Now at Rialto

Something different came to the Craterian theatre yesterday and the result was a capacity crowd that filled the theatre last night.

The answer is found in "The Black Room" with Karloff, starting tomorrow at the Rialto theatre for a three day run. In it, Karloff, famed delineator of blood-chilling roles, is seen as a monstrous bluebeard, last of the de Berghmans, accused royal family.

A through sadist, cruel and wolfish, Karloff, as the Baron de Berghman, assaults the beautiful girl of the neighborhood countryside in the Black Room of his gloomy castle and then casts them, murdered, into the deep pit in the floor of the horrible chamber. To love him is to vanish forever.

Marian Marsh is seen as Thes, the lovely young lady who more than any other, captures the monster's fancy and causes him to kill ruthlessly those who stand in his way.

Others who have important parts are Robert Allen and Katherine De Mille. "The Flame Within" with Ann Harding and Herbert Marshall has its final showing tonight.
