MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE

MONDAY, OCTOBER 7th

SAYS WATANABE:

You see when I coming from Japan I doanno what it is America are all abouts. I been here 10 years now and I still feeling similar. But I think I are very too happy for keeping my souls upon U. S. geography. OH! sank you.

Used to be I was in Window Washing proffesion—also wash baby, remove sickness from dog stomach, sweep the behind side of druggery store, and all sort of catagory in sciences of janitorials. Now I are in Hollywood working at a personal servant job—and I liking very too much. But I feeling that I are a servant "By the people—at the people—in the people and on the people." And believe it or never "You can fooling all the people none of the time and none of the time all the people but you cannot fooling all the people all the time—all the people." That's are what Abraham Lincoln spoke and I believe ditto.

Happy regrets of the day to you please
FRANK WATANABE

Put down in black and white his whimsical repartee loses none of its flavor—he's just as ingratiatingly anxious to please, as puzzled over the intricacies of English, as much the willing young Japanese houseboy as the Frank Watanabe that so many have learned to love and listen for over the air.

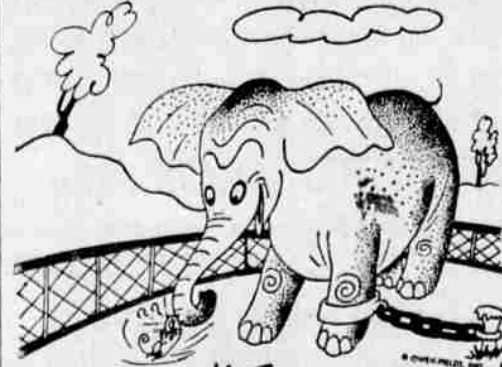

Beginning Monday, October 7th, his grinning Oh So! will light up the lower right hand corner of The Mail Tribune's first page, every evening and his pertinent comments on news of the day will send you into hysterics of mirth.
