

FARMER LEADER
LAMBASTS AAA

DES MOINES, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Milo Reno, president of the National Farmers Holiday association, charged here today that the AAA is attempting by "false propaganda" to mislead the country as to the condition of the farmer. Reno spoke before the Iowa Farmers Union convention, which also heard Governor Eugene Talmadge of Georgia attack the policies of the Roosevelt administration and the AAA crop control program. "The farmers of the United States—from Maine to California—have had the rottenest deal that any people ever had in the history of the world," Reno said. Jenny Lind married Otto Goldschmidt after breaking her engagement to P. T. Barnum.

ADS CARRY PLEA FOR BAER PARDON

PORTLAND, Sept. 20.—(AP)—An appeal to the citizens of the state to urge Governor Martin to issue a pardon to Walter Baer, was carried in advertisements in Portland newspapers today.

Baer, convicted of forgery in 1919 and 1921, has been cited for deportation to Germany, where he was born. His wife was American-born. They have three small children. Names of the sponsors of the advertisements included City Commissioners Bennett and Clyde; Ben T. Osborne, labor leader, several clergymen and the "Oregon prison association." The statement argued that if Governor Martin could be persuaded to issue a pardon to Baer, deportation proceedings would automatically halt.

FALL STYLES GRACE
PORTLAND'S WINDOWS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Fall styles will make their tempting appearance in Portland display windows tonight at 8 o'clock when the annual fall opening starts. The displays will be maintained throughout the remainder of the week.

CRASH OF SECRET PLANE BLAMED ON LIGHT WIRES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Aviation officials today placed blame indirectly on hazardous high-tension power lines skirting the Los Angeles municipal airport for the crash of a secretly-built war plane and the death of its two-man test crew. The powerful all-metal ship, built behind closed doors and designed as a combination bomber-attack craft, plummeted to destruction late yesterday, killing Thomas C. Van Stone and Dugald Blue.

NAVY NOT PLANNING MOVE TO EAST COAST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Secretary Swanson says only the actual outbreak of hostilities will cause the navy department to consider transferring part of the fleet from the Pacific to the Atlantic for protection of lines of commerce. He emphasized that point in a press conference yesterday in reply to questions whether it had been discussed.

GIRL MAY LIVE THOUGH NECK BROKEN IN CRASH

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Despite a broken neck, May Beadell has a chance to live, her physicians say. Her neck broken in an automobile collision on the loop highway Monday, was set the same day and only unforeseen complications will hinder her chance for recovery. Vachel Lindsay, the poet, was a T. M. C. A. lecturer for several winters.
