LOUIS PRONOUNCED IN GRAND SHAPE FOR BAER BATTLE

Doctor Says Max Least of His Worries — Playboy Mean As Slouchy Training Ends.

POMPTON LAKES, N. J., Sept. 21.—(AP)—A keen, eager and confident Joe Louis waded up his training today for his 15-round heavyweight engagement with Max Baer in New York next Tuesday night.

The sensational Detroit fighter topped off what has been a more or less three weeks' work of boxing seven rounds with four of his five sparring mates. He took on Leonard Dixon of Philadelphia, Paul Chevalier of Patterson, N. J., Farmer, Bob Moody of Freeport, Pa., and Roy Williams of Chicago, in order.

Before entering the ring Louis was given the once over by Dr. William H. Walker of the New York state athletic commission and pronounced in perfect condition.

"I have never examined a calmer fighter," said Dr. Walker. "Really, I was amazed at this boy's mental condition. I would say his fight with Max Baer is the least of his worries."

"I found Joe in excellent shape. His blood pressure is low—which means a long life. After the examination his pulse shot up five points, then just as quickly dropped back to normal."

SPECULATOR, N. Y., Sept. 21.—(AP)—The erratic Mr. Baer did himself another form flip-flop today, looking pretty good considering his past training camp performances, in his semi-final workout for his 15-round engagement with Joe Louis in the Yankee stadium Tuesday night.

Braving a chill afternoon, with a threat of rain in the air, the former heavyweight champion boxed three rounds with Abe Feldman, the only sparring partner left in camp, and at the end had a main bout heavyweight, more than ready to call it a day.

There was nothing like a knock-down, but neither was there anything like the performance Baer had staged for the past few days when Feldman looked like a little contender and Max the sparring partner. Baer, his face covered with a shaggy beard, was deadly in earnest.

Baer will box only two rounds tomorrow, his final prep, so today again ended his real work. He appeared in marvelous physical condition, weighing about 210 pounds. He was strong, mean, and anything but a pleasant individual to have around.

It was definitely determined today that he will fly down Tuesday to the weighing in at the New York state athletic commission offices.

STATERS TRIUMPH OVER LINFIELD IN FOOTBALL OPENER

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Oregon State college started the football season for Pacific coast conference teams today by defeating Linfield college of McMinnville, Ore., 31 to 0.

The Staters showed a wide open attack with passes and laterals. Joe Gray, former Portland high school star, gave considerable promise in ball-carrying and passing at left half, substituting for Mountain.

O. S. C. got off to a slow start and did not score until the second period when Gray stiff-armed his way to two counters.

A scoreless third quarter was followed by three touchdowns for O. S. C. in the final frame, with Gray tossing passes to Joslin and Lillebo. The Staters had the ball on Linfield's one-foot line as the game ended.

The McMinnville team twice took the ball within Oregon State's 10-yard line but couldn't push it over.

Coach Lon Stiner of O. S. C. used nearly his entire squad.

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A number of major college football teams swung into action in various sections of the country today and for the most part hung up lopsided scores on minor opponents.

The most evenly fought games were held in the south, where Virginia and William and Mary battled to a scoreless tie, Virginia Polytechnic Institute managed to push over one touchdown on Roanoke and win, 7-0. Davidson was hard put to beat tiny Elon by the same margin, and Newberry nosed out Guilford, 13-6.

Clemson's Bengals defeated Presbyterian, 25-6. Clemson coming to life in the second period when "Break" Lawton, a sophomore, led a drive that ended in the first score. South Carolina surprised with a 33-0 win over Erskine, riding on to victory on some excellent blocking.

Vanderbilt started off with a 34-0 victory over Tennessee University of Tennessee. Vanderbilt used a group of speedy sophomores to score three of their five touchdowns. Union held their more highly rated opponents scoreless for the first half but went to pieces in the second half as the Vanderbilt backs ran wild.

In the east, Holy Cross' big, powerful team buried Rhode Island's light and inexperienced team under a score of 32-0. The Crusaders used a dozen or so of Rockne's plays to run rough-shod over the Rams.

Villanova buried Penn. N. C., 40-0. West Liberty downed Holbrook, 22-0. Manhattan took Niagara's measure, 20-6, and Northeastern bested American International 26-0 in other eastern games.

In the mid-west South Dakota State downed Aberdeen 34-0 and South Dakota defeated Yankton, 34-0. In the southwest Southern Methodist got off to a good start, beating Denton Teachers, 39-0, and Texas Christian whaled Howard Payne 41-0, while in the Rock Mountain district Utah State rolled up a 33-7 score on Montana State.

New Mexico university defeated New Mexico State Teachers, 46-0 in the far west, and Cheney Teachers managed to defeat Gonzaga, 13-7.

Klamath Falls high school sounded the first tones in their 1935 victory overture on Friday night, when, playing under lights for the first time in Klamath, they tore the Dunsmuir high school team to ribbons, 20-0. Their giant, ripping, fast stepping backs, led by Jim Rogers, and their huge line held the Dunsmuir line to only three first downs, while chalking up 11 of their own.

For this early in the season, Klamath looked unbeatable. They were obviously playing under wraps, and displayed only two or three left shift plays in the entire game. One thing was noticeable above all others and seems to be a prerogative of Klamath football teams — namely, they bruise easily. Time and again, after tackling or blocking a much smaller Dunsmuir man, they would have difficulty in gaining their feet again and when time was called they generally stopped to the ground to rest.

That trait will never be understood by this department. It must be the water, or the air, of the Klamath valley. But it happens consistently. There's little that Klamath would rather do than wallop Medford, something that they've done only once in the past ten years or so. And apparently, they've forgotten that once. It was in 1929, the year after Callison's wonder team had departed, the team was small, and spirits low. One Klamath player was out about 25 yards from the locals down the line and, as we remember it, several articles of clothing also changed hands.

After renewing our acquaintance with football as played under artificial lights, we don't like it any better than we ever did. From a player's standpoint, it is miserable, being the wrong time of day to play the game in the first place, and in the second place the passing and kicking attack is perceptibly weakened. But the main issue is that after the novelty has worn off, it doesn't appeal to the fans either.

There was a good crowd at the Klamath game, between 2000 and 3000, but our guess is that in November, when cold, damp fogs are on the field, and the mercury is down towards the zero end of the glass, it will take a pretty intrepid fan to sit there, gazing into the glare of lights, on a winter night.

A look at the Klamath and Dunsmuir backfields forcibly brings to mind the remarkable work of Coach Bowerman's able backfield assistant, Ed Kirtley. Kirtley has worked diligently with the men, until it is now our firm opinion that Bowerman will have the trickiest set of backs in the state. When it comes to eluding tacklers, they'll have it over the opposition like a tent. Take Max Gillinsky and Leo Gheardi for examples. And this year keep your eye on Bob Smith, Ray Lewis, Bob Erlinger, Jim Baylis, Kowwo Maruyama and Leo Sakurada, if your eye can follow their prouetting. Ours generally can't.

What a passing attack the Medford high school is going to have this year! With big Southpaw Bob Smith flicking long and short ones to Kuntzman, they had the Ashland Normal squad looking pretty weak yesterday. As a matter of fact, they lost most of their big men by graduation, and all their lettermen. They have been practicing only a week, were in poor condition, and would rate little better than an average high school team now. With several stars now out of school, but expected to return shortly, and with more practice, they will undoubtedly be a much stronger team in two or three weeks.

VICTORY CLAIMS THRILL DETROIT

DETROIT, Sept. 14.—(AP)—A crowd of police estimated at 100,000 roared approval today as Manager Mickey Cochrane predicted, through loudspeakers in downtown Detroit, that his Detroit Tigers "will be the next world champions."

Cochrane spoke briefly at the unfurling of a mammoth victory banner on a department store. With him was Judge Keneaw Mountain Landis, high commissioner of baseball, here for a banquet honoring Frank J. Navin and Walter O. Briggs, co-owners of the Detroit club.

Traffic was blocked in most of the downtown section by the huge throng.

GIBBONS CHASES, BEATS TRULMANS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Young Jack Gibbons, St. Paul middleweight, scored a 10-round decision in a "walkathon" fight with Al Trulmans of San Diego, Cal., here last night.

Gibbons had to walk fast to even catch the backpeddling Trulmans by the eighth round and lash a right to the jaw which dropped Trulmans for a count of seven. Trulmans came up fighting, but almost immediately lapsed back into his talented retreat.

In the 10th round Trulmans hit the canvas again, half from slipping and half from being punched. Fans hooted in derision and some headed for the exits before the fight ended with Trulmans still upright. Each weighed 160.
