BUTTE FALLS FIRE 25 YEARS AGO WAS WORST EVER SEEN

Soldiers in Charge of Major Martin, Now Governor, Sent to Battle Plains—236,000 Acres Burned

Butte Falls, Ore., Sept. 6.—(UPI)—The fire which destroyed the town of Butte Falls, Ore., 25 years ago today, was the worst ever seen in the history of the state, according to Major Martin, now Governor, who was in charge of the fire-fighting forces at the time.

The fire, which started on the morning of Sept. 6, 1910, and burned for 25 hours, destroyed the town of Butte Falls, Ore., and 236,000 acres of forest land. Major Martin, now Governor, was in charge of the fire-fighting forces at the time.
