kellogg feature. Quality guaranteed. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

PAROLE OFFICER HITS EFFORTS TO FREE PRISONERS

On a tour of southern Oregon counties for the purpose of conferring with law enforcement officers, E. R. Duffey of Salem, state parole officer, spent today in the city conferring with Sheriff Syd I. Brown, and District Attorney George A. Codington, on parole policies and official business.

The state parole officer confirmed the report that Gordon L. Scherzmarhorn, former sheriff of Jackson county, serving three years in state prison for ballot-theft had been denied a parole, at the last parole board meeting.

It was through the efforts of Duffey that the contract between L. A. Banks, former Jackson county assessor serving a life term for murder, and former State Parole Officer Dan Kellaher was brought to light. By the terms of the contract, Banks allegedly was to pay Kellaher $50,000 for freedom.

"It is the duty of all law-abiding citizens to back up their law enforcement agencies and officials in curbing crime and criminals," Duffey said. "The governor is backing up the courts, insisting that mer convicted of crimes be denied easy paroles, as a protection to society."

"I am in favor of law enforcement officials being divorced from politics, and being elected or appointed for long terms, with removal only for cause. This would insure more efficiency and protection from crime and criminals."

Mr. Duffey cited federal court judges as examples. He also discussed a number of cases, wherein "moulin" sympathizers have sought paroles for men convicted of violent crimes, and with long prison records."

He said that the governor had denied these pleas with dynamic words, insisting "it makes no difference how much money they have, or how good-looking they are, they must pay for their misdeeds, and the courts must be sustained."

REPUBLICAN BABES DISCUSS CAMPAIGN

YELLOWSTONE PARK, Wyo., Aug. 23.—(AP)—Elder Republicans watched today as leaders of the Young Republicans league from ten western states opened a two day conference to formulate plans for their 1936 campaign.

Montana, Wyoming and Idaho held a group conference, directed by Edward S. Shattuck of California, Arthur E. Bailey, Jr., of Washington and James K. Bagley of Utah. Formation of permanent state organizations was the purpose of the meeting.

The convention also attracted many of the older heads. Youthful leaders present represented California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Nevada, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and North and South Dakota.

Saturday's program features the address of Representative Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, ardent foe of communism.
