Canine Tight-Rope Artist at Rialto

"Foxy," whose tight rope act was postponed today on account of rain, is nevertheless winning thunderous applause at the Rialto theatre, where she is appearing on the stage for all shows in conjunction with the showing of George O'Brien in the screen in Zane Grey's "Thunder Mountain." Far outclassing any trained dog act to appear in Medford in years, "Foxy" goes through her repertoire of stunts with almost human understanding of the spoken commands of her master. Weather permitting, "Foxy" will do her tight rope act across Main street tomorrow at noon, with the high ropes suspended directly across Main street at the Rialto theatre.

Receives Treatment Here—Mrs. Don Britton of Eagle Point has been in town since Wednesday evening, visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, and having dental work done.

Leaves for Portland—William J. Grundig, representing the Frank H. Lee Hat company of New York, who was a business visitor here yesterday, left this morning for Portland.

Missionary Society Meets—Members of the Women's Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will meet Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. The session will start at 2:30 o'clock.

To Hunt in East—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Applegate and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williamson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. O'Hara, and Dale O'Hara, of Ashland, are visiting relatives in eastern Oregon, where the men of the party will enjoy hunting.

Rally Day postponed—Because a large number of boys and girls participating in the program are ill with measles, it has been necessary to postpone the Rally Day program at the First Presbyterian church. Therefore the Sunday school will meet in departments at 9:45 as usual.

Completes Check—County School Superintendent C. R. Bowman today reported completion of his check of all schools on standardization. The schools are inspected and graded on the condition of grounds, school house, equipment, library, teacher and school organization and community activities affecting the school.

Teachers' Chorus Meets—Announcement is made of the meeting of the Jackson County Teachers' chorus tomorrow morning in the courthouse auditorium at ten o'clock. All teachers who sing are cordially invited. Although the courthouse offices will be closed on account of the holiday, the auditorium will be open.

Tou Velle Returns—Judge F. L. Tou Velle of Jacksonville returned yesterday from Salem, where he attended his first meeting of the newly-elected member of the state highway commission. Judge Tou Velle will join other members of the commission next week in a trip of inspection in the Lakeview and Klamath districts. He stated he would have nothing to say for publication until he had become more familiar with his job and all phases of the state highway problem, but was going to work his head off for the best interests of all southern Oregon.

The Rev. Geo. P. Kabele, pastor of Zion Lutheran church, left this morning for Portland to attend the District of Columbia Luther League convention, taking with him as delegates from the local Luther league, John Brexoid, Earle Fichtner and Miss Ruth Hall. Dr. Kabele is to preach the convention sermon in St. James Lutheran church, Portland, at the Sunday morning service. Because of the pastor's absence there will be no service in Zion church Sunday, but the Sunday school will meet regularly at 10 a.m. and the Luther league at 7 p.m.

Pulitzer Prize Story at Craterian

Both Tarkington's "Alice Adams," which won for him the Pulitzer prize in 1922, is brought to the screen with Katharine Hepburn playing the title role, and comes to the Craterian theatre Sunday. The drama concerns a girl's gallant struggle to rise from the mire of poverty and social oblivion in a small Midwestern town, where wealth is the yardstick of success. The heroine of the story is an appealing combination of fineness, pretense, romance and courage, which is said to give of the prominent executives in the Standard Oil company of California, was brought here in the company's plane by Pilot Allen and visited friends in the city, including Mrs. C. N. Black and Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell.
