RAY MURPHY OF IOWA ELECTED NATIONAL HEAD

By reaffirming the Miami convention resolution on this subject. "We request the immediate favorable action, of congress and the approval of the president of the United States, upon this clear-cut and single issue without having it complicated or confused by other issues of government finance, or theories of currency with which the Legion does not intend to become involved.

"We hereby ratify and approve the efforts of National Commander Belgrano, and the national legislative committee on behalf of the Legion's bill at the last session of congress."

Dwight Sullivan of New York, legislative chairman of that state's department, arguing for the resolution, declared a campaign of vilification has been carried on in congress against Frank N. Belgrano, national commander, in the fight for the bonus.

Texas Also Boomed Representative W. B. McFarland of Texas obtained the floor, but also was booted as he recommended that the method of financing the payment be left to congress.

"You have booted my comrade and your comrade, Wright Patman. Where were you back in 1928 when he was using his own money in an effort to get the bonus payment?" he shouted. McFarland said the second section of the adopted resolution provided only for a bond issue "that would give the bankers of this country $2,000,000,000."

"Don't tie inflation around the neck of the bonus," shouted Charles Hallock of Indiana. "Take the road that will get you there. The bonus is popular with all the people. Inflation is not."

Not a delegate was in his chair at the final vote on the brief resolution was taken.

The vote ended 45 minutes of debate that kept the vast auditorium in a constant uproar. Speakers shouted above the din. Quiet was restored immediately after the vote.
