

VALLEY GROWTH IS FORESEEN BY NEW RESIDENT

SARDINE CREEK, Sept. 25.—(Sp.)—Upon his recent return from Sayre, Oklahoma, Lawrence Kirtley brought a picture of desolation wrought by successive years of drought and news of an impending growth of families from the burned out sections of the mid-west farm belt to other parts of the country.

Until he came here last spring Mr. Kirtley operated a big farm and cattle ranch at Sayre, four successive crop failures due to aridity and the dust storms late last winter finally forcing him to seek a more congenial climate and more fertile land.

A short time ago Mr. Kirtley was called back to Sayre by the illness of his mother and he remained there until she began to recuperate from a heart attack.

While there, he related today, he inspected many farms in the locality and found them in exceedingly poor condition. The soil was parched from lack of rain, he said, and crops were stunted. The people were eager for information about other parts of the country, many of them planning to seek pastures new and green after salvaging what they can from this year's crops, he stated.

"Everywhere I went I was besieged by friends and acquaintances who wanted to know about conditions in southern Oregon," Mr. Kirtley said. "I could have made money by opening a small booth in Sayre and charging a fee for information. The people want to get out of that section and they want to learn about conditions elsewhere before moving."

I believe that not a few of them will eventually come to southern Oregon. At any rate southern Oregon has an excellent opportunity of attracting many people from all parts of the mid-west and southwest."

Infant Pacifist Refuses Salute Flag In School

LYNN, Mass., Sept. 25.—(UP)—If Carlleton B. Nichols, Jr., eight-year-old third grade pupil, persists in his refusal to salute the American flag, he will be suspended from school next Friday. Principal William F. Pasy of the Breed school said today in a letter to the baby pacifist's father.

The child's father, a member of a religious group calling themselves "Jehovah's Witnesses," stood solidly behind his son. He called the United States flag a "symbol of the devil's kingdom," holding that all things man-made were controlled by the devil.

City Solicitor Patrick F. Shanahan said there was no law to compel a pupil to salute the flag or to sing the national anthem. The ruling left action to the school committee, which will meet tomorrow night, and whose action was forecast by the lad's principal.

4 GENERATIONS OF FAMILY ON SARDINE CREEK

GOLD HILL, Sept. 25.—(Sp.)—Four generations of one family, all recent emigrants from Sayre, Oklahoma, are now represented on Sardine creek, north of here. In the short time they have been here they have become ardent boosters of southern Oregon and it is expected that their enthusiasm will bring other Oklahomans to this section of the state.

At the head of the family are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Reed who have purchased the stock and leased the land of William Campbell, who is planning to return to his family's farm in New Hampshire. The stock consisted of three cows, three goats and about 150 chickens and, believe it or not, the elderly couple has increased egg production from a daily average of 8 to 90 and now the eggs are bringing in a tidy income.

Close to the Reeds live Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Tygart and their two children, Mary Lou and Henry Maurice. Mrs. Tygart being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

Farther up the creek, on the right fork, live Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kirtley, Mrs. Kirtley also being a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Two of the Kirtley's children and their families are also residing here, they being their son, Arnold and his wife
