TWO GRADES OF EGGS TAKE ONE CENT DIP

PORTLAND, Aug. 27.—(AP)—Eggs on the exchange showed a loss of 1c each on large standards and small extras. On the open market pullets were openly selling below established values generally. There was a steady tone generally suggested for buster locally and mostly without suggestion of price change. Eggs are holding up much better than normal. Cheese market reflected a firm tone at late price advances which were more or less general throughout the country. Stars of Smart Craterian Cast

Teamed in the leading roles of "Jaina" is coming to the Rialto theater tomorrow and Thursday, with Kay Johnson, Ian Hunter, C. Aubrey Smith, Nigel Bruce and David Manners in the stellar roles. Following the book with extraordinary faithfulness, the picture tells the story of a Canadian farm family bound by Jaina, their ancestral estate, quarrels are frequent and regular, but the tribal bonds of loyalty remain intact. When two sons bring two beautiful young brides into the hallowed precincts of Jaina, the harmony is disrupted. Brides and groom interlock romances, but loyalty remains in the forefront. How the complicated affairs are finally brought to a satisfactory conclusion forms the climax of the story.

MRS. FABRICK IS ROTARY SPEAKER

Members of the Medford Rotary club, their wives and invited guests enjoyed an interesting talk on the islands of the Pacific by Mrs. Glen Fabrick at the meeting of today's program at the Hotel Medford. Mrs. Fabrick gave a vivid description of the colorful and romantic islands which she visited on a recent voyage, and her impressions of the natives. A verbal glimpse of the beautiful Hawaiian Islands and South Sea lands of Samoa and Fiji introduced Mrs. Fabrick's talk, followed by a description of New Zealand and its people. The "upside down" land of Australia, colorful cities and interior, the aboriginal and animal life were next described by the speaker. Mrs. Fabrick's travels included New Guinea and the beautiful island of Bali and she entertainingly told of her visit to these lands before sailing for China and Japan. The climax of the talk was her visit with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buck of "bring 'em back alive" fame, to the Malayan snake markets.

AMERICAN LEGION WILL BACK RODEO

The American Legion will sponsor a big rodeo here, at the fairgrounds, on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 21 and 22, it was announced today by Cole Holmes, commander. Committees for the affair have been appointed, and arrangements are nearly completed for what is to be probably the biggest show of its kind ever held here. Norman Cowan, his crew of riders, and bucking horses will be here. Buff Jones, fancy ropier, will be among the entertainers. Champion riders from all points in western United States will be here for the two days, it is said. Other features of the celebration will be a pet parade, and a pioneer parade, featuring all of the rodeo riders, and many riders from this city. Use Mail Tribune want ads.
