In Memoriam

(Dedicated to Wm. J. Cummings)
Graceful be your silent slumber,
Peaceful in the grave so low;
You no more will join our number,
You no more our sorrow know.
You were always bright and cheerful
And your duties never shirked.
Always peaceable and willing,
Tho the duties sometimes irked.
Do we wish you back? No, never!
You are free of toil and strife.
You have earned the peace you
Entered in the upper, better life.
For the loved ones left behind you
We offer silent prayer,
That their grief on earth be softened
And they meet you over there.
