Crater Lake Scene Hensley-Rostel Rites On Saturday Evening

A beautiful ceremony at the attractive Crater Lake home of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Canfield solemnized the wedding last evening at 8:00 o'clock of Miss Margaret Hensley of Medford, daughter of Mr. Richard Hensley of Portland, and Ernest Rostel, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rostel of Central Point. The Episcopal service was read by the Rev. E. S. Bartlam, rector of St. Mark's church, in the presence of 100 guests from the national park and from Medford.

The bride, who was attended by Mrs. Berthold Rostel as matron of honor, wore a gown of heavy white satin, modeled on princess lines with short train and high neckline, marked in the back with buttons and with full sleeves, ending in long fitted cuffs, extending to the elbows. She wore as head dress a cap of white net, beaded in pearls, emphasizing her lovely brunette coloring, and at her throat the pearls of the late Mrs. Rostel, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, lilies of valley and orchids.

Mrs. Rostel was gowned in yellow net over tulle with sash of chartruese and wore a close fitting hat of yellow net, finished with halo brim and trimmed in chartruese. She carried yellow roses.

Mr. Berthold Rostel was his brother's best man.

The wedding, which was the first to be solemnized in Crater Lake National park, was followed by a reception at the Canfield home, after which the bride and groom left on their honeymoon. Mrs. Rostel wearing for going away an autumn model of rust crepe with brown coat and brown accessories.

The bride, who was graduated from the University of Oregon in 1927, played a prominent part in journalistic activities on the campus and was affiliated with Theta Sigma national honor society in journalism. Since 1928 she has been a member of The Mail Tribune staff.

Mrs. Rostel is ranger in the public relations department of the National Park service, stationed at Crater Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Back from Extended Journey in the East

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Fisher returned last evening from an extended tour of the east. They visited in New York City for six weeks with their son, William P. Fisher, and family, and also attended the wedding of their nephew, Bud Boeringer to Miss Janet Weber, in St. Paul.

William P. Fisher is a graduate of Medford high school, and also Thiel College of Santa Clara, and is remembered by many school friends here. He now has a position with the Bell Laboratories in New York City. Mr. Boeringer is a graduate of Notre Dame, where he was an All-American football player in 1926.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher witnessed a dress parade at West Point, and visited many other interesting spots.

Semons to Leave On Vacation Tour

With the opening of the fall vacation season, many Medford residents are planning motor tours of the coast or of the mountains, where the national parks are an especial attraction, and among the first to leave will be Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Semon.

They plan to leave Tuesday of Wednesday, enroute to Yellowstone National park, and will stop at Kalspell, Mont., to visit their daughter, Mrs. J. K. Jorgensen, who will be remembered here as the former Miss Marjorie Semon.

Mr. and Mrs. Semon will then motor to Glacier National park and Seattle, returning after a month's stay.

FIRST DAY CROWD STATE FAIR HIGH

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 31.—(UP)—More than 15,000 persons passed through the turnstiles at the state fair today, one of the biggest opening day attendances in its history, officials said tonight.

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 31.—(UP)—Thousands attended Oregon's 74th annual state fair today, when gates were thrown open for the first of an eight day show.

It was children's day, and the boys and girls greatly outnumbered the adults. A feature event was a circus parade, with huge inflated rubber animals and figures. Fireworks were held at night.

Sunday will be pioneer and 4-H club day.

Horse racing will not start until Monday, state controlled pari-mutuel betting machines will be used to handle races, seven of which will be run daily. Night rodeo and horse shows will also start Monday and continue daily.

The dog show will open Wednesday for remainder of the fair.

SEATTLE FACING PRODUCE STRIKE

SEATTLE, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Seattle commission merchants reported heavy trade today as the threat of a widespread strike hung over Seattle's produce row.

Some of the heavy buying was attributed to the double holiday over the week-end but the rest, produce companies said, was caused by retailers' desire to stock up as far in advance as possible to guard against a possible shortage.

The Produce Merchants association, headed by John A. Weston, met today to determine a definite policy. Two plans were under consideration: one to continue operations under police protection even if a strike spreads throughout the industry, and the other to shut down each establishment as the men walk out.

Wool Stronger.

BOSTON, Aug. 31.—(AP-USA)—The wool report in Boston showed a very strong tone during the past week.

Biography

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—(AP)—Mrs. Anna Wilmarth Ickes who was killed in an automobile accident near Santa Fe, N. M., today, was born in Chicago in 1873.

She was educated at South Division high school, Chicago, and the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Ickes was elected to the Illinois general assembly in 1928 as a Republican representative from the seventh district and was re-elected in 1930 and 1932. She retired in 1934.

She served for a number of years as a member of the board of trustees of the University of Illinois. She was a member of the Episcopal church and a number of clubs and civic organizations.

She married Harold Ickes in 1911. Four children were born to the union. Mrs. Requa Bryant, Wilmarth, Raymond and Robert. Her interest in politics dated back to her husband's campaigns and his efforts to elect Hiram Johnson and Charles Evans Hughes to the presidency.

She was vitally interested in, and a staunch supporter of, national prohibition.

Mrs. Ickes devoted much of her time to her work for better housing—she was a pioneer in this type of endeavor—and for child welfare.

John Ickes of Chicago, a brother of Harold, said Mrs. Ickes had been in the southwest for about a month. She said Secretary Ickes planned to join her there later when the press of his duties in Washington lessened.
