

WORK STARTS ON NEW S. F. MINT

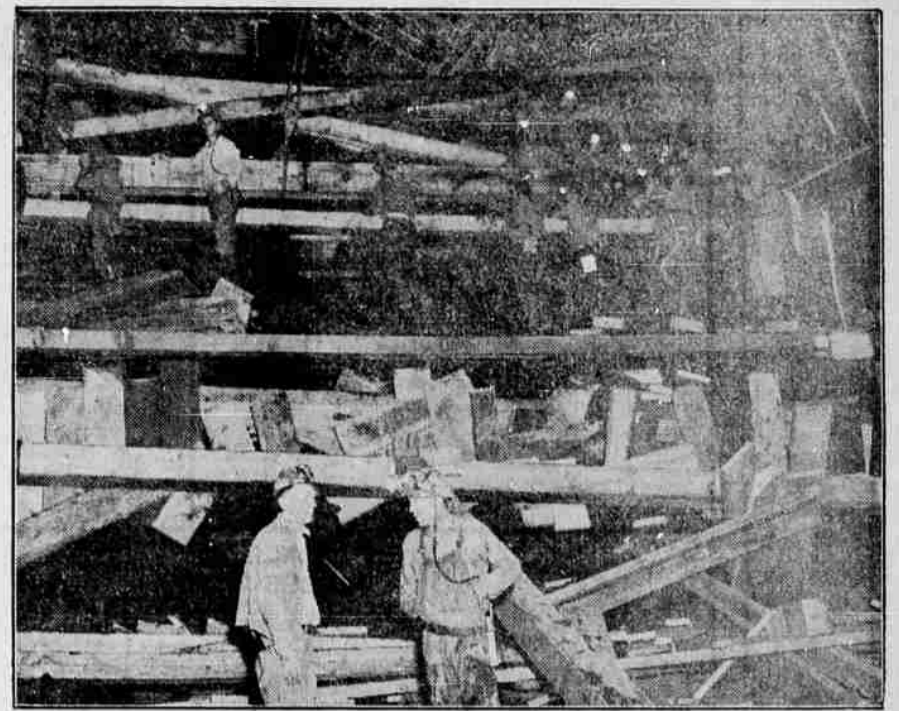

Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, director of the United States mint, operated the steam shovel at ground-breaking ceremonies for the new million-dollar mint in San Francisco. Looking on was Peter J. Haggerty, superintendent of the San Francisco mint. (Associated Press Photo)

WRECKAGE OF CAR IN WHICH QUEEN DIED

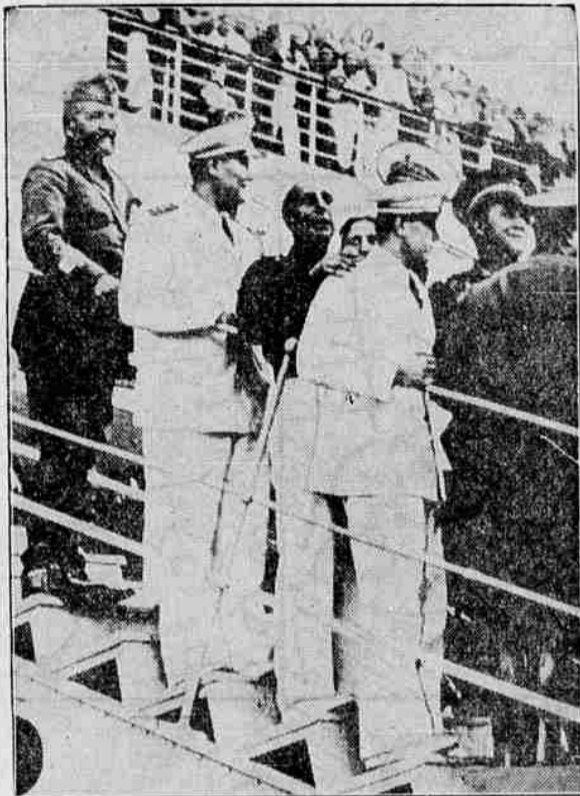

This is the wreckage of the automobile in which Queen Astrid of the Belgians was killed and King Leopold was injured at Lucerne, Switzerland. The king was driving at the time of the fatal accident. This Associated Press Photo by radio to New York from London.

THREE LOSE LIVES IN COLLAPSE OF OAKLAND TUNNEL

Three persons were killed and three others injured in a cavern of the $3,000,000 tunnel being bored under the Berkeley hills to connect Alameda and Contra Costa, Calif., counties. Workmen are shown trying to reach the bodies by removing hundreds of tons of debris. (Associated Press Photo)

IL DUCE'S SONS OFF FOR AFRICA

In the white uniforms of air lieutenants, Bruno (left) and Vittorio (right), sons of Premier Mussolini, are seen as they embarked at Naples for East Africa. Thousands of villagers flocked to the seaport and cheered them as they sailed. (Associated Press Photo)

SPEEDBOAT QUEEN TO MARRY

Loretta Turnbull of Monrovia, Calif., world's champion woman speedboat pilot, is shown with her prospective husband, Tom Rickert, football player and medical student at McGill University, Montreal, Canada. (Associated Press Photo)

FAMILY ON NINTH AIR VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hicks of Detroit, Mich., get all up in the air about their vacations. Here they are, with their 10 children, starting out on their ninth annual tour of the clouds. (Associated Press Photo)

YESTERDAY'S STARS NOW EXTRAS

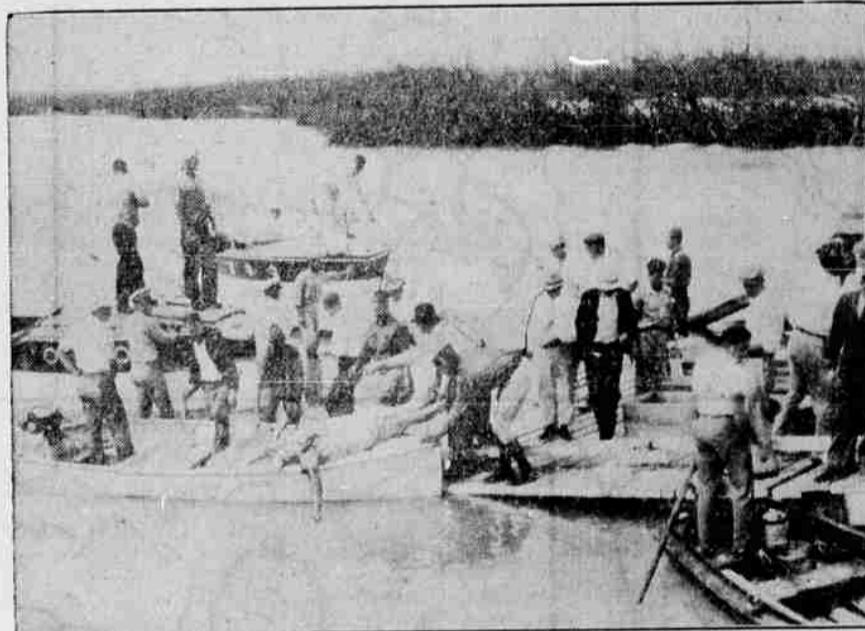

Headliners ten years ago, this quartet of Hollywood women served as extras providing "bite and atmosphere" with Jimmy Cagney in a film being made. Left to right: Vera Steadman, Helene Chadwick, Cagney, Alice Lake and Jane Tallent. (Associated Press Photo)

GEISHA GIRLS ENTERTAIN AMERICAN SWIMMERS

Japanese dinners, with the famous girl entertainers present, were a feature of the visit of the American swimming team in Tokyo. Coach Robert Kiphuth (fourth from right) and Jack Medica (third from right), Seattle swimming ace, and others are shown enjoying Japanese hospitality after the big swimming meet that Japan won from the visitors. (Associated Press Photo)

HUNDREDS KILLED IN FLORIDA KEYS HURRICANE

The death toll in the latest Florida gale was variously estimated at from 200 to 1000 persons, including many war veterans working on FERA projects in constructing links between the mainland and Key West on an overseas highway. Rescue workers going into the storm-lashed area, isolated by rail and road, brought out the dead and injured by boats. (Associated Press Photo)

MISSION PLAYERS GO TO DODGERS

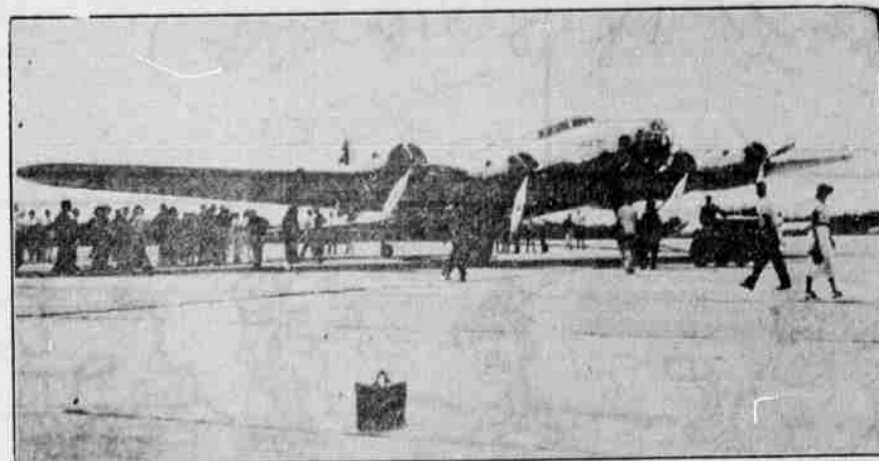

Wayne Osborne (left), pitcher, and Oscar Eckhardt, outfielder, were sold to the Brooklyn club of the National League by the San Francisco Mission baseball club for cash and players. Osborne was with the Pittsburgh club for a tryout in 1934 and Eckhardt has been in the majors three times before, twice with Detroit and once with Boston. (Associated Press Photos)

PRINCIPALS IN ARIZONA POLYGAMY INQUIRY

E. Elmo Bollinger, Mojave county prosecutor (left), and J. M. Lauritzen, justice of the peace (center) are shown at Short Creek, Ariz., as they conferred on further steps in the state's alleged polygamy cases. Howard Bourke (right) was the relief investigator who uncovered the colony under questioning. (Associated Press Photos)

ARMY'S NEW FLYING FORTRESS IN FAST HOP

The United States Army's new 15-ton Boeing bomber is shown arriving in Dayton, O., for tests after flying 2100 miles from Seattle, Wash., in approximately nine hours. The "flying fortress" averaged nearly 235 miles per hour on the nonstop trip. (Associated Press Photo)

U. S. DOCTORS HELP ETHIOPIANS

Stories of Ethiopia's inadequate means of meeting medical requirements of warfare have resulted in two American doctors offering their services to the East African nation. Dr. Arthur Torrance (left) of Los Angeles, has started organizing the Red Cross and an army medical corps, and Dr. Robert Heckman of Wheaton, Ill., has begun inoculation of soldiers against contagious diseases. (Associated Press Photos)