MILLION CONVERSIONS SALVATION ARMY AIM IN WORLD WIDE DRIVE

One of the most ambitious spiritual campaigns undertaken by any church or religious organization in recent years will be launched by the Salvation Army Monday, Labor day. Evangeline Booth, general of the organization, has called for a campaign of concerted action throughout the ninety countries and colonies in which the Salvation Army is at work. The objective of this great international campaign is the conversion to Christ of one million souls. The campaign will last until December 31, 1935.

Commissioner Benjamin Crammes, leader of the Salvation Army forces in the western territory of the United States, which includes the eleven Pacific coast states and Hawaii, has issued a call to arms and is expected that all Salvationists and friends of the Army, in every corps, outpost, institution and hospital throughout the territory will enlist wholeheartedly in this great undertaking.

"On September 2nd," states the commissioner, "the first shots of the campaign will be fired. From then until December 31, 1935, Salvationists will make a mighty and determined effort to bring sinners to God. The battlefields will be the streets, the beer halls, the saloons, the homes, and in our own halls. Anywhere and everywhere the claims of Christ will be pressed and men and women warned to flee from the wrath to come."

A special prayer meeting, to be conducted simultaneously around the world, will be held September 2, from 8 to 10 p. m. It is estimated that more than ten million Salvationists and friends of the Army will be gathered in Army halls and circled throughout the world during these two hours. All Salvationists and friends are urged to attend the prayer meeting of the local corps, located at 411 East Main street, at the time stated.

SCOTTISH RITE FORMS COUNCIL, CONSISTORY

The formation of a council of Kadosh and a Consistory at Medford completes the four co-ordinate bodies of the Scottish Rite Masonry in southern Oregon. Members of the Rite are now planning for the fall reunion, to be held some time in November.

Formation of these two bodies has increased the interest in the Scottish Rite. Formerly the degrees, Nineteenth to Thirty-second inclusive, have been conferred by the bodies from Eugene. Degree teams are now being made up, and practice will start within a week or so. First meeting of the Rite for the fall season will be held Monday night, September 29th.

APPLAGATE GRANGERS PLAN OLD FASHIONED CELEBRATION MONDAY

BIG APPLAGATE, Aug. 31.—(Sp.) Numerous stunts, races, games, and fun of all kinds await those attending the old fashioned celebration and barbecue to be given at Applagate Monday, by the Applagate grange.

One of the stunts promising much amusement and real rewards for the most nimble is the fowl chase, in which about 20 birds, including guinea, turkeys, chickens, and geese, will be freed from their coops in a circle of people, the swift runner who catches his bird being allowed to keep his prize.

Horse racing will be one of the features rounding out a full afternoon program. Horseshoe pitching and other sports will occupy the morning from 10 to 12, when the barbecue, in charge of Sid Hansen, will be ready. The dinner will be served from long tables, and everybody is requested to bring individual table service.

A bazaar and ice cream stand will be added attractions, and a dance in the evening will complete the 1-day event. A Jacksonville orchestra has been secured for the dance. The general admission price covers the dinner and afternoon program.

The celebration will be held on Thompson creek one half mile from the Applagate store.

SCOUT REPORTER ENDS NARRATIVE OF LONG JOURNEY

By Irvin Doby
Home again are the scouts of Crater Lake Council. They arrived in Medford, Thursday at 10 a. m.

Wednesday was spent in San Francisco. The trip across the bay by ferry was interesting, particularly as the ferry crosses directly under the new Oakland-San Francisco bay bridge, now under construction. This bridge is eight miles in length, is the largest in the world, and will be open for traffic October, 1936.

At the ferry boat terminal we were met by the head man of the Standard Oil company of California, who put us on Grey line buses for a sightseeing tour. The first thing visited was the approach to the new bay bridge.

At Sutter's baths the scouts had the privilege of going in swimming in the largest indoor swimming pool.

Lunch was eaten by the boys at the Chalet as guests of the Standard Oil company. Two scouts executives of San Francisco were at this lunch. They were Mr. Colin, merit badge counselor and Mr. McFadden, assistant executive. These men welcomed the Crater Lake council to San Francisco.

The four next took the scouts thru Golden Gate park where the scouts were given permission to see Stinson's aquarium.

In the afternoon the boys had free time in which to buy souvenirs or to see more of San Francisco.

The group in which I went visited Chinatown. This section of the bay city is built much like the towns back in China.

At 8 p. m. we took a ferry back across the bay to Oakland. At 7 p. m. we left on the train for Medford, Ore. Thus ends an account of one of the greatest trips which any boy or group of boys from this part of the state will ever get again.

STATE HEAT PLAN HELD COIN SAVER

SALEM, Aug. 31.—(AP)—A report showing the cost of installation and the estimated annual savings of a central heating and electric plant for all state office buildings and institutions, was completed today by the state public utilities department.

Officials declined to make the figures public, but declared the savings would more than offset the initial investment within a few years. The report will be filed with D. O. Hood, state budget director, who will turn it over to the board of control.

The plant, if approved by the board, would be constructed at the state penitentiary. It was first suggested by State Treasurer Holman following an investigation of heating and electric units in other states.

All Medford Churches Extend to Everyone A Cordial Invitation To Come to Church

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH
Beatty and Edwards

In the spring of 1906 the Western Oregon conference of Seventh Day Adventists located Pastor W. L. Black in this city to organize a church of this faith. He at once organized a Sabbath school of the few members who were living in this vicinity.

The church was organized in the fall of 1907 with a charter membership of 14, and for a time the church held their services in the lodge hall above the "Fouts Grocery Co.", on Main street. Meetings were held there until the spring of 1908 when a lot was purchased on North Riverside avenue between Jackson and Maple streets where a frame church building was erected. This remained the church home of the Adventist people until the summer of 1924 when the building was destroyed by fire.

Our meetings then were held for a short time in the Old Methodist church on North Bartlett street and later in our school building on Edwards street.

During this time the New Church was being constructed of concrete at the present location on Beatty and Edwards streets.

From the original membership of 14 it has had a continuous growth until the present time. The membership at present numbers 300 and is operating with well organized divisions such as the Sabbath school consisting of a senior division, Young people's division, Junior, Primary, Kindergarten and Cradle roll.

The Young People's Missionary Volunteer society which is sponsoring numerous enterprises as is the Dorcas society for senior members which is engaged in welfare work.

The church operates in addition to the church activities a well manned Junior Academy, known as the Rogue River Academy located four miles southeast of Medford.

The teachings of the church and those taught in the school are those found in the Bible only, which is accepted from the first book of Genesis to the last book of Revelation, and embody a belief in the keeping of the seventh day as the Sabbath, and a belief in the second coming of Christ, from which they get the name Sev-erth-Day Adventist.

In this academy are taught all the subjects and branches usually taught and in addition the Bible is given a very prominent place. This school is manned by a full staff of accredited teachers and has at times reached an enrollment of 125 pupils, in grades one to twelve. This school is operated on a tuition basis and is supported by the membership of the church. It is however open to students other than Seventh-Day Adventists who are willing to comply with the rules and regulations, and there have been a number of such students who have attended.

It might be of interest to know that one-half of our charter membership are still in attendance.

Regular services Sabbath school (Saturday) 9:30 a. m. Preaching service 11 a. m. Young People's meeting 8 p. m. Preaching service Sunday 7:30 p. m. Prayer meeting, Wednesday 7:30 p. m.
