California Sportsmen Honored With Many Week End Functions

Unusual activity was the keynote of the week end in Medford social circles. The week end, due in part to the arrival early yesterday afternoon of a group of members of the San Francisco junior chamber of commerce.

Local sportsmen met the aviators at Montague about 11 o'clock yesterday morning, continuing from there to Medford, arriving here in time for a full afternoon and evening's entertainment.

Mrs. George Roberts was hostess to the out-of-town guests at a swimming party at her home on Crown Hill in the afternoon, part of which was spent by the guests playing golf on the links of the Rogue Valley Golf club.

Post reception of the party, Mr. and Mrs. Ray St. Johns, Chas. Willott and Walter Fry, were guests of Mrs. and Mrs. A. J. Hatik, being previous acquaintances of the Ducks. The remaining visitors dined at the Hotel Medford and were later honored with a cocktail party at the W. H. Fuhrer residence, the hostesses being Mrs. W. H. Fuhrer and Mrs. Bruce Bauer. About twenty local couples were invited to meet and welcome the guests. Following the cocktail party all guests drove to the Town Club to dance for the remainder of the evening.

Taking off this morning in planes for Lake of the Woods, the visiting sportsmen will be entertained with a big party at the W. H. Fuhrer cabin there, where swimming, fishing, surfboard riding and other sports will be in order. They expect to return to Medford about noon tomorrow and will then fly back to San Francisco.

Making the trip are Warren Burke, J. N. Knowles, E. H. McMillan, Frank Fuller, Hugh Fullerton, Joseph Musto, James Cantion, Creswell C. Cole, Thomas F. Ryan III, Michael Caserly, Chet Elliott and Walter Huberg.

Others are Henry Eickhoff, L. D. Daniels, Joy St. Johns, Thomas Jennings and Michael Doolin.

The hospitality and enthusiasm with which this group was received on a previous visit was one of the main incentives for the present trip, and it would appear that this week end will strengthen the impression they received of Medford hospitality.

Portland Betrothal Is of Interest Here

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Springer of Portland, announced the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Cecilia, to Dr. Vernon Addison Coverstone, son of Mrs. E. W. Hoffman of Medford, at their home Monday evening.

Miss Springer attended the University of Oregon and is a graduate of the Multnomah training school for nurses. Dr. Coverstone graduated from the University of Oregon medical school last June, and is at present located at Camp Grant, Ore.

The wedding will be an event of Sept. 23, at the Church of St. Lawrence in Portland.

Mrs. Laura West has sister visiting. Mrs. Frederick J. Wied of Jefferson, Ore., arrived in Medford Friday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Laura West.

Bride in Crater Lake Ceremony

Students to Leave This Evening With Opening of Schools

With September come the first departures for school among Medford's younger set. Entering this evening for San Francisco are Miss Alicia Ruhl, who will enter Miss Katherine Branson's school at Ross, Calif., for her second year; Miss Charley Hart, who is also returning to Miss Branson's for her second year; Corning Kenly, Jr., and Dunbar Carpenter, son of Boston, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter this summer. Both Mr. Kenly and Mr. Carpenter are third year students at Harvard. Mary Louise Carpenter, sister of Dunbar, who has also been a guest at the A. S. V. Carpenter home this summer, will remain on the coast planning to study art in San Francisco.

Miss Roxane Ruhl will also leave on the Shasta tonight for New York, where she will visit friends and relatives, stopping at Rockford, Illinois, to spend some time at the home of her grandfather, A. S. Ruhl.

Other recent departures include Fawcett Kenly, who left August 30 to enter his last year at Hobart college in New York, and Helene and Jean Salade, who accompanied their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Salade, Jr., to San Francisco Friday morning. Miss Helene will attend Miss Branson's school and Miss Jean will go to school in Palo Alto.

Mrs. Wiley Presides At Methodist Meeting
The Missionary societies of the M. E. church met in the church parlors Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. N. J. Wiley presiding.

Mrs. Cora Cander conducted the devotional services. Stewardship was the topic, and the scripture reading was taken from John 15:19, 16. After the business meeting, Mrs. Wiley, newly elected president of the joint societies, gave a sketch of the goals and the outlook for both societies. The study book for the home branch will be, "Toward Christian America" and for the foreign, "Women Under the Southern Cross."

Medford Federation Missionary Groups Holds Fall Meeting

The Women's Missionary Federation of Medford met for their fall rally Friday afternoon at St. Mark's guild hall. Ladies of the auxiliary of the Episcopal church were hostesses, and the program was presented by ladies of the Zion Lutheran church, with the president, Mrs. George Kabele in the chair.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fluhrer presided over the devotional period, the theme being "We Are Workers Together With God." About forty ladies responded to the roll call of the societies, and two minute talks by some members of each society were given, many interesting facts about the various societies being brought up. A prayer by Rev. Dr. H. B. Thompson, accompanied by Mrs. Thompson, was a most impressive feature. It was announced that there will be a special day of prayer in the city on the first of October, the theme being "Prayer for the World."

The main address by the convention was given by Martin Barham, son of Rev. and Mrs. George Kabele. He spoke of the young men's missionary congress held recently in Chicago. Missionaries from all parts of the world were present at this congress, and speakers familiar with world conditions delivered addresses. One outstanding fact was brought out, namely, that the need of the Christian nations is not our culture, ethics and modern civilization, but the true teachings of Jesus, and its power on the life of the people.

Mrs. Weatherford closed the meeting with a prayer following Mr. Kabele's address, and Reverend Barham read the benediction.

During the social hour, the ladies of St. Mark's auxiliary served refreshments, with Mesdames Fred Heath and William Andrews presiding at the attractively appointed table.

This union meeting of the societies of the city was one of the most helpful and successful ever held, everyone present going back to her society with new inspiration for work in the individual churches during the coming months.

Sorensons Make Trip to Portland

Planning to be gone about ten days, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Sorenson and small daughter started a vacation trip Friday which will take them to Portland and Seattle.

Card Party Set for Tuesday

Planned by Society
At a meeting held last Tuesday, St. Ann's Altar society made plans for the coming year's activities. On the program is a plan for a series of card parties, the first of which will be held Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in the parish hall, and to which the public is invited. Mrs. Sid Brown is chairman of the first party.

Church Meeting to Honor Pattersons

A business meeting of the Missionary society of the M. E. church, South, was held at the church last Tuesday. After the business routine, Mrs. Bills gave a reading, "Castles." All present told amusing incidents of their early school days, followed by a review of Methodist missionary schools and colleges.

A party is planned for next Tuesday evening for the members and their husbands, honoring Rev. and Mrs. Patterson, who are leaving next week for the annual conference at Corvallis.

Drummonds Depart With Mrs. Janouch

Mrs. Karl Janouch, accompanied by Dr. and Mrs. C. I. Drummond, left this morning for a two months' vacation in the east. She will drive first to Broken Bow, Neb., to spend some time there with her brother, Hershel Oakes. She will then go to Tulsa, Okla., to visit her sister, Miss Inez Oakes, who was a Medford visitor about six weeks ago. Mrs. Janouch will also be a guest of her father-in-law, Frank Janouch, while in the east.

Dr. and Mrs. Drummond will continue on to Harvard university, where Dr. Drummond has been awarded a scholarship. In view of the Drummonds' departure, their many friends in Medford have entertained extensively for them during the past two or three weeks. They are a popular couple, and will be greatly missed during their absence.

Assumed Wedding Announcement of Mrs. Viretta Powell

Of interest to friends and acquaintances in Medford is the announcement of the wedding of Miss Mae Viretta Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Powell of Ashland, to Kenneth Hutchinson Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Parks, of Cul de Sac, Idaho, which was solemnized in Ashland last Sunday in the First Methodist church at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The ring ceremony was read in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives by Rev. Melville T. Wirtz. Pink and white streamers formed a lovely setting for the bride, who was attired in a floor length lace gown with round neckline and long sleeves, using tiny white buttons for a decorative touch. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli and ferns.

Attending the bride's bridesmaids was her sister, Miss Mary Marjorie, who was gowned in pale pink embroidered organza and who also carried an arm bouquet.

Ushers were George Thomas and Fred Kruglie, both brother-in-laws of the bride.

Four Generations In Family Reunion

Lithia park in Ashland was the scene of a large family reunion picnic last Sunday. Host and hostess for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Peyton of Medford. Thirty-three were present, including the daughter and son-in-law of the Peytons, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Martin and daughter, Freda, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Drake and two children of Portville, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Oville Travis and family of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Yokum and children of Medford, and a granddaughter and her husband.

Following the picnic dinner, pictures were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Peyton with four generations of their family.

State Convention of P.T.A. Scheduled in Medford Oct. 22-25

Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, Inc. will hold its biennial convention in Medford, October 22 to 25, inclusive. The work of this congress is of interest to all parents and teachers of the state. A large number of delegates is expected, and many features are being planned by local committees and officers. Included on the program of the convention will be several inspirational addresses by prominent speakers, election of officers for the state organization, revision of by-laws, and other important business.

The most prominent speaker will be Mrs. Hugh Bradford, of the national organization. Mrs. Bradford, who is a resident of Sacramento, is president of the Child Welfare Magazine, and chairman of the budget committee of the N.C.P.T. She has served two terms as national president, was third vice-president of the national congress for four years, president of the California congress for three years, and preceding that, second vice-president of that state branch. Other official positions held by Mrs. Bradford include parliamentary, membership chairman, and council president of Sacramento.

Outside of her congress work, Mrs. Bradford has been a member of the California state board of education, the Sacramento county board of education, the advisory committee, California safety council, was a four minute speaker for the government during the war, and organizer of Red Cross sewing units, and was a delegate to the convention of International Federation of Home and School in Dublin, Ireland, July, 1933.

Mrs. Bradford is a graduate of the University of California, and was a night school teacher and principal for three years.

Katherine Stewart Attends Convention

Miss Katherine Stewart left yesterday morning on the Shasta to attend the P. E. O. supreme convention at Yellowstone national park, to be held September 10th to 13th, at the Old Faithful Inn.

On the return trip, Miss Stewart will visit Glacier national park, and will also stop in Portland where she will be a guest of her brother Robert. She will also spend some time with her sister in Eugene, Mrs. Henry Corn.

Medford Visitors Arrive and Leave

On the Shasta Saturday morning were Mr. and Mrs. M. V. Proby, of La Alamos, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. J. Schubert, of San Francisco, all of whom will be guests for a few days of Mrs. D. S. Conroy, who is making a vacation tour of the coast.

Other arrivals Saturday morning included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Driscoll, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lewis, all of San Francisco. They will spend ten days with Mrs. Bruce's father, Andrew Welch, at his summer home on Rogue river, near Dodge bridge.

Leaving yesterday morning was Mrs. G. F. Egan, of Portland, who has been a guest for the past week at the R. W. Frame home in Phoenix.

W. W. G. of Baptist Church Makes Plans
At a meeting of the W. W. G. girls of the First Baptist church, held Wednesday, plans were discussed for the coming year. The membership was divided into two groups, each of which is to alternately take charge of the missionary program and social hour, on the third Friday of each month. Business is to be discussed at the regular Monday meetings.
