"Flame Within" Open at Rialto

Hollywood has discovered the perfect romantic team in Ann Harding and Herbert Marshall in "The Flame Within" at the Rialto theater today and Monday.

Miss Harding is seen as a noted woman psychiatrist who devotes her life to untangling the mental disarray of others, particularly romantic young people who suddenly discover insurmountable barriers blocking their love affairs. But when she faces the same dilemma of so many other of her patients and falls in love with a young man she is trying to reform in order to bring happiness to a young girl who loves him, the psychiatrist is just as incapable as the others.

Herbert Marshall plays the part of the doctor of great charm, who has nurtured a love for Miss Harding. Maureen O'Sullivan, Louis Hayward and Henry Stephenson have featured parts.

Leave for Los Angeles—Mr. and Mrs. W. Schmidt left Sunday evening by train enroute to Los Angeles.
