GOOD NEWS for MEDFORD

Many residents of Medford and vicinity, whose lives have been made miserable through suffering from those distressing surface muscular pains which are so often mis-called "rheumatic," will be glad to know that an effective relief is now available which is bringing joy to many who have used it. This relief preparation is known as Williams R.U.X. Compound and is prepared from the prescription of a former army doctor, who used it in his extensive practice for many years. Sufferers now may have the benefit of its relief at a cost of only a few cents a day. If you suffer from shooting, stabbing muscular pains in shoulders, arms or legs; if you are bothered with neuralgic or surface pains of the body, don't endure this agony any longer without trying Williams R.U.X. Compound. Get a bottle at Heath's Drug Store today. The first bottle must satisfy you or money refunded. Adv.

HIGH-HAT HITCH-HIKERS DON'T MIND CROWDING

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 7.—(UP)—Highhat hitchhikers bobbed up here today. A woman telephoned an automobile association and asked if free rides could be provided for 20 guests going to a mountain resort. "We don't mind riding one or two in each car, but we'd like all the cars to leave about the same time to keep the party intact," she said.

Wife Posted As Bail.

AKRON, O. — (UP) — Arrested for speeding, William T. Jackson, 27, was unable to post bail. He was in a quandary, as were police, until he conceived the idea of leaving his attractive wife at the station in lieu of the required cash bond. She remained until he was able to get $25.

FINAL RITES FOR HIGH CHURCHMAN OF OREGON HELD

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 7.—(AP)—With a note of religious triumph rather than of sadness, the body of the Right Rev. Walter Taylor Sumner, Episcopal bishop of Oregon, was brought to the grave today.

Bishop Sumner, 62, who stood at the head of the Episcopal church in Oregon for 21 years, died suddenly last Wednesday.

The teaching of the church that death to a Christian means merely passing from the church on earth to the Church Triumphant, was borne out in the music, the scripture and prayers of the service.

The Right Rev. S. Arthur Huston of Seattle, bishop of the diocese of Olympia, conducted the funeral service. He read the requiem mass, assisted by the visiting bishops—the Right Rev. Peter Trimble Rowe of Alaska, the Right Rev. W. P. Remington of Eastern Oregon, and the Right Rev. Middleton S. Barnwell, bishop-elect of Georgia.

The clergy and lay members filled Trinity church. Governor and Mrs. Martin of Oregon attended the service, and representatives of the Catholic church and of the Greek and Russian Orthodox churches were seated in places of honor.

THE SALVATION ARMY
411 E. Main St.

Capt. G. R. Durham
Command'g Officer

The Salvation Army in Medford is located at 411 E. Main street. The local organization, termed a corps in army phraseology, is a unit of the international Salvation Army which is operating in ninety-three different countries and colonies throughout the world. The work of the Salvation Army was begun in Medford about forty years ago. As the work was closed for a few years the exact date of the opening is not on file.

Captain and Mrs. G. R. Durham, the present commanding officers, have been in Medford for nearly two years. Under their leadership, and by the blessing of God, the work has prospered remarkably during this time. Captain and Mrs. Durham are assisted by a loyal and devoted band of local officers, some of whose pictures appear on this page.

The membership at present is 58 and is steadily increasing. A special effort is being made during the present year to increase all the corps rolls by 35 percent. Present indications are that this estimated increase will be exceeded.

The Salvation Army believes in the conversion of children and has added more than 20 children to its junior ranks during the past year. Children, to become junior soldiers, must have had a definite experience of conversion, must have shown evidence of true conversion for at least one month and are expected to testify and work for the conversion of others.

Mrs. Velma Gibson
Corps Secretary and Cadet Corps
Guardian

The Sunday school, conducted each Sunday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock is under the direction of Young People's Seregant Major Dorothy Hammond. Seventy scholars and teachers are enrolled. Competent teachers are provided for the eight classes and the International Sunday School lessons of the Salvation Army are taught.

Mrs. G. R. Durham
Singing Brigade

The Young People's Legion, under the leadership of Mrs. Myrtle Wilcox, is organized for all young people between the ages of 12 and 25 and meets each Sunday afternoon at 6:00 o'clock. This group numbers 19 and is very active. Any young people not attached to any other group are invited to join the Young People's Legion.

The women of the corps meet each Thursday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the headquarters. This group is a unit of the Ladies' Home League, international women's organization of the Salvation Army. Women need not be Salvationists to be members of the Home League. Mrs. Van Horn is the able secretary of this group and extends a hearty invitation to Medford women to attend the meeting next

Mrs. S. E. VanHorn
Home League
Secretary

The Corps Cadet Brigade is composed of junior or senior soldiers under the age of 18 who enroll for a course of Bible study published by the International headquarters of the army. Three years are required to complete the lower grade of this work and three additional years for the higher grade. The local brigade is under the leadership of Mrs. Earl Gibson.

Religious services are held each Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, Tuesday evening Young Peoples meeting at 8 o'clock and Saturday evening Salvation meeting at 8. All evening services preceded by open air meeting at cor. Main and Central. Services open to the public. The young people have conducted 6:00 a. m. prayer meetings Sundays.

Dorothy Hammond
Pres. Young
People's Legion

The relief work of the army is too well known to need much description. In 1934 more than twelve hundred people received assistance and more than $1200 was expended on relief. We do not specialize in certain types of relief—we are ready to assist, according to our means, whenever and wherever we may. Our phone number is 350 and a call at any hour of the night or day will bring us to the scene of need. The Salvation Army has always been, is now and will always be the Friend of the poor. We remember that the Master said: "Inasmuch."

The purposes of the Salvation Army have been much misunderstood throughout the world. Many have thought of us only as a relief army—we wish to emphasize the fact that we are a Salvation Army and that we are carrying out our Founder's injunction to "Go for souls." The salvation of the people is our one and only object.
