Thirsty Sailor Denied Damages On Beer Poison: PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Ernest Anderson, thirsty sailor who contended he was poisoned by purple beer served him, failed in attempts to receive $975 damages as an antidote.

Thirsty Sailor Denied Damages On Beer Poison: During the trial of his damage suit against the brewer, Anderson admitted he consumed 14 bottles of beer and it was the 15th which was off color and made him violently ill. He had eaten nothing but salt salmon that day.

Thirsty Sailor Denied Damages On Beer Poison: "It may be that the combination of food and drink taken by the defendant put him in such a condition that the sight of anything off color affected his stomach," said District Judge Hendrickson yesterday in refusing to grant damages.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN

ENDICOTT, N. Y., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley demanded today that congress and the state legislature take immediate steps "to prevent the secret collection and use of a vast Republican fund to influence the elections."

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: "It is announced from Washington that the Republican national committee has organized a private corporation to gather this huge fund and hope that by this device the names of contributors may be concealed," he told New York Democrats in an outdoor gathering concluding a huge two-day rally.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: "No subterfuge should permit the Republican national committee to conceal the persons and interests to whom it owes its financing and who in turn find that committee a useful and willing weapon with which to fight the reforms sponsored by the Democratic leadership," the state and national Democratic chairman said.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Saying that, "Nationally, we have done a job that is without precedent in the world's history," Farley predicted that the electorate will show "that they have more wickers in the builders than in the confederates."

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—(AP)—George Getz, treasurer of the national Republican committee, denied today that the organization is secretly collecting a huge fund to influence elections, as Postmaster General James A. Farley charged.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Getz said, "Collection of any such fund is news to me. As treasurer of the national committee I know that every three months we file with the house of representatives a statement of every dollar we have received with the name and address of the contributor."

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Next Friday evening, Sept. 27, will be Post Postmaster's night at Westcott Council No. 20, with the past officers taking charge of the business hour.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Birthdays occurring during September will be observed and the attendance prize will be awarded. Following the business hour a social card party will be held.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Chrysanthemum Circle Chrysanthemum circle No. 84, Neighbors of Woodcraft, will meet in regular session Monday night at eight o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall. Officers will have charge of entertainment and refreshment, and urge all members to be present and also extend a cordial invitation to visitors.

FARLEY PROTESTS REPUBLICAN FUND FOR '36 CAMPAIGN: Missionary Meeting A joint meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign missionary societies of the Methodist church will be held in Grants Pass, September 26 and 27, at the Newman Memorial church there.
