

Society and Clubs

Alice Leach Roberts Bride of Bill Morgan In Church Ceremony

At one of the most stately and yet one of the most beautiful weddings of the summer, performed last evening at 8 o'clock in a lovely setting of late summer flowers at the First Presbyterian church, Miss Alice (Sally) Leach Roberts, daughter of Mrs. Nellie D. Roberts of South Orange street, and Elmer (Bill) St. Clair Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Morgan of Seattle, formerly of this city, were married by the Rev. Ralph S. Peterson.

The delicate pink gowns of the bride and her attendant, Miss Oma GeBauer, made a lovely picture with the blinding reds and pinks of gladiolus arranged with fern and mixed bouquets which decorated the church. The bridal party took their places at the altar to the music of the wedding march played on the church's pipe organ by Mrs. H. E. Marsh, Kenneth Parrett of Eugene, a classmate of Mr. Morgan at the University of Oregon, acted as best man.

The lovely bride was attired in a cream lace gown, trimmed in royal blue velvet with a royal blue velvet turban and eyebrow veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and lilies of the valley.

Miss GeBauer was attired in a pink crepe gown with wine colored turban and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds of a darker shade than the flowers carried by the bride.

Robert Keeney and Harold GeBauer, both of this city, were ushers. Invitations were extended to seventy-five guests. Those from out of town were the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Harold Sanders of Eugene, and her daughter, Carol; Mrs. Elly Hall of Eugene, who is guest here of Miss Katherine Sweeney; Mrs. Robert Holmes of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Terrill of Berkeley, Cal.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home of the bride's mother, who has hosted to 50 guests. Those assisting Mrs. Roberts were Mrs. Holmes, Mrs. O. C. Boggs, Mrs. R. E. Green, Mrs. C. S. Butterfield and Mrs. Ralph Terrill. The rooms were beautifully decorated with gladiolus and mixed bouquets.

Others assisting at the reception were the Misses Kathryn Sweeney, Mary Martha Sweeney, Ruth Wilson, Dorothy Nywander, and Mrs. Elly Hall, who out the bride's cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left on the evening northbound train en route to Seattle, where they will spend a day with Mr. Morgan's parents before continuing east to New York

Bride of Bill Morgan

MRS. BILL MORGAN, nee Alice Leach Roberts, was the charming bride of a wedding ceremony at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock. They left on the evening train en route to New York City, where "Bill" will start training for the 1935 season as tackle on the New York Giants professional football team.

City, where they will make their home.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford high school. Miss Roberts attended Oregon State college and Mr. Morgan is a graduate of the University of Oregon, where he attained wide recognition in a football career, which started in Medford.

For the past two years Mr. Morgan has been tackle on the New York Giants professional football team, ac-

Misses Edwards To Become Brides This Afternoon at Church

A wedding which has been the incentive of much of the summer's entertainment among prominent members of the younger set is that of the Misses Adra and Ioni Edwards, who will be married this (Sunday) evening at 4:00 o'clock, Miss Ioni to Edwin Schack of Seattle and Miss Adra to Jack Walker of this city. The wedding will be performed at the First Presbyterian church by the Rev. Ralph S. Peterson.

Bridesmaids will be Miss Georgia Edwards and Mrs. Chester Hubbard, sisters of the brides-to-be, and the bridegrooms will be attended by their brothers, Jay Schack of Seattle and William Walker of this city. William Walker arrived yesterday accompanied by M. R. Matthew of The Dalles, who will be among the out-of-town guests at the ceremony. John Schack of Seattle, Chester Hubbard, Jack Bierma and Dick Isaacs of this city will be the ushers. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Ester Bristol will sing "Still In The Night," and "At Dawning." The bridal parties will make their entrance to the music of the Lohengrin Wedding March, played by Mrs. Eva Marsh at the organ.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception for the bridal parties and close friends will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Hubbard at 2451 Lyman street.

Last evening the bridal couples were entertained at dinner at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Fuhrer and Mrs. Bruce Bauer in Wellington Heights. Invitations were extended to twenty guests. Following the dinner Mr. Walker and Mr. Schack were entertained at an informal no-hosting party given at the Chateau du Compté by Lynn Crocodile.

Several from out of town are arriving over the week-end to be among the guests of the wedding, including Mrs. Lloyd Blakeley of Bend, who is the guest of Miss Viola Templeton, Mrs. Charles Gilbert of Yreka, Cal., Miss Edna Selby of Seattle, who was expected to arrive yesterday by plane, Mrs. James H. Schack of Seattle, mother of the bridegroom, her sons John and Jay, and Betty Jones, of Seattle, formerly of this city. Miss Ioni Edwards arrived yesterday with the party from Seattle, where she has made her home for the past five years.

Especially interesting among the many social events which have been inspired by news of the wedding, was a shower given for Miss Adra last Monday at the home of Mrs. James Edmister by her daughter, Mrs. James Halver and Miss Helen Edmister.

Past Officers in Charge: Pocatontas Business Meeting: Pocatontas lodge's regular business hour this week was in charge of the following past officers: Vera Thomas, Gladys Doms, Bernice Sears, Wenhah; Gladys Doms, Propheteas, and Frank Martin, Powhatan. Refreshments were served by Wilma Hayes.

Next Friday evening will be the regular social card party. The attendance prize will be given and birth-days will be served.

Wedding Trip Takes John Days to S. F.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Day (Mary Rowne Parsons), whose wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at Hillcrest orchard August 17, have been guests in San Francisco at The Cliff for a few days during the past week. It was made known through word received here yesterday from the bay city. Their wedding trip will be continued north along the coast highway to Seattle, where they will visit for a short time before returning to Medford about the first of September.

Richard Brown and Lorena Hall Wed in Pasadena Ceremony

Of particular interest to many members of the younger set is news from the south this week that Richard Eugene Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown of Pasadena, Cal., former well known residents of this city, was married to Miss Lorena Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall of Pasadena. The wedding was performed a week from last Friday at the Pasadena hall of justice by Justice of the Peace William E. Fox.

After a short wedding trip to the exposition at San Diego, Mr. and Mrs. Brown will be at home to their friends at Pasadena, where Mr. Brown has a position in the offices of an interior decorator. Known to many friends in Medford and vicinity as "Dick," the bridegroom was a popular student at Medford high school and made his home here for many years.

Mrs. Clara Young Hostess on Friday

Mrs. Clara Young was hostess Friday afternoon at her home on South Oakdale at a pleasant affair in form of a card party given by St. Ann's Altar society. Eight tables of bridge were in play, in which Miss Elizabeth Ferguson held high score in contract and Mrs. E. W. Simmons held high in auction.

The hostess was assisted by Mesdames W. H. Fisher, H. H. DuBoque, Anna Mitsche, Rose Singler and A. V. Graves.

Miss Gill Honoree Before Miss South

Complimenting Miss Bernice Gill who will leave this week for San Francisco to enter nurse's training at Stanford, Mrs. Aito Junt and Mrs. Weldon McBea were joint hostesses at a bridge party Thursday night at the latter's home.

A Dutch supper was served during the evening and the honor guest was presented with a going-away gift. Those present included: Thelma Moore, Helen Kinsey, Elise Narregan, Marjorie Lindley, Lottie Caldwell, Dorothy Goff, Marjorie Goff, Fredericka Brommer, Joyce Oa's, Mrs. J. Fletcher, Miss Gill and the hostesses.

Motor to Medford: For Visit With Friends: Mrs. B. Haney and Mrs. W. A. James of Portland motored to Medford August 19 to visit friends here for a few days.

Miss Gritsch Leaves Today for Hollywood Wedding Set Sept. 1

Miss Mildred Gritsch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Gritsch, whose betrothal to Kenneth Swartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz, was a recent announcement of great interest in Medford, will leave by motor this (Sunday) morning for Hollywood, where the wedding will be an event of September 1.

Miss Gritsch will be accompanied south by her mother, two sisters, Evelyn Joan and Mary Elizabeth, and by Miss Mary Elizabeth Bedy.

Mr. Swartz's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Swartz of Berkeley Way, are also leaving today to attend the wedding.

Inspiration for many lovely events since announcement of the engagement, Miss Gritsch was honoree at a particularly delightful luncheon and shower last Wednesday given by Mesdames L. B. Hunter, R. L. Lewis, P. J. Naumes and E. W. Barnum. The honor-guest received many very lovely gifts.

The guests were Mesdames Clara Young, Cordy Sunderman, Jens Jensen, J. R. Marshall, Frank DeSousa, Carl Stuart, John Gritsch, Clara Fisher, William Swartz, Kate Hills, John Cunningham, J. Burroughs, Gus Weston, B. McIntosh, A. Duff, Harold Corlies, Leo Miksche, John Logan, Eric Wood and William Smith, and the Misses Annie Kelleher and Jamie Bowling.

Tex-Askwith Troth Announced Cleverly In Prospect Informal

Mrs. James E. Griese entertained with a delightful informal party for the immediate family at the Prospect Hotel Sunday evening at which the engagement of Miss Geraldine Tex of Central Point to William Askwith of Prospect was cleverly announced. Ribbons attached to place cards pulled the announcements from under a beautifully decorated cake which served as centerpiece.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Flick of Sacramento, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Tex of Central Point, Mrs. Herriott, Mrs. Stickle, Mr. and Mrs. John Holmer, Jack Bolding, John Cauler, Dewey Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Heston Orive, and the hostess. The wedding date has not been set.

Eldon Jennings Are Guests Here During Week: Guests in Medford the first part of the week included Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Jennings of Dunsmuir, Cal., who visited at the home of Mrs. Barbara Jennings and Mrs. Bernice Jennings of the Jacksonville highway.

Mrs. Ella Gould To Entertain Monday: A party is being planned for the Junior Artisan Club at the home of Mrs. Ella Gould on West Jackson street on Monday evening, August 26, from 7:30 to 9:00. Each member may invite one friend.

Knights Frequent Honorees During Visit in Medford

Mr. and Mrs. George Knight, and son Ronnie, former well-known residents of this city and now of San Francisco, have been entertained at numerous events during the past week while house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Orr of Crown Road.

Covers were placed for twelve Wednesday morning at a delightful bridge breakfast given for Mrs. Knight by Mrs. A. J. Hauk of Queen Ann. Thirty friends of the Knights were entertained Tuesday evening in their honor at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cunningham of South Oakdale avenue, and on Monday Mrs. Knight was the guest of honor at a no-host luncheon at the Hotel Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Knight left for Seattle, and expected to stop here again for a short stay enroute back to San Francisco.

Low Fares East

"Back East" Excursion Fares are now effective to all principal points in Eastern United States and Canada. Both 45-day and season limit tickets.

FIRST CLASS INTERMEDIATE and COACH CLASS

Travel through the magnificent scenery of the Canadian Rockies—stop over at those world-famous resorts, Banff and Lake Louise.

Make reservations to cross the Great Lakes on your way East, sailing from Fort William to Port McNichol, at an extra cost except meals and berth.

Fine steamships, dining, deck sports, new scenic and travel books. Transcontinental trains leave Vancouver, B. C. daily offering splendid service, safety, speed and comfort. Final steamship, sailing October 3rd, 1935. Tickets and reservations at our offices now.

Canadian Pacific W. H. Deacon, Gen'l Agent Pass. Dept., 526 S. W. Blvd., (Ac. Bank Bldg.), B.R. 0637, Portland. CANADIAN PACIFIC TRAVELER'S CHOICE. GO UP THE WORLD OVER.

Madam Butler Ends Visit at Salade Home

Madam Hanna Butler of Chicago, noted instructor in voice, left by train Friday evening after visiting for the past few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., of Central Point. Madam Butler, who presented a delightful musical with Miss Marjorie Westcott, her grand-niece, during the visit, will stop in Seattle before returning east.

NO CHARGE for complete inspection of your watch

Our experts are ready to do a good turn—for you and your watch. Why not accept this offer? Your watch completely inspected without cost!

TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS FREE OFFER

Our experts are ready to do a good turn—for you and your watch. Why not accept this offer? Your watch completely inspected without cost! In many parts, adjustments or cleaning are required. And we'll tell you so honestly. And quote you reasonable prices. Come in today.

We carry a wide selection of Gruen Watches priced from $24.75 up

Brophy's JEWELERS MEDFORD, ORE

WASHING MACHINE REPAIR SERVICE
Guaranteed work at reasonable prices. Maytag and all other makes.
Phone 491.
C. D. BEAN 339 E. Main St.

"SNOOK" The Neighborhood Kid
By THE AMERICAN LAUNDRY PHONE 873

DAD, DID YOU KNOW ME BEFORE I WAS BORN?
WHY OF COURSE NOT YOU SILLY BOY!

WELL, WHEN I WAS BORN HOW DID YA KNOW IT WAS ME?
Mom always knows it's me, because I get so dirty. But she never scolds or spansks—because she knows outdoor play is good for me, and The American Laundry launders everything clean as new!

ROUGH DRY (No Starch) 8 lbs. 56c
7c for Each Additional Pound

NOTICE!
Due To Numerous Requests

THE Handicraft Shop
Will Remain Open Until Further Notice

To Take Care of Hemstitching, Button Making, Pleating and other orders, and to Dispose of Remaining

Sale Merchandise
DON'T DELAY—BUY NOW!
The HANDICRAFT SHOP

Adrienne's Greatest COAT Promotion Event
Pay a deposit on a new Fall Coat now and be sure of getting the one you really want! Our stock is unusually complete.

BETTY ROSE COATS
The perfect Back-to-School or Business Coat. Priced at only $10.95

FUR TRIMMED COATS
Handsome coats with guaranteed linings, fine finishings and smart fabrics. Caracul, Beaver, Skunk, Marmink, Cross Fox fur trim. $29.95

Sport Coats
Smart enough to wear anywhere $18.95

ROTHMOOR DRESS COATS
Smart new models at $35.00, $49.95 to $125

Fall Hats to Complete Your Ensemble $1.95 to $12.95

ADRIENNE'S

GENERAL ELECTRIC

BEAUTY, STYLING, ALL THESE FEATURES—AND A GENERAL ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR USES 10% TO 50% LESS CURRENT

HOW LONG WILL A REFRIGERATOR LAST?

8 Point Temperature Control • Automatic Interior Light • Foot Pedal Door Opener • Ice Tray Lift • Flexible Rubber Ice Cube Tray • Food Containers of Transparent Glass

STAINLESS STEEL SUPER-FREEZER. Cannot chip or rust. Gives all 4 zones of temperatures—fast freezing and extra cold storage for frozen foods.

SLIDING SHELVES. Bring all food in plain sight and easy reach. Adjustable in height.

Prices as low as $4.80 PER MONTH

All G-E Refrigerators have the "ageless" sealed-in-steel mechanism with 5 YEARS Performance Protection for only $1 a year (included in price). It will cost $50 to $100 more to operate most electric refrigerators than it will a G-E.

PERFORMANCE, after all, is more important to you than all other features combined. Look to the mechanism. It costs less to own a General Electric. G-E mechanism is entirely sealed-in-steel requires no attention, not even oiling. The only refrigerator mechanism with forced-feed lubrication, the greatest contribution since G-E introduced sealed-in-steel mechanism and all-steel cabinets.

C. D. BEAN, INC.
220 EAST MAIN ST., MEDFORD. PHONE 497