FIND MISSING, PINK

BAPID CITY, S. D. Sept. 5—(AP)—Discovery of bones of the earliest primates near Powell, Wyo, which may prove a pertinent factor in the study of evolution was disclosed here today by Dr. Glen Jep@b., professor of geology at Princeton university.

Dr. Jepseh, so of a Rapid City bisiness man, said the find was made by a group of Primeton university geologists in the Pt. Union formation near Powell, He estimates the bones were 20,000,000 years old "Some Gaves and a part of a skull of the earliest primate of the order to which monkeys, apes and man belong and which may be successful to RAPID CITY, S.
