Visiting at Prospect—Miss Jessie Stickle of San Francisco, who has been vacationing in Alberta, Canada, for the past several days, spending considerable time there at Jasper park, arrived on the Oregonian this morning and left by motor for Prospect, where she plans to visit for a time with her aunt, Mrs. Jim Grievie.

State Fire Reported—The state forest patrol reported today that 30 men are at work guarding an 180-acre forest fire in the Lake Creek section of the Lake Creek district, which broke out yesterday afternoon, apparently as the result of a carelessly discarded cigarette.

Fishing Reported Better—Fishing conditions in the Applegate have improved during the past week, according to a weekly bulletin released from the forest service offices, the water having cleared from the last thunder storm, leaving the streams fresh and the fish hungry. In the Union Creek section, fishing is said to be good, with many fine catches being taken, but mostly by the most experienced sportsmen. Little Butte creek has been closed from the Fish Lake dam to the bridge at North Fork of the Rogue CCC camp, but there are many cutthroat trout being taken from south fork of Little Butte creek from the forest edge down. South Fork and Middle Fork of the Rogue, Blue Canyon and Seven Lakes are attracting many anglers, the bulletin states.

Drunks in City Court—Three men, arrested in a local rooming house, were last night arrested by city police, and this morning were held into city court on charges of being drunk in a public place. They were Fred O'Brien, given a $10 fine; John Leuz, 10 days in city jail or leave town; and Willard Evans, fined $10.

Sent to Forest Fire—More than 100 men and foremen from CCC camps within Rogue River national forest left yesterday in nine trucks for a forest fire that was reported in Siskiyou national forest, 13 miles northwest of Crescent City. Although detailed reports of the fire were unavailable today at the local forest service offices, the fire was believed to have been centered in an old burn near valuable redwood timber. The fire was reported here to be several hundred acres in extent.

Harlow, Gable and Beery Scoring Hit in Craterian Film

Between dangerous thrills and dangerous romance, there is something doing every minute in "China Seas," the new all-star drama which opened yesterday at the Craterian theater.

The stars are Clark Gable, Jean Harlow and Wallace Beery.

It is a picture in which interest never slackens, and action never lags. It takes its place among the finest entertainment vehicles of the new screen season.

Part of the story is played in the howling fury of a tropical hurricane on the last frontier, the wild southwestern coast of Asia. It is one of the most spectacular sequences ever filmed.

"China Seas" deals with the odd love story of the hard-bitten young skipper of a coastwise liner, played by Gable, and "China Doll," a lovely wanderer in the Asiatic ports, played by Miss Harlow. Involved with them is a mysterious trader, Wallace Beery, who is suspected of being the master mind of a piracy plot.

Action takes place entirely on the wheezy old liner Kin Lung as it plows down the China sea between Hongkong and Singapore. Under the polite veneer of the passengers runs a tremendous dramatic under-current of fierce loves, bitter hates and sinister intrigues, to which the typhoon and the sudden catastrophic pirate raid are fitting background.

Coming Sunday

"No More Ladies," co-starring Joan Crawford and Robert Montgomery in a fast-paced comedy-romance of modern young people, comes to the Craterian theater Sunday in the screen version of the play that virtually stood Broadway on its ears with a record-breaking run.

The picture opens with a whirlwind romance between Marcia (Joan Crawford) and Sherry (Robert Montgomery), and maintains a rapid-moving tempo until the final fadeout. Marcia is a light-hearted but level-headed society girl whose love for Sherry, an incorrigible heart-breaker, is such that she submits to wedding-bells well within the first reel.

It is then that the picture settles down to revealing the problems that accumulate behind the glamorous exterior of the top-popular young Park avenue couple.

PENDLETON ROUNDUP THROUGH THRILLS TO WILD WEST PAGEANT

PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 13.—(AP)—In a flame of color and amid a din of excitement the days of the "old west" were painted anew today for thousands of visitors who crowded this eastern Oregon city.

The Pendleton roundup, classic of western range epics, reached a new high in the spectacular with its "Westward-ho" parade this morning.

Tim McCoy Stars in Western Drama

When there's a reward as nice as at the Rialto theater.

Billie Seward waiting, it's worth all the gun-thriving, fist-fighting, and hell-for-leather riding that Tim McCoy is forced to in "Justice of the Range," playing today and Saturday at the Rialto theater. When McCoy's friend is murdered in cold blood, and the sheriff will do nothing about it, Tim takes matters into his own hands to see that justice is meted out to the guilty.

The historical cavalcade requiring two hours to pass the reviewing stand. Everett Bowman, Hillsdale, Ariz., won a decided edge in the bulldogging yesterday by throwing his steer in 11 seconds for a new Pendleton record. Andy Jarguir of Newhall, Cal., was first in calf roping in 16.4 seconds. Best steer roping time was made by King Merritt, Federal, Wyo., in 20.4 seconds.
