

ALL HEAVYWEIGHT CARD SIGNED FOR MONDAY GRAPPLE

An all heavyweight card has been signed by Mack Lillard for next Monday night at the Armory, fulfilling early a promise made by the promoter to have exceptional cards on the early-week fights.

In the double main event, Hans Schroeder, the Teuton terror, will meet Paul Borsch, the Brooklyn adonis, while the Mad Marine, Bob Kennaston of Gold Hill has been moved up to importance in meeting Al Karasick, the Russian lion.

In taking Renee Adree last Monday, Schroeder revealed some of the most punishing holds in the book, and administered them with such savagery that a tough evening is indicated for Borsch. The Brooklyn lad has wrestled here before, and proved immensely popular. He is another member of the bang and bite school, and the bout is a natural. Lillard has been trying hard to sign Borsch for a bout here, and succeeded yesterday.

Karasick is the hope of the fans to give Kennaston the licking he has been asking for for several months. When he first appeared in the Armory arena Kennaston seemed to have little to offer in the way of real wrestling, contenting himself with fouling his way to victory. Just as unpopular as ever, the Mad Marine has at least battled to win over some tough opponents, including Johnny Soos of Indiana. He has marked himself as a man to watch here, and the fans have asked that he be wrestled against the wiry Russian.

Karasick, if left to his own devices, generally adheres closely to book wrestling, but if goaded becomes as unorthodox as any man in the ring, with a surprising repertoire of rough stuff of his own.

In the opening bout, Chief Thundervolt, Canadian Indian, and big Jim Barnes of Oakland, will wrestle for 30 minutes, or one fall. Both are new to Medford, but both have good reputations as grapplers in their own districts.

When Lillard announced the change in wrestling night from Thursday to Monday, he declared his intention of bringing better talent here. Thursday is wrestling night in Portland, Seattle, Tacoma, Oakland and other centers, and on Monday the fighters are travelling through Medford in numbers, enabling Lillard to sign the best talent on the coast regularly. The all-heavyweight card will start at 8:30.

Snags Passes

Big Darrell Leavens, 180-pound end, is a sure-fingered pass receiver from Franklin high of Portland. He holds down one of the SOONS' first string end positions.

HOUSTON WINS BY TECHNICAL KAYO IN CCC MAIN BOUT

Gordon Houston, 157, blond dynamite from Diamond Lake, battered his way to a second-round victory over Al Daigneau, 165, of Upper Rogue. In the main event on the CCC fight card at the Elks' temple last night, Houston met stiff opposition in the black-belted boy from Upper Rogue, but kept pouring it on and Daigneau was forced to retire from the frays at the end of the second round.

Charles Knight, 162, of Upper Rogue, was given the nod over Charles Burroughs, 127, of Annie Springs, in another exciting bout. Knight will be remembered for his knockout victory over Cooper of Diamond Lake on the Fourth of July card at Ashland.

Nat Lombardo, 118, of Annie Springs was given the decision over Harold Friedman, 114, of Upper Rogue, in a special bout that nearly stole the show from the big boys. The little fellows hit each other with enthusiasm, and kept the crowd in an uproar.

Jess Savickey, 139, South Fork, refused to be awed by the brilliant Golden Gloves record of Joe DiPenna, 140, of Annie Springs, and carried the fight to him in their heated set-to. They were given a draw.

Bill Padget, 130, of Wimer, continued his winning streak with a second-round knockout victory over Anton Mikintias, 134, of Headquarters detachment. Mikintias shows promise of becoming a favorite on the Elks card, however, because of his willingness to absorb punishment.

Joe Erickson refereed the bouts. Another CCC card is being planned for Thursday evening, October 24, at Elks temple.

By Dick Applegate

The city bowling league got away to a fine start last night, with the Gates Auto Co. walloping the Mail Tribune, 3 to 1, and the Smoke House taming the hide of the Roofers by the same count.

Much confusion was shown, due to the fact that the teams were working on new wood. At the first of every season new pins are installed. Later in the year these will have been rounded off at the base by continuous buffeting, but now they are flat and hard to topple. A shot that looked to be a perfect strike would time after time turn into a wide split. Much better individual scores will be shown in a few weeks. The foul line is being used in all league games, further adding to the groans.

Bowling at the Elks' club will start Monday evening, October 14. A new plan to have a double header game each Friday has been installed, with the first game at 7 o'clock and the other following at 10 o'clock. At least three members of each team must be present for the matches or the game will be forfeit.

The following article from the Spokane "Spokane-Review" will prove of interest to many Medford fans.

For the third time the high school high-scoring record holder of Oregon has cast his football future with Gonzaga and will perform under blue colors.

Latest in the line of tough-high scorers was Houston Stockton, 150-pound ball-carrying wizard, who in coming to Gonzaga to play his college football, is following in illustrious cleated footsteps.

The first in the succession of high scorers was Houston Stockton, a battering ram of a triple-threat back who established the Webfoot state scoring record at Columbia high well over a decade ago, and went on to make the name as a probably Gonzaga's grid hero and wrote a new record in the pro gridiron with the Philadelphia Yellowjackets.

Stood Nearly 10 Years
Stockton's record stood almost a decade when a fellow Portlander, Bobby Grayson of Jefferson high, now an all-American quarterback at Stanford, cracked the old mark and hung up a new one.

Grayson's record was hardly written into the books when Max Gilinsky of Medford high took the record to southern Oregon with a season-long scoring spree.

Gilinsky, like Stockton, elected to do his college footballing at Gonzaga and dashed 30 yards through the Washington State front for a winning carry the first time he carried the ball on Gonzaga turf.

Moved Up Again
Gilinsky's record was even shorter-lived, standing just one year when his successor on the same team, Leo Ghelard, erased the mark and wrote a new record with a fraction over three touchdowns a game.

One of the best reasons for Ghelard's scoring success, Ron Baker, a husky running guard, will also do his college footballing at Gonzaga, as will Dick Lewis, another southern Oregon prep pupil. Baker is heralded as the best line man from Medford since the days of All-American Bill Morgan.

Clingman Drops Marcus Twice

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 9.—(AP)—Oils Clingman, popular ex-sailor, came back to the Salem mat ring last night to whip Jerry Marcus two falls out of three in the main event wrestling match.

Paddy Nolan won the semi-windup by taking the final two falls from Marcus. Herb Parks won on a foul from Totten Pole Anderson.

WASHINGTON HIGH WINS 20 TO 13 FROM TECH

PORTLAND, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The big Washington high line played the stellar role in snatching a 20 to 13 last quarter win here yesterday from an inspired Benson Tech team.

ON THE FOOTBALL FRONT

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 9.—(AP)—A frenzied search for a place kicker was underway today in the University of Oregon football camp.

The Webfoots have scored four touchdowns in winning two non-conference games, but not a point after touchdown has been scored. Pull-back Frank Meech, whose powerful foot frequently sends the kickoff well past the goal line, failed in three attempts to plant the ball through the uprights. His understudy, Jerry Donnell, had no better luck in one attempt.

Oregon meets University of California next Saturday at Portland in their opening conference game.

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 9.—(AP)—The Oregon state college football team faced a bombardment of Gonzaga plays and passes today as interpreted by the beefy Rock team.

Coch Lou Atter will use the Rock again tomorrow in working out a defense for the game against Gonzaga here Friday night. The Rocks swamped Southern Oregon Normal, 20 to 0, last week and will furnish strong opposition.

SEATTLE, Oct. 9.—(AP)—The University of Washington Huskies were due for a hard workout today as Coach Jimmy Phelan studied the probable personnel of the squad he will take to Pullman for the Washington state college game, October 10.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 9.—(AP)—If Montana beats Washington State in their conference football game at Missoula Saturday, it will be the first Grizzly victory over the Cougars in 21 years, a peek at the records revealed today.

DENY NEW TRIAL FOR KIDNAPER OF LINDBERGH BABY

tion" at the time by Hauptmann counsel.

The court held also that Hauptmann had not been improperly treated in Wilenta's cross-examination "in the absence of objection."

The Hauptmann counsel's contention that the state changed its theory of how the crime was committed between the opening and closing of the trial is no reason for reversing the lower court, the decision stated.

The decision was read by 73-year-old Justice Charles W. Parker.

Judge Was Fair

As to the argument that Justice Thomas W. Freeland, who presided at the Flemington trial, was unfair in his charge, the high court said: "It is always the right, and often the duty, of a trial judge to comment on the evidence and give the jury his impressions of its weight and value."

Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, the wife of the former German army machine gunner, was not present in the packed courtroom when the decision was read. She learned of the blow to her husband's hope at her New York City apartment.

"All we can do is carry on," she said. "I don't know what I will do now, but Richard and I will continue to hope in God."

Hauptmann was in the death house at state prison when the court acted.

Three Courses Open

Three courses, none of them affording any great hope for the imprisoned Bronx carpenter, are now open to his attorneys.

1. An appeal to the board of pardons, which could commute his sentence to life imprisonment. (Such appeals are rarely granted.)

2. An appeal for a new trial on the grounds that new evidence has been discovered since the first trial. (One of Hauptmann's lawyers said recently

PLAN ENLARGING OF NAVIN FIELD

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 9.—(AP)—A big slice of that world series gate is going to stay right in the ball park where it was earned.

Frank J. Navin, president of the Detroit Baseball company, has announced that he would spend $500,000 this winter in enlarging the seating capacity at Navin field so that the champion Tigers could play to a bigger house next season.

Navin told a group of 800 business men who paid $5 each for the privilege of crowding their knees under the same banquet table with the Tiger players at a "victory dinner" last night that his plans would add 10,000 to 12,000 permanent seats.
