

MOVIE PRODUCER PILOTS PLANE TO NEW SPEED MARK

Howard Hughes Breaks Frenchman's Record With Time Around 350 M. P. H. — Makes Forced Landing

SANTA ANA, Calif., Sept. 13.—(AP)—Howard Hughes, millionaire movie producer and flier, today established a new world's speed record for land planes in a series of flights over a closed course near here. Officials of the National Aeronautics association said that although Hughes' exact time has not been computed it was "around 350 miles an hour."

Hughes made six attempts to break the world's record set by Raimond Demotte of France at 314.310 miles an hour. On the sixth attempt he exhausted his gasoline supply while rocketing down the restricted three-kilometer course. The red monoplane swerved off its course and appeared to ground observers to have crashed.

Paul Mantz, technical advisor for Amelia Earhart, transpacific flier, raced down over the course and saw Hughes step from his plane, uninjured. Hughes had made a forced landing in a bean field, two miles north of the Edward Martin ranch.

"I was trying to put the plane down, and it hit the ground when the landing gear was about half down," Hughes said later. "My supply of gasoline apparently had been exhausted, and when I tried to cut the other tank on the motor refused to take it."

Hughes escaped from the plane, which experienced a bent propeller, torn fuselage and broken landing gear, without a scratch. Joe Nikrent, head timer of the N. A. A., said there was no doubt Hughes had established a new world's record. William Emyer, Washington representative of the association, and H. W. Hickman, assistant timer, said Hughes had been clocked officially above the former speed mark.

Hughes yesterday made an unofficial mark of 353 miles an hour in his $120,000 plane. He made four dashes along the closed course. Under N. A. A. rules a pilot must better the existing record four consecutive times.

Turtles Obstruct Work. COUNCIL BLUFFS, Ia.—(UP)—Turtles nearly stopped the work of draining the municipal swimming pool here preliminary to construction work. Large as a dinner plate, they crawled into the 12-inch outlet and snapped food delicacies washed their way, stopping the flow. In a severe hours' stretch the pool fell only about a foot.

Hawaii to Tax Ministry. HONOLULU.—(UP)—Ministers in these American Isles may find themselves "in business" this year. Although their occupation is still recognized as professional, they are included in the terms of the gross income tax passed by the legislature. The act provides for a license of $1 a year to do business.

LONG LIEUTENANTS WOULD TRADE FOR PEACE WITH F. R.

Successor Undecided There was no way of knowing today just who would take up the work where Long left off except that nominally it should fall upon Allen, the governor.

Behind a curtain of silence drawn around the state house, the divergent interests and ambitions of Long's followers created an impression of confusion in their ranks, and foes of the Long machine seized the opportunity to begin their attack. "Long is dead but Longism still lives," Mrs. Hilda Phelps Hammond, chairman of the women's committee of Louisiana, said. The committee has sought to have Senator John H. Overton unseated from the United States senate on the claim that he had been elected through fraud inspired by the Long machine. "In Louisiana absolute tyranny still reigns," Mrs. Hammond said in a statement. "The cruel, shocking laws still stand upon the statute books and corruptionists are still in control, while in Washington Longism still lives in the fraudulent title of John H. Overton to his seat in the senate of the United States."

Allen Denounces Foes To offset the rapidly developing attacks, Governor Allen, titular head of the organization which Long had built into the most powerful machine in America, issued a formal statement bitterly denouncing "those who plotted and inspired" Long's death and declaring "principles cannot be annihilated by murder."

"The principles for which Senator Long stood will survive through the ages," Allen said. "They will be imperious to gunfire and gangster methods employed by those who hope to achieve political success through their destruction."

As a crowd estimated at from 100,000 to 200,000 looked on, Long was buried in front of the capitol yesterday afternoon. As Long's body was brought to the grave hundreds of the huge throng broke through police lines and rushed forward. There was considerable confusion before officers, aided by 100 men hastily deputized in the crowd, could push them back.

GORE SEEKS AID MORATORIUM BILL

A petition has been filed in federal court, seeking an order granting to W. H. Gore the three-year mortgage moratorium and other benefits of the Frazer-Lemke bill, recently passed by congress and signed by the president. The federal court has rendered no ruling as yet on the plea.

Gore came under the provisions of the first Frazer-Lemke bill, declared unconstitutional by the United States supreme court.

In circuit court, Judge H. D. Norton still has under advisement the motion of Gore, through his attorneys, for delay in the confirmation of the sale by foreclosure. The mortgage of $85,000 is held by the California Joint Stock and Land bank of San Francisco, and covers the Gore ranch on the Jacksonville highway. At the hearing, testimony was given showing that the mortgage represented about half the value of the farm, regarded as one of the best and most productive in southern Oregon. Decline in farm land value, due to the depression, was advanced as the reason for inability to make payments.

The Gore ranch, one of the oldest in Jackson county, was created in pioneer days.

DRUNK IN PUBLIC COSTS PEETE $10 Clifford Peete of Vancouver, B. C. charged with being drunk in a public place, entered a plea of guilty before Justice of the Peace Coleman yesterday and was fined $10 and costs. Peete was given three days to pay.

One Knutzen of the Copper district pleaded guilty to speeding on the Crater Lake highway. He was given until September 25 to pay $10 and costs.
