GREEN TOMATOES MAKE DELICIOUS WINTER PRODUCTS

CORVALLIS — (Sp.) — The advent of cool fall days reminds the Oregon homemaker that green tomatoes in the garden that may not have an opportunity to ripen before frost can be converted into numerous delicious products for brightening up winter meals. Recipes for several of the most popular methods of utilizing green tomatoes are included in a leaflet prepared by the home economics extension staff at Oregon State college. It is H. E. 208, entitled "Tomato Recipes," and may be had free upon request from county extension offices or from the college at Corvallis. In addition to green tomato recipes it contains recipes for tomato butter, tomato and apple butter, tomato paste, tomato puree, tomato and apple relish and tomato soup mixture. Ways of utilizing green tomatoes explained in the leaflet include chutney, tomato mango, mock mince-meat, green tomato picnilli, and spiced green tomatoes. Wash the tomatoes, but do not peel them. If small tomatoes are used, prick them slightly. Combine the sugar, vinegar and spices; bring the mixture to the boiling point and pour it over the tomatoes. Let them stand for several hours or over night. Drain off the liquid and cook it until it coats a spoon. Add the tomatoes and cook them until they are clear. Seal them in clean, hot jars.
