Wednesday Study Club Meeting Has Interesting Subject

The Wednesday Study club met in regular session on October 2, in the club rooms at 229 N. Bartlett street, the president, Mrs. B. G. Harding, presiding. At the conclusion of routine business, Mrs. Harding opened the program with an extremely interesting and instructive talk on "The Constitution of the United States," the convention in Philadelphia, where it was framed, and some of the problems which confronted the statesmen of that day. Questions on various points, given by Mrs. Harding, were answered by members of the club. This is a new departure in the Study club program and one which evokes more general study of the subject.

Mrs. J. G. Love gave a very pleasing and comprehensive review of the book, "Lights From Arcturus."
