BRADDOCK SCORE IN FIRST PERIOD VICTORY MARGIN

Former Sons Star Cops Offensive — Visitors Threaten In Third—Extra Play At Finish.

HAYWARD FIELD, Eugene, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—A first-period touchdown that came after a series of tremendous drives, gave the green clad Webfoots of University of Oregon a 6 to 0 victory today over the University of Utah football team in an inter-sectional game witnessed by 8,000 spectators.

The game came to a dramatic conclusion with Carter, acting captain for Oregon, intercepting a Utah pass on the Webfoot 20-yard line. The gun already had sounded, but an extra play was called as both teams were offside.

Oregon's scoring drive started on their own 20-yard stripe when the first period was only a few minutes old. Making five first downs, the Webfoots marched to the Utah four-yard line, and then Braddock, right half for Oregon, crashed through left tackle for what proved to be the winning touchdown. Michke's try for the extra point was wide.

In the third period Utah made a serious threat, driving 45 yards in a few moments as Newell Call, colorful midget quarterback for the Utes, led his teammates in a rippling, snaking offensive. The threat ended when Michke intercepted a Utah pass, and Oregon kicked out of danger.

Call was the outstanding performer in the wide-open contest. His long, brilliant runs repeatedly brought the crowd to its feet.

In the third period Utah, with one of its best teams in years, gave Oregon a series of bad moments as it penetrated twice in Oregon territory. Again the Webfoots were forced deep near their goal line on a series of passes from the accurate arm of Bill Cowley, Ute halfback. Oregon finally knocked down a pass and got possession of the game.

Both teams resorted to punting in the last period.

KLAMATH VICTORS OVER PASS 13 TO 7

A big Grants Pass football team, one of the largest and most promising in the state, yesterday defeated the Klamath Falls Pelicans at Grants Pass, 13-7, after outplaying the Klamath eleven for the entire second half.

Both Klamath touchdowns came as the result of long runs from past mid-field by Jim Rogers, Klamath Falls back, who outran the slower Cavanan, secondary. The break came in the third quarter when Edson, giant but stubby Grants Pass fullback, entered the fray. Edson was given the ball on nearly every play and pushed over a touchdown on power backs from mid-field.

Grants Pass was within scoring distance twice in the last quarter, but the Klamath line was waiting for Edson's drive and turned the effort back in the shadow of their own goal. The game ended as Grants Pass was trying vainly to pass their way into a tie.

BEARS ARISE AND DEFEAT ST. MARY'S CARDS DOWN DONS

MEMORIAL STADIUM, Berkeley, Cal., Oct. 5.—(AP)—From the lowly position of underdog to the lofty role of conqueror, an inspired Fighting University of California rose today to defeat St. Mary's Gaels, 10 to 0, in an upset victory that thrilled 35,000 fans.

The traditional football encounter between two of the oldest rivals on the Pacific coast saw a California team play an almost flawless game; snatch at two scoring opportunities in the second quarter and completely dominate the clash until the final minutes of the last quarter.

Gaining ground steadily on punt exchanges, the Bears took possession of the ball on St. Mary's 31-yard line early in the second period. Three passes netted a total of 29 yards. From the six yard line, the Bears smashed over with plunges. Ken Cotton, fullback, making the last yard. Left halfback Fowler added the extra point.

Shortly after, California again had the ball on the Gaels 31-yard marker. A five yard penalty and plunges brought it to the 16 yard line where Henry Sparks, sub left end, booted a field goal from placement.

St. Mary's was only in California territory twice, California made 91 yards from scrimmage and 26 yards from passes compared with 59 from scrimmage and 23 from passes for St. Mary's. The Bears chalked up nine first downs against four.

KEAR STADIUM, San Francisco, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Stanford's football warriors, barely able to defeat University of San Francisco the past two seasons, went to work today and rolled up a 10-0 victory.

Although San Francisco put up a stubborn defense which Stanford could not penetrate at times, the Dons were unable to get anywhere near scoring territory.

CUBS LOSE 2 TO 1 BEFORE CROWDER

Veteran Charley Root, victim of the Tiger thrust in the second game, but it was a weirdly achieved victory nevertheless. The Tigers might have been shut out, 1 to 0, on Hartnett's homer, had the Cubs given a perfect defensive performance or risen to the fly-chasing heights of the day before.

UCLANS TAKE TO AIR AND ENDS TO DEFEAT STATERS

Come From Behind To Rout O. S. C.—Cheshire Flashes With Long Run.

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Ore., Oct. 5.—(AP)—"Chuck" Cheshire, golden-armed and wing-footed halfback, scored two touchdowns, one on a 77-yard run from scrimmage, to give University of California at Los Angeles a 20-to-7 win over Oregon State college here today.

Continuing the winning stride they struck in midseason last year, UCLA Bruins came from behind with an undying spirit after the Oregon State Beavers made an impressive start and maintained a 7-to-0 half-time lead.

The Bruins, dark horses who came to light in the bright Oregon sunshine, were unable to make much of a dent in the big Oregon State line, but sneaked around the tackles and ends on reverses and sweeps, or went through the air to win their opening coast conference game of the season.

Midway in the first quarter the Oregon State Beavers took the ball on downs on the Oregon 27 yard line and Scott ripping off long gains on the ground and Gray, flipping perfect passes to "hot" receivers the Beavers passed to Schultz over the goal for a touchdown from the Oregon State 11-yard line. Swanson place kicked for the extra point.

Then Cheshire went into action. On the first play from scrimmage following the kickoff he skirted left end, sped up and zig-zagged through the entire Oregon State team, out-running Safety Joe Gray for a 77-yard touchdown gallop. Murphy's place kick attempt for extra point was wide.

Pank's great punts, one which traveled 85 yards from scrimmage, brought the Bruins gains of from 10 to 20 yards on almost every exchange.

Gray, sophomore Beaver half who did spectacular passing and showed great promise as a ball paker, was hesitant at times in his first big game and was unable to provide consistent punch for the Beaver offense.

Late in the third quarter Cheshire, who completed a number of passes besides gaining 172 yards from scrimmage, made 20 and 15-yard gains in leading a Bruin touchdown from his own 35-yard line.

On the second play of the final quarter he sped around right end and out into the corner of the end zone for a touchdown on a five-yard jaunt. Keys' place kick brought the extra point and UCLA took the lead, 13 to 7. Coach Lon Steiner hustled Bob Mountain another promising sophomore ball carrier and passer.

On the play and he sparked several advances. However, the alert Bruins had their pass defense perfected and Murphy intercepted a long leave from Mountain on his own 40 and dashed 70 yards for a touchdown. Then he place kicked for the extra point.

All the Oregon State backs and ends sparkled at pass catching and Ray Scott looked better on offense than any Beaver fullback for several seasons.

UCLA gained 245 yards by rushing and made nine first downs, while Oregon State made 13 first downs and gained 117 yards from scrimmage, offset by loss of 47 yards from scrimmage. The Beavers completed 10 passes for 131 yards while the Bruins completed four passes for 35 yards.

COUGARS TRAMPLE WILLAMETTE 33-0, WASHINGTON WINS

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 2.—(AP)—A powerful offensive which sounded a warning to Pacific coast conference opponents carried Washington State college to a 33 to 0 victory over Willamette here today.

Coach Babe Hollingbery kept his brief time. He used nearly every member of his 50-man squad, and the reserves showed capably.

The Cougars mixed sensational open football with a powerful running attack, scoring one touchdown on a forward-lateral pass, Goddard to Christofferson to Dougherty.

Willamette threatened three times, although the Cougar defense stopped the highly touted Johnny Green. Dick Weisgerber, his 210-pound backfield mate, stood out as a ball carrier.

MILD UPSET

WASHINGTON STADIUM, Seattle, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The University of Washington Huskies scored a mild upset today when they conquered the Santa Clara Broncos, 13 to 0, in a non-conference football game in this stadium.

Big Ed Nowogroski, Washington fullback, put Washington ahead with a touchdown in the opening period, and then the 20,000 fans were treated to a sensational last minute play when both teams tallied.

The Huskies first on a thrilling play, Elmer Logg to Cain, and Santa Clara on the last play of the battle when Raymond Kaliski ran the kickoff back 85 yards after the time was up.

Gonzaga Wins

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 5.—(AP)—A 90-yard dash for a touchdown by swift Tommy McNeese upset the Idaho Vandals and the dope and paved the way for a 7 to 6 Gonzaga victory here today. Idaho scored its touchdown in the fourth period, with big Theron Ward leading the attack. The try-for-point was blocked.

ROOSEVELT SQUAD DEFEATS JACKSON

Grade school football in Medford got away to a flying start Friday with the Roosevelt squad, under Guy Davis, adhering rigidly to Coach Bowerman's Senior high plays, arriving notice that they are the team to beat this year. They took the Jackson school eleven under H. W. Gustin and Dick Sakralda by a lopsided score of 34-0, while Washington under J. C. Tucker was taking the Lincoln lads down the line by 13-6 score. Ivan Harrington, former high school flash, is mentor at Lincoln.

Coach Bowerman handled the games in the capacity of referee, and kept a close eye on material coming up. Russell Achison, Junior high school coach, was umpire, and Ed Kirtley, Senior high school backfield guide was head linesman.

The games were played at Van Scoyde field, but by next week when the other games will be played, they will have their own field at the Jackson school, now being completed. Letter awards will be given to each man, who plays a certain number of quarters, and a pennant will be awarded at the end of the year to the winning team.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—(AP)—Ole Walker, the "black boxer" of Georgia, tonight knocked out the veteran fifth round Limouatin of France in the fifth round of the scheduled ten round bout. Walker, who weighed 209, six pounds less than his opponent, landed a terrific right across to put his opponent down and out.

FAVORITES FALL BY WAYSIDE IN GRIDIRON FRAYS

Princeton, Notre Dame And Ohio State Victors—Upsets Mark Day—Illinois Beats Ohio.

By Herbert W. Barker
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Tulane, Tennessee, Brown and Kansas State all fell by the football wayside yesterday in another day of astonishing results, put on for the edification of the greatest outpouring of fans the young season yet has seen.

While Princeton, Ohio State, Duke, Notre Dame, Temple and Rice were emerging victorious in other feature encounters, Tennessee, figured as an outstanding contender for the southern conference title, collided with the North Carolina Tar Heels at Knoxville and suffered a terrific beating, 38-13. North Carolina's triumph, coupled as it was with triumphs for Duke and North Carolina State, breaks a bitter struggle among these three for southern conference honors.

Duke, meeting one of the main contenders, crushed Washington & Lee, 26-9, while North Carolina State, where Hunk Anderson holds forth, trounced South Carolina, 14-0.

Tulane, long a major southeastern conference power, ran into a stunning reversal as Auburn's platoonmen won, 10-3. Kansas State, Big Six champions a year ago, fell by the margin of a field goal in a closely fought tussle with Port Hays State Teachers, 3-0. Brown, where Tuss McLaughry had hoped for better things this season, was beaten by Rhode Island State for the first time in history, 13-7.

Meanwhile a record crowd of more than 50,000 turned out to watch Ohio State's powerhouse make its season debut and earn a 19-6 victory over Kentucky. Princeton, beaten only once in the past two seasons, came from behind to nose out Pennsylvania, 7-6, in the state's standout struggle fought before 50,000 in Palmer stadium. Princeton, Notre Dame, encountering stubborn resistance from Carnegie Tech, nevertheless punched over a pair of touchdowns to win, 14-3. Temple, invading the southwest, overcame Texas A. & M., 14-0. Rice, southwest conference champions, evened up the inter-sectional series, however, with a 27-7 victory over Duquesne.

Alabama's crimson tide, Rose Bowl champions who got no better than a 7-7 draw with Howard last week, came roaring back in old style and gave George Washington a 39-0 beating that was entirely unexpected. Illinois, upset by Ohio university in its first start, toppled Washington university in decisive fashion, 20-6, but Cornell, nosed out by St. Lawrence a week ago, went down again, this time against Western Reserve, 33-19. Marquette beat Wisconsin for the first time in history, 33-0.

Otherwise the favorites led the situation under control. Michigan State scored its second successive triumph over Michigan, 23-8; Indiana scored over Centre, 14-0; and Nebraska outpointed Iowa, 20-7.

Villanova's Wildcats showed further indication of real power in a 20-0 rout of western Maryland and Pitt came back with a crushing offensive to turn back Washington & Jefferson, 35-0. Army and Navy won from William & Mary, 14-0, and Mercer, 27-0, respectively, while Fordham beat an old rival, Boston college, 19-0. Harvard, Yale, Dartmouth, West Virginia, Holy Cross, Syracuse and New York university were among other major eastern winners. Colgate played a round robin with Amherst and St. Lawrence and beat them both, 12-9 and 31-0. Columbia was not too impressive in a 12-0 victory over Virginia Military.

NEW FACES GRACE FIRST MAT CARD ON MONDAY NIGHT

Tomorrow night will see the advent of Monday evening wrestling in Medford, with Mack Lillard presenting a card that he believes entirely befitting the occasion. In the double main event, four of the most highly rated grunters on the coast will meet with Toots Estes tangling with Jack Londo, brother of the incomparable Jim, and an international affair being settled when Hans Schroeder of Germany and Adree Adoree of France mix.

The four will flip a coin to see which will enter the ring first, and either way the money falls the bout is sure to prove exceptional. The Teuton giant has promised to dissect the Frenchman, while the boy with the rhythmic name, Adoree, indicates that there will be sauer kraut from the Army to the Gold Hill bridge after the bout.

As yet both are untried among the local fraternity, as is Estes' opponent, Londo. Londo is younger than his brother, Jim, but is said to be just as aggressive, with great promise. Tooth has promised his twin brother, Babe, that he will take Londo if Babe takes the challenging, strutting Marine Bob Kennaston of Gold Hill. The two will appear on the card at the special request of Babe, who won from Kennaston on a foul at Klamath Falls last week while still practically unconscious from a punishing home-designed Boston crab hold of Kennaston.

"I expect the card to be one of the best in many months," said Lillard last night.

DUNSMUIR NOSES OUT LITHIA TEAM

Playing ragged and listless football, the Ashland high school eleven yesterday bowed before an aggressive Dunsmuir squad, 13-12 in a game marked by frequent fumbles and penalties.

Ashland scored first, and repeated after a sustained Dunsmuir march had evened the score, and emerged on the long end of a 12-6 count to the half. The California outfit came back fast in the third frame to forge into the lead when their conversion spelled the margin victory.

The Klamath Falls team defeated the Dunsmuir eleven on Sept. 20, by the lop-sided count of 20-0.

CANZONERI WINS BOUT FROM ROTH

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—(AP)—The lightweight flitic crowd rode jauntily through a trifle askew today above the brow of Tony Canzoneri.

The grinning 26-year-old veteran of the ring kept his title in a lashing encounter with studly Al Roth at the Bronx, but he took a sound beating in the last three rounds of a roaring climax.

A crowd of 14,210 who paid nearly $40,000 and signaled the return of prosperity to the lightweights, howled its approval in Madison Square Garden last night as the durable Roth back after a third-round knockdown to put on one of the greatest rallying climaxes in light-weight history.

On the Associated Press score card, Canzoneri won the first twelve rounds and Roth the last three. The decision was unanimous.

CARD COMPLETED FOR ELKS BOUTS TUESDAY NIGHT

Plans were completed Saturday for the CCC fight card at the Elks temple Tuesday evening, while the Elks committee were winding up plans for the big feed that will follow the fist-cuffs.

Don Houston, 166, a former Medford and Vancouver, Wash., battler, will be pitted against Al Daigneau, 170, former navy fighter, in the main event on the card. Houston is at present stationed at the Diamond Lake camp while Daigneau hails from Upper Rogue.

Joe Cavelli, 145, flashy leather toser from the Headquarters detachment in Medford, will meet Joe Luchesi, 145, scrappy battler from Annie Springs, in the special event.

The third bout on the card will bring together Raymond Stevens, 160, of Diamond Lake, and Charles Knight, 160, the knockout artist of Upper Rogue.

John Jakubowski, 153, Coos Head, will tangle with Charles Burroughs, 153, of Annie Springs, in another promising bout. John Bengali, 153, Coos Head, who won his fight on Tex Salkeld's card in Marshfield last week, will mix with Jess Savickey, 152, of South Fork. Savickey is the little "Frankenstein" who has made such a hit on previous Medford cards.

T. H. Robinson, chairman of the Elks' fight committee, is enthusiastic over the prospects for Tuesday's opening card. He has been working with Captain William C. Ryan, district athletic officer, in arranging the CCC battles.

P. C. Bigham is chairman of the "feed" committee and promises a real supper following the bouts at the temple. All members of the lodge are urged to attend.

The complete card follows: Don Houston, 166, Diamond Lake vs. Al Daigneau, 170, Upper Rogue. Joe Cavelli, 145, Headquarters detachment vs. Joe Luchesi, 145, Annie Springs. Raymond Stevens, 160, Diamond Lake vs. Charles Knight, 160, Upper Rogue. John Jakubowski, 153, Coos Head vs. Charles Burroughs, 150, Annie Springs. Johnny Bengali, 153, Coos Head vs. Jess Savickey, 152, South Fork.

BRAINTREE, Mass., Oct. 5.—(AP)—A football player swallowed his tongue today in a high school game here when kicked in his adam's apple in the final scrimmage of the contest. Tonight he was reported out of danger.

Edwidge Allen, 16, of the Braitree high team was the victim.
