

REHABILITATION OF FARMERS WILL BE HURRIED ALONG

of the farm resettlement administration for Oregon, Washington and Idaho, sent word today that he is en route from Washington, D. C., with instructions to speed the work of taking farm families off relief rolls.

Farmers now on relief and those who have exhausted their credit facilities will be eligible to apply for rehabilitation loans. Eligibility will depend on their experience, character and ability to operate farms.

Where individual plans require, the Portland office of the administration said, farmers will be financed for purchase of tools, livestock, feed, fertilizer, building materials and other supplies. Operating expenses, also, may be met from the loans when conditions warrant.

Willard said his program will not allow for financing families who are attempting to eke out an existence on submarginal land. The first requisite for qualification will be occupancy of good farm land.

The loans will be extended from two to five years and the interest rate will be five per cent.

G. A. R. WILL MEET WITH EX-ENEMIES

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 13.—(AP)—The Grand Army of the Republic voted today, after a bitter floor fight, to accept Pennsylvania's invitation for a joint meeting of Union and Confederate veterans in 1938 on Gettysburg battlefield.

The convention chose Washington, D. C. for next year's encampment.

A resolution by James W. Willard of Tama, Iowa, which would have required the southern veterans to promise not to display the stars and bars at the Gettysburg meeting was voted down.

The Confederate veterans already have accepted the Pennsylvania invitation.

Oley Nelson of Slater, Iowa, was elected national commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, defeating Jacob Secret of Cincinnati.

VAN SWERINGENS TO REGAIN HELM

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(AP)—The VanSweringen brothers of Cleveland were reliably reported in Wall street today to be preparing, with Cleveland financial backing, to regain control of their $3,000,000,000 railroad empire from a banking group headed by J. P. Morgan & Co.

Working control has in effect rested with the bankers for some time through collateral held against $48,000,000 of loans to the Cleveland brothers. J. P. Morgan & Co. plan to advertise the collateral for sale at auction tomorrow, and the VanSweringens are prepared to bid in the collateral.

Patient from Gold Hill—Attaches of the Community hospital reported today that Dorothy Anne Harris of Gold Hill underwent a minor operation at the hospital Thursday.

Shanikos Income Pays All Expense

SALEM, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Shaniko, a city of 100 population in Wasco county, Oregon, is absolutely on a cash basis, levies no taxes, and has no indebtedness.

F. P. Wagener, recorder, today informed the state department of that fact and asked if it were necessary to make a budget for the operation of the city.

The recorder stated the income from the water system there paid the running expenses.
