

Best Man on Tonight's Card Will Get Shot at Belcastro's Belt

JUNIOR CHAMPION AGREES TO PLACE CROWN AT STAKE

Fans Favor Toots Estes As Logical Candidate for Match With Pete if Strong Man Is Beaten Tonight

The outstanding wrestler of tonight's main event match at the Army between Toots Estes, flashy champion of the Hawaiian Islands, and Rocky Brooks, famous Canadian strongman, will not only get the satisfaction of having outshone one of the best wrestlers on the coast, he will also get a chance at Pete Belcastro's sacred Pacific coast junior heavyweight championship belt.

Promoter Mack Lillard today announced that Belcastro has agreed to meet the winner of tonight's match in a title bout at the Army next week, and to seal the arrangement, the Weed Wildcat says he will post $100 as a guarantee he will be through with it. The coin will be posted at the Mail Tribune office and Pete specified that if he "chickens out" the cash must go to charity.

Therefore Belcastro has amply refused to stake his belt, especially where there was the remotest chance of losing it, and due to the fact that both of tonight's main event wrestlers are considered two of the most capable grapplers ever brought together here, Promoter Lillard and local wrestling fans were stunned by Pete's sudden denouncement. Belcastro stipulated that the man who may not necessarily have been the winner of tonight's bout, but the outstanding wrestler.

The fans are putting for Toots Estes, who created a sensation in his debut here last Thursday night when he treated Belcastro to the most decisive tripping that temporary gentleman has had in a long time, still ranking in the mind of the Italian, the defeat may have had some effect to put up the belt. Pete announced that if he wins the title match, win or lose, he is leaving on a wrestling tour of Mexico.

Rocky Brooks, who is said to be able to climb a plane, among other things, has no particular desire to put up in cash, he is a professional, except that he is regarded as one of the strongest men on the continent, but the flashy Hawaiian announced that his Hawaiian title will be at stake in the event he is the one who takes the belt. Brooks, who is said to be able to climb a plane, among other things, has no particular desire to put up in cash, he is a professional, except that he is regarded as one of the strongest men on the continent, but the flashy Hawaiian announced that his Hawaiian title will be at stake in the event he is the one who takes the belt.

Although he has climbed into the air at every opportunity for the season seeking an opponent, Brooks will at last have a chance for action tonight when he meets "Big Al," Finnish grappler from Portland in the curtain raiser.

Prisbie will again be third man in the ring.

YOUNG JACKSON KAYOS, OCKLEY IN FIFTH

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 5.—(AP)—Young Peter Jackson, Los Angeles negro claimant to the California lightweight title, has a new distinction today. He knocked out Roy Ockley of Portland twice with one blow.

In the fifth round of a scheduled eight-rounder last night, the negro caught Ockley with a hard left hook to the jaw. Ockley spun to the canvas and was rising out. Then he got up, fell flat on his face again and had to be revived before he could leave the ring.

Jackson weighed 134, Ockley a pound more.

O'DOUL'S BIG BAT STILL HAS POWER

By the Associated Press.
O'Doul may not want Frank "Lefty" O'Doul in the major leagues, but he still has what it takes to win ball games in the Pacific Coast League.

The former two-time National League batting champ, now doing right well for himself as manager of the league-leading San Francisco Seals, proved this yesterday in the discomfiture of the Hollywood Stars.

Incidentally he gave his young slugger a first rate object lesson in the gentle art of hitting when hits are needed—an art for which they recently have shown a considerable inaptitude.

With Hollywood leading 2 to 1, in the seventh frame, and Larry Wood, all on base, O'Doul asserted himself as a pin-hitter and hammered one of Beryl Horne's offerings over the fence for the run which gave the Seals a 3-2 victory and a full two-game margin on their leadership. Sam Gibson chalked up his 19th win.

OPEN FOOTBALL SEEN THIS YEAR BY ARMY COACH

Major Mentors Warned to Have Laterals and Forward Passes Ready for Test—Trend Seen in '34

By EDWARD J. NEIL, Associated Press Sports Writer.

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Football is coming out into the open this season as never before, says Lieut. Gar Davidson, command-in-chief of the Army gridders, and said indeed will be the major league coach who hasn't his laterals and forward passes ready for the test.

"The way Alabama passed and ran Stanford into rout in the Rose Bowl was the preview of the kind of attack you're going to see everywhere this fall," he says.

He is passing attack. "I've got my men playing touch football as much as possible passing the ball around all the time, getting used to handling it and plucking it out of the air from all angles. I'm hoping they'll develop to a point where they'll handle laterals instinctively. We're going all the way on a passing attack."

Davidson, who has coached Army since 1921, did more good than harm. "The cadets got so used to beating Navy," he said, "that they lost their edge. I knew it before the game last fall. There was nothing I could do to hit them out of it. Now it's different. They're back on their feet again. They'll be all the tougher this year for that licking."

Has Great Combination. Davidson is concentrating on a forward-passing combination that looks spectacular. Joe Nazarro of Brooklyn, who didn't fit into last year's combination, headed by Jack Buckler and Joe Stancook, is the finest passer Army has boasted in years. On the ends are two brilliant receivers, Capt. Al Shuler and Maurice Preston. There's no bluff in Army's aerial threat.

A bigger, faster line than last year's combination, a plentitude of backs with none of Buckler's outstanding ability, gives Davidson a chance to mould a more versatile eleven. He's going in heavily for single wing-back formations, and a running attack that moves as frequently to the right as to the left. The schedule includes: Oct. 19, Harvard; 26, Yale at New Haven; Nov. 9, Pittsburg at Pittsburg; 16, Notre Dame at New York; 30, Navy at Philadelphia.

CANADIAN WOMAN WINS FIVE-MILE SWIM WITH HOME STRETCH SPURT

TORONTO, Sept. 5.—(AP) The Canadian national exhibition's five-mile women's swim title, won by invaders from the United States since its inception, was in the possession of a Dominion swimmer today.

Coming up from second place in the final mile, Charlotte Acres, 22-year-old Vancouver girl who finished third last year, won the grueling test in Lake Ontario yesterday. She finished the long grind in 2 hours, 31 minutes and 15 seconds to beat Eva Hein, 25-year-old New Yorker, by 50 yards.

Neil Hurley of Memphis, Tenn., set the pace for four and one-half miles and at one time was nearly 100 yards in front of the Canadian girl. The southerner could not match Miss Acres' speed in the final drive, however, and dropped back to third place as Miss Hein also closed fast.

Fourth place went to Janet Sheath of Toronto, May Looney, last year's winner from Warren, Ohio, finished fifth despite the handicap of a rib fracture at the start when she was kicked by another competitor. The last of the six money awards went to Mrs. Evelyn Armstrong of Detroit.

LOPEZ PINIONS STEINKE TWICE

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Vincent Lopez, California heavyweight wrestling sensation and ex-University of Idaho athlete, took two straight falls from Hans Steinke, German giant, here last night. Lopez won the first fall in 15:30 with flying tackles.

Seven minutes later he worked Steinke into a corner and after staggering him with his show planned him with another flying tackle.

BARNEY ROSS FLATTENS WESTERMAN IN PRACTICE

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Barney Ross, world welterweight champion boxer, who meets Baby Joe Gans in an open-air scheduled 10-round bout at Multnomah stadium Friday night, flattened Rollie Westerman with a left jab to the face during workout practice yesterday. He then took on Al Spina, but did not attempt to duplicate the Westerman incident, contenting himself with flashy footwork.

MAY DROP PLANS FOR BIG WIKIUP RESERVOIR

BEND, Ore., Sept. 5.—(AP)—Grave probability was said to exist today that the Wikiup reservoir for which the federal government recently allocated $1,000,000, will not be constructed.

An announcement was made that all plans for the big impounding dam in the upper Deschutes country will be dropped unless the various districts seeking a supplemental supply of water are willing to contract for storage.

ASHLAND GRIDMEN IN FIRST PRACTICE MONDAY EVENING

ASHLAND, Sept. 5.—(Sp.)—Coach Don Faber of Ashland high's Grizzlies will issue his first practice call Monday, September 8, and answering that call will be only seven lettermen of last year's red and white grid-ders.

With a line riddled by graduation and a backfield that appears to have very little power, Faber will bend his efforts toward developing a light, fast aggregation, generated by the sharp and accurate passing arm of Parker Hess.

Returning letter winners, with Hess, will be Cliff Bromley, fullback; Pat McDonald, halfback, and Leonard Warren, line backer.

In the line, returning veterans will be big Steve Fowler, tackle, Bud Eizeweler, guard, and the very tough Ken Shillings, end. Faber expects a total turnout for the initial practice session of 35 players.

The Ashland coach attended the summer coaching school of Howard Jones and Slip Madigan at U. S. C., and intends using many of the plays made famous by those two college coaches.

Seven games are so far booked for the Grizzlies, with at least three more being in the stage of negotiation. The annual Thanksgiving day battle with Medford will be played at Ashland. The Grizzlies will play four conference games.

The schedule:
September 21—Creighton City at Ashland.
September 28—Roseburg at Ashland.
October 5—Dunsmuir at Dunsmuir.
October 12—Grants Pass at Ashland.
