

Local and Personal

On Leave—Lieut. Richard C. Lang of the Winthrop OOC camp started on a 10-day leave of absence today.

Visitors Here—Mr. and Mrs. Russell Harrison of Sunnydale, Cal., are weekend guests at the T. K. Flynn home, 219 North Oakdale avenue.

Fred Heath Back—Fred Heath, Jr. was back at his duties at the Heath drug store today following a week's visit at Crescent City, Cal.

Circle to Meet—The Ever Ready circle of the Presbyterian church will meet at the Westernman home at Eighth and Fry tomorrow at 12:30. A covered-dish lunch will be served.

Granted Furlough—Lieut. William J. Anuskevich has been granted a 21-day leave of absence, effective today, from his duties at the Elk Creek OOC camp.

Replacements Soon—It was expected at OOC headquarters here today that replacements would soon be made at the camps in this district from which enrollees have departed for discharge in the east.

To Visit Family—Lieut. William B. Clegg left here yesterday on the OOC special for Ottawa, Ill., where he will visit his family. At the end of a 30-day leave of absence he will return to Medford with his wife and small son.

Making Inspection—Capt. Franklin E. Canlett, district OOC inspector, is making an inspection of the camps in the northern part of the Medford district. The inspection will require three days.

Magazines Donated—The OOC men leaving this district on special trains for discharge in the east will have plenty of reading matter, the Jackson County Chamber of Commerce having donated large bundles of old magazines.

Covers Two Camps—Capt. Albert B. Dismore, surgeon at the Rand OOC camp, is also serving as surgeon at Wings during the absence of Dr. Lawrence B. Hanson, who was to leave today on the special troop train taking enrollees back east for discharge.

Fast Deer Slayers—Mr. and Mrs. Feb Stone and Walter Smith, hunting in the Lakeview district over the weekend, killed a huge five-point mule deer buck after hunting only an hour. The animal was one of the largest killed in the district this year, and dressed well over 200 pounds.

Goes to Eugene—Walter O. Crank was back in the city today after attending a convention of salesmen in Indianapolis. He plans to leave tomorrow for Eugene where he will reside for the winter. While in the east he visited relatives in Peru, Ind., and Salda, Colo.

tacked in the Mediterranean while carrying out orders of the League of Nations.

(Great Britain has moved about 100 warships into the Mediterranean, patrolling the area of approach to the Suez canal. In case the League of Nations calls for military sanctions against Italy, these ships probably would be part of the league military force.)

The conditions of the French reply are:

1. Great Britain and France will consult each other before taking action;
2. Whatever measures are taken after consultation will not be considered a provocation for attack by a third power;
3. If either France or Great Britain is attacked for measures taken after such consultation, the other will aid the one attacked.

The French note added that France would appreciate an assurance that the British government "agrees on all these points."

STANDARD PLANE MISSING IN UTAH

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Search for a Standard Oil company transport plane, missing since early yesterday with its crew of three, was resumed at daylight today.

Last reported shortly after 2:00 o'clock yesterday morning, when it had passed Salduro, Utah, enroute to the Salt Lake airport, the giant plane, equipped with every modern flying device, had dropped suddenly and completely from sight.

A dozen planes all day yesterday raked an area 100 miles to the westward and 60 miles north and south, but were unable to find a clue to the probable fate of the missing ship and its crew.

They were: R. S. Allen, 35, pilot; G. A. Lens, 35, co-pilot; and Geo. C. Anderson, 35, mechanic, all of Alameda, Cal. The plane had left Oakland Saturday night to pick up Harry D. Collier, vice president of the Standard Oil company of California, who had come here from New York City by train.

ELKS CCC CARD TO DRAW CROWD

Advance ticket sales for the big CCC fight card at the Elks smoker tomorrow night indicated a large crowd, according to Ernest L. Scott, lodge secretary, today. After a summer lay-off, the speedy three-C scrap is anxious to mix again, and the leather will fly fast.

Many of the fighters who will appear on the card are new to the district and eager to win their spurs before the critical southern Oregon fans. Rivalry for spots on the smoker has been intense for the past several weeks, selections having been made by the simple process of elimination. Camp rivalry, always at a high pitch, has been fanned tremendously since the fights started last year. Even though it is a friendly rivalry, the actual bouts are anything but that way.

Following the battling, a big feed will be put on by the local Elks, with brothers coming from all of southern Oregon. P. C. "Sodypop" Bigham, in charge of victuals, has promised one of the best suppers in months. All Elks of southern Oregon are invited.

CCC MAN SENT HOME FOR WINDOW BREAK

Eugene Early, 20, CCC enrollee, this morning pleaded guilty in justice court to a charge of destroying property and was given his choice of spending 30 days in the county jail or returning immediately to his home in New Jersey. He promised to leave at once.

According to city police, who arrested Early, the charge grew out of his breaking a window at the Highway service station at Riverside and Fourth streets, Lloyd Palen, who works at a nearby lunch counter, saw Early break the window, he told police, and saw the young man reach through the window.

He gave chase, caught Early, and took him to the police station, where he was lodged in jail. The alleged breaking of the window was shortly before midnight Saturday.

At Sacred Heart—Mrs. M. Heckenberger of Eagle Point was reported resting comfortably at the Sacred Heart hospital, following a major operation this morning.

Dance Revue Now At Craterian Is Scoring Big Hit

It was almost a foregone conclusion that "Top Hat" which opened yesterday at the Craterian theatre, would enjoy much of the same success locally as it has elsewhere but who would have ventured to say it would be so seasonally popular as to bring a completely filled theatre matinee and evening, necessitating extra shows. That's what happened yesterday at the Craterian, where box office records were shot up to a new high with this smart musical successor to "Flying Down to Rio," "Gay Divorcee" and "Roberta."

Gay, romantic, tuneful and altogether delightful, "Top Hat" must be marked as another crowning triumph for Fred Astaire and Ginger Rogers. A smashing entertainment hit, the film kept the audience in almost continuous bursts of applause and appreciative laughter.

Hooking up the superlative dancing abilities of Astaire and Miss Rogers with the melodies of Irving Berlin proves to be a master stroke of concentrated entertainment value.
