

Local and Personal

Move to Elk Creek—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have recently moved from Medford to Elk Creek.

Leaves for Mosier—Little Lottie Ginger left this morning by train for a visit at Mosier, Ore.

From Trail—Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson, of Trail spent Tuesday in Medford on business.

Receives Medical Care—Mrs. Dorothy Ash, who has been receiving medical care in Medford, has returned to her home on Elk creek.

On Leave from CCC—William D. Showers, on leave from the Medford CCC district, left last night by train for Enterprise, Ore.

Discharged from CCC District—Henry Jordan, discharged from the Medford CCC district, left last night by train for his home in Newark, N. J.

Receives Medical Care—Nicholas Ritzinger of Muir creek has been a patient for the last few days at the Community hospital, receiving medical attention.

At Osteopathic Clinic—Mrs. James Loughridge of Grants Pass is a patient today at the Osteopathic clinic and hospital, where she underwent a tonsilectomy.

Here from Yreka—Jerry Evans of the Brookfield Market spent Tuesday in Medford on business, according to word received here from Yreka today.

Spends Week-End Here—Miss Caryl Signs returned Monday from a week-end visit with friends in Medford, according to word received here today from Yreka.

Visitors from Ashland—Mrs. Hugh Bates and Mrs. Al Parr went to Medford yesterday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crouch, parents of Mrs. Bates, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Doss, Mrs. Parr's parents—Ashland Tidings.

Former Teacher Leaves—The Ashland Tidings states that Mrs. Emerson Miller and small daughter Jean left recently for California, after a few weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Andrews, of Union street. Mrs. Miller was formerly Miss Marie Andrews and taught in Ashland, later in Medford.

With Biological Survey—Field Inspector Bronson, representing the biological survey, has been engaged at the Talent side camp of the Applegate CCC company, inspecting cooperative work in the extermination of rodents on Goat cabin ridge near Talent. The work is being carried on the forest service and CCC crews.

Here on Business Today—R. J. Martin of San Francisco, assistant general manager of the Pacific Fruit Express company, arrived today to attend to official business matters here. Other representatives of the Pacific Fruit Express company, arriving today were J. J. Cowen, assistant traffic manager and J. T. H. Armstrong, assistant general manager, with headquarters at Chicago.

North on Business—W. L. Davison, representative of the Rainier Brewing company, left today for Portland after conferring with local dealers for the past week. Mr. Davison was accompanied north by John Snider, who will transact business in connection with Snider Dairy and Produce company before returning to Medford Sunday.

Miss Switzer Visits—Miss Charlotte Switzer, who arrived some time ago from San Francisco to spend a month with friends in Ashland and in Medford, a house guest of Mrs. Josephine D. Crocker when in Ashland, will return to Mrs. Crocker's Thursday from Medford. She was the guest there of the Peter family, who have planned a number of outings for her, one, a trip to Lakeview to visit Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Carter there—Ashland Tidings.

Visit in Eugene—Mr. and Mrs. Nick Carter left this morning to spend a week in Eugene visiting relatives.

Here Overnigh—Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Driscoll of Eugene have been visiting in Medford overnight enroute to Klamath Falls.

Miss Nichols to School—Among those planning to enter Oregon State college this fall is Miss Lois Nichols, who will leave for Corvallis Sunday.

At Community Hospital—James Chisholm of Gold Hill was recently received at the Community hospital for medical attention.

Takes Buying Trip—E. T. Bureison will return to Medford this evening by plane from a buying trip during which he secured new fall and winter coats and suits for a special selling event at Bureison's store.

Returns to Salem—Mrs. Gene McKinney left today for her home in Salem after spending the past two months visiting here with her sister, Mrs. Stickle.

Leave for North Dakota—Mrs. H. B. Nelson and daughter left today enroute to North Dakota after visiting here for a time with Mr. and Mrs. Botta.

Here from Portland—Miss Crephina Ball of Portland, who has spent a vacation in Los Angeles, has arrived in Medford to visit briefly enroute to her home.

Here on Business—A. C. Siegel of A. C. Siegel and Sons, New York City, arrived this morning by train to spend a few days here attending to business matters.

Down from National Park—Dr. Meinicke of San Francisco, consulting officer for camp ground development in national parks, after a business visit at Crater Lake, was attending to matters here today, and visited at the forest service office.

Will Rogers Film Opens Today Both Craterian; Holly

One of the outstanding events of any show season is a Will Rogers picture—always has been. But, today, the opening of Will Rogers in "Steamboat Round the Bend" for its local showing, is an even greater event than ever before.

America's beloved humorist, who holds a place in the people's hearts that will never be replaced, is being accorded the recognition due him and the interest being shown by everyone for his new picture. For that reason, in addition to being shown for the regular matinee and evening shows at the Craterian theater, "Steamboat Round the Bend" will also be shown evenings only at the Holly theater for today, tomorrow and Saturday. Due to the limited time available for the showing of the picture, it was decided to use the Holly for added showings to enable everyone a chance to see their favorite.

A hip-roaring river race, the most sensational Hollywood has ever screened, brings "Steamboat Round the Bend" to its thrilling climax. No element of popular entertainment has been overlooked in this colorful story of the Mississippi in the romantic 1880's, which launches Rogers on a new and greater phase of his starring career.

"Steamboat Round the Bend" affords Rogers his greatest comedy opportunities in his hilarious rivalry feud with Irvin S. Cobb, noted humorist and writer, as rival steamboat captains. And it also allows for masterful dramatic acting as he saves the romance of two lovable young-

Murder Mystery Film Coming

A murder committed in Chinatown is the crime most difficult of solution. San Francisco's great Chinatown, the largest in America, is the scene of "Chinatown Spad," featuring Lyle Talbot and Valeria Hobson, playing at the Rialto theater tomorrow and Saturday.

The story concerns the murder of an agent for a revolutionary government in China, caught stealing funds which he had collected from Americanized Chinese, and false clues lead the police over a tortuous trail until the killer is finally apprehended through the efforts of the driver of a sight-seeing bus, bringing to a climax his romance with a beautiful girl, Hugh McConnell, Andy Devine and Leslie Fenton make up a fine supporting cast.

"Woman Wanted," with Maureen O'Sullivan and Joel McCrea, has its final showing tonight.

Philo Vance Drama On Screen At Roxy

A new Philo Vance drama to the screen in "The Casino Murder Case" playing at the Roxy theater today and Friday. In this picture Paul Lukas is cast in the famous detective role created by S. S. Van Dine.

This version of Philo Vance's escapades in solving mysteries out-does all other attempts by this great writer. Lukas is teamed with Rosalind Russell, and Alison Skipworth. Donald Cook, Arthur Byron and Ted Healy have important parts.

Attend Meeting Here—Mrs. Jennie Hutchinson and Mrs. Lyle Tucker, of Trail are in Medford today to attend the clothing projects given at the courthouse.

Stars of Sunday Craterian Hit

The romantic escapades of a prince masquerading as a bellhop in a large metropolitan hotel, and the many amusing situations his larks take him into, make "The Gay Deceiver," starring Francis Lederer, and coming Sunday to the Craterian theater, delightful film fare. Francis Lee is the girl, while others in the cast include Benita Hume and Alan Mowbray.

Chicago Pharmacist Curbs Deafness

A Chicago pharmacist, who suffered for years from earache, head noises and deafness, says he finally solved his case through the preparation of a European specialist after countless other preparations and devices failed to help him. OURINE is used and praised by thousands who were hard of hearing, bothered by head noises, earache, ringing and buzzing in ears. If you dread approaching deafness, get OURINE today. Relief is immediate—and the cost is only a few cents a day. Money back if dissatisfied.

WOODS DRUG CO. Main and Central. (Adv.)

| | | |
|-------------------------------|---|--|
| Shows at 1:45 7:00-9:00 | Hunt CRATERIAN SOUTHERN OREGON'S FINEST THEATRE | Mats. 25c Eves. 35c Children . . . 10c |
|-------------------------------|---|--|

Starting Today - 3 Days Only!

A PICTURE SO BIG IT NEEDS TWO THEATRES

Also for your accommodation, starting today, EVENING SHOWS ONLY (7:00 and 9:00) at the Live again the romance of the old river days! Chug down the Mississippi with characters as lovable and understandable as neighbors you've known for years . . . in this undisputed triumph of a great star's career!

AMERICA'S ETERNAL FAVORITE Will ROGERS

STEAMBOAT ROUND the BEND

—with the greatest supporting cast ever assembled for any Rogers picture, including such favorites as

ANNE SHIRLEY as Fleety Belle, runaway swamp girl.

JOHN MCGUIRE as Duke, Doc's nephew, who kills a man while fighting for Fleety Belle's love.

EUGENE PALLETTE as Rufe Jetter, kindly sheriff whose prisoners prefer jail to home.

IRVIN S. COBB as Captain Eli, boasting skipper who matches laughs with Rogers.

FRANCIS FORD as Efe, who takes the pledge and finds solace in potent patent medicine.

BERTON CHURCHILL as The New Moses, river evangelist, enemy of old demon rum.

STEPIN FETCHIT as Jonah, cal-lope pounder who always means what he never says.

Extra! Mickey Mouse in "Mickey's Kangaroo"
BAND REEL • NOVELTY • LATE NEWS EVENTS

| | | |
|----------------------------|---------------|------------------------------|
| Shows 1:45 7:00-9:00 | RIALTO | Adults 25c Kiddies-10c |
|----------------------------|---------------|------------------------------|

Tomorrow and Saturday • FRISCO! AN EMPIRE OF OPIUM!

INTRIGUE
MYSTERY
ROMANCE

Lives and loves of men and women lurking in the shadows of this mysterious hell!

LYLE
TALBOT

Chinatown SQUAD

with VALERIE HOBSON HUGH O'CONNELL ANDY DEVINE

POSITIVELY ENDS TONITE

"Woman Wanted"

with Maureen O'Sullivan Joel McCrea

ROXY 20-ANYTIME KIDNEY TONIC

Today and Friday • PHILO VANCE

In his greatest S. S. Van Dine mystery . . .

Casino MURDER CASE

with PAUL LUKAS ALISON SKIPWORTH

Added Attractions: 2 Reel Comedy "The Undie World" Novelty • Newsreel