

Jackson County Farms Earned $25,269 in Year For Crop Curtailment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—With no sugar benefit payments, Oregon ranked third in the amount of money distributed to farmers, having received $3,482,109.48. Although Utah ranked fourth in the total amount of money, $1,905,697.97, distributed, that state received the largest amount for curtailment of the sugar beet crop, the sugar payments amounting to $1,049,288.51. The following table shows the amounts of money received for curtailment of the various crops in the four states:

Dance Instructors to Give Lessons

Gloria Stuart, Universal star, and Gene La Verne showing the start of his new, thrilling dance creation.

Through the sponsorship of the Medford Mail Tribune and the Craterian theater, Medford girls are going to be given the opportunity of learning Hollywood's newest dance sensation, with an internationally famous dance instructor as their teacher. And all free.

Gene La Verne, famous dance creator and favorite ballroom dancing teacher to the movie stars, is coming to Medford to appear in person on the stage of the Craterian theater. He will introduce his latest and most beautiful ballroom dance creation, "The Dance of the Stars," the same dance he has taught to such screen celebrities as Jean Harlow, Carole Lombard, Thelma Todd, Jean Parker, Kitty Carlisle, Una Merkel, Toby Wing, Gloria Stuart and a host of others too numerous to mention. La Verne has amassed all Hollywood there in one easy lesson and Medford girls will be able to have the same instruction at absolutely no cost. All the girls learning this dance will have Mr. La Verne himself as their partner in a unique and colorful contest at the Craterian theater. Valuable prizes will be awarded those who are adjudged the winners. Read forthcoming issues of the Medford Mail Tribune for full details of the free lessons and Gene La Verne's personal appearance at the Craterian theater.

SCHOOL FINANCE MEASURE SIGNED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—(AP)—The president today signed the Robinson-Terry school finance law which authorizes the reconstruction finance corporation to lend amounts up to $10,000,000, for the benefit of tax supported public school districts. The measure is to enable political subdivisions "to reduce and refinance" outstanding indebtedness contracted for the "purpose of financing the construction, operation or maintenance of public school facilities." The act imposes a 38 per cent limit on the loan period and lays down security stipulations and definitions.

BRIDGE CRASH BLAMED ON RAIL REPAIR CREW

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 27.—(AP)—Responsibility for the train crash in which five were killed at the Little Baldwin creek bridge west of here August 6, was fixed today upon the head of the repair crew working on the bridge, his supervisor and a bridge inspector. The 38-car train hurtled into a gulch when the bridge collapsed. Besides the five killed in the twisted wreckage, three were injured.

ITALIAN VICTORY HOLDS DANGERS ASSERTS BRITON

Exhaustion Of Country Will Give Germany Free Hand In Austria—U. S. Will Feel Race Repercussion.

By SIR NORMAN ANGELL (Nobel Peace Prize Winner, 1933) (Copyright, 1935, by the Associated Press)

NORTHEY ISLAND, Malden, Essex, Eng., Aug. 27.—The results of a war between Italy and Ethiopia, insofar as they affect Britain and America, can hardly be in doubt. Italy would of course conquer Ethiopia, but not easily, and its subsequent occupation of the country will be extremely exhausting. Germany will in consequence have a free hand in Austria. Weakening Italy will be one step more toward the re-establishment of the military hegemony of Europe through Germany which both Britain and America fought the great war to frustrate.

Menace to Democracy The menace to democracy will be infinitely greater than would have been involved in a victory for pro-war Germany. Another unchecked successful assertion of fascist military power, coming after those made first by Japan and Germany—the latter having been able to defy the victors with complete impunity within a few years of their victory—will in fact reduce the remaining great democratic state of Europe, France and Great Britain, to something like impotence. The position of the British empire will be weakened in any case by the planting of an "expansionist" and an intensely militarist state, possessed of a particular Italian policy, along a line vital to imperial communication commanding the headwaters of the blue Nile, and establishing a new frontier marching 100 miles with the frontiers of British colonies. A still more important consideration is that Italian aggression upon the only remaining independent African state will add the most inflammable fuel to the flames of Asiatic and African nationalism which must sooner or later place the whole imperial structure in danger. The intensification of race feeling will certainly have American repercussions.

Intervention Inevitable Sooner or later Britain will be compelled to intervene. As guardian and chief shareholder of the Suez canal, the position of facilitating and making profit out of an act of aggression which defies all international rights and which also undermines Britain's own security, will become too absurd for indefinite acceptance by the British people.

"Intervention" mustn't be read as naval or military operations. It may consist of closing the canal, leaving the next step to Italy. America won't be dragged in in the sense that she was dragged in in 1917. But sooner or later she will be compelled to cooperate with other states in withholding from Italy not merely munitions in the last stage of manufacture but those things indispensable to war.

The United States not only is a signatory but the actual initiator of the treaty declaring non-defensive war a crime against mankind. To supply a criminal with means for his crime or to refuse to co-operate in checking or making difficult what America herself declared to be a crime will, as the situation is clarified, come as a shock to the American conscience. There will ultimately be co-operation between Great Britain and America to stop the supply of means for carrying on operations which before long become little more than senseless murder. Britain could have stopped the whole drift toward war if she had been given a lead modeled on the action of American statesmen something over a century ago; if, in other words, she had declared a principle of the covenant to be her Monroe doctrine. The covenant declares a state in the circumstances of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute which goes to war with one member of the league goes to war with all.

Water Spout Kills 6 In Genoa Harbor

GENOA, Italy, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Rescue squadrons searched the harbor today for victims of last night's water spout which killed six persons and injured at least 50 others. A survey indicated damage to smaller shipping vessels, and the havoc caused by the huge inrush of water to the docks probably would run into the millions. The larger vessels anchored in the harbor suffered relatively slight damage.
