TOWN OF MILL CITY BOUGHT BY EUGENEAN

ENGENE, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Purchase of the small town of Mill City in the Santiam area was announced here today by R. A. Babb, Eugene hardware merchant. The purchase was made from the Hammond Lumber company and includes all properties in the town with the exception of the bank and the light and water plant.

Babb said today he planned to dismantle the mill and sell the equipment. He said he did not know just what he would do with the rest of the town, as without the mill there is no industry there to keep it going.

McLeod

McLeod, Oct. 11.—(Spl.)—The McLeod Home Extension unit met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. C. E. Close. Mrs. Mack, assisted by Mrs. Rita Meyers, demonstrated the use of the new guide patterns which the ladies have been studying for some months, and which have caused much enthusiasm in the unit. The serving class was held in the beautiful yard of the Close home on the bank of Butte creek.

The next meeting will be demonstrated by local leaders at the home of Mrs. N. F. Ohrt, November 14. The subject will be "Buymanship."

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Medford spent several days at the Von Stein home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ditsworth, E. L. Glass and Jack Vaughn are at Hamaker Meadows, rounding up stock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hoag are spending several weeks at Dallas, visiting relatives.

Bob Neeley and J. W. Richardson are plastering the Tate store and home at McLeod camp ground.

A gas pump has been installed at the new McLeod station and Mr. Tate is now in position to fill the gas needs of the community. The store will soon be completed when groceries also can be purchased again at McLeod.

The following were Medford visitors Monday: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Close, Mrs. Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sublette, and Mrs. H. M. Von Stein.

The Upper Rogue H. E. club will meet Tuesday, October 15, with Mrs. Tressie Vaughn. A 100 per cent attendance is urged by the hostess, who is also the chairman.

Mr. Webber is having a woven wire fence built around his home near the bridge.

The Upper Rogue Grange gave a dancing party Saturday night for members and friends. The large attendance crowded them out of the Sunset hall to the Rogue Elk hall, where the people danced in comfort.

At a recent meeting of the newly organized consolidated school district, Hobart Ditsworth was elected director to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Ash. A further meeting to vote on the budget will be called in the very near future.

The Laurelhurst Sunday school had an attendance of 36 for Rally Day. There are now more children attending this Sunday school than attend the daily school. Every one, whether young or old, is urged to join. The school is conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Neeley.

Mrs. Ethel Casey has returned to her home after a summer's absence. She is very busy making the popular "goofies" and has engaged Miss Erma Glass to help fill her orders.

A baby daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pettigrew last week.

Big Applegate

BIG APPLEGATE, Oct. 11.—(Spl.)—Mrs. L. A. Nelson has returned to her home in the Sterling section from the Community hospital, where she was ill with pneumonia.

Bill Straube of this community and Cleo Young of Central Point left by motor Saturday for Portland, where they will attend the stock show. They plan to continue on a hunting trip to Waterman, eastern Oregon, where they will be guestas of Emil Straube.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kusel of Little Applegate are the parents of a nine-pound son born at the Community hospital at Medford October 5. The baby has been named William Sherwin.

The Applegate community can be proud of its successful representation in the recent Kennel-Ellis photographic contest in the small personage of Miss Pauline Rowden, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rowden. The serious, dark-eyed little lady placed second in her group.

Mrs. Agnes E. Hines of Forest Grove is spending the week here as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Miles Cantrall.

Mrs. Alice Ulrich of Jacksonville was a dinner guest Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Buckley.

Mrs. Lelia Lynch of Talent, accompanied by her two granddaughters, spent Sunday here with her sister, Mrs. A. S. Kleinhammer.

Dick De Camp, employed during the summer as fire guard at Wagner Gap, left the first of the month for Corvallis to enroll as a junior student in forestry. The vacancy at Wagner is filled by J. L. Hoxie, former lookout here at the Cinnabar trail station. Two CCC men from Camp Applegate have replaced Mr. Hoxie at Cinnabar trail.

Paul Fattig, forest service employe at Holland, Ore., and mother, Mrs. Jerome Fattig, also of Holland, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith. Mrs. Fattig, who also visited other friends at Ruch, her former home, will leave in a few days for California, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. John Anderson, also a former Applegate resident.

Attorney James Watson and K. K. Kubli left Sunday for their homes at Portland after a successful week of hunting at Donsmore. While in this community they were guests of Mrs. Maud Kubli. Among other hunters reporting success are Orie Phillips and Alfonso Bienvenue, local men.

Elmer White of Little Applegate left Monday for the coast section, where he has employment in the timber.

Mrs. Mary Stevens of Medford is spending the week here as a guest of her sister, Mrs. Lilla McDonough. Mrs. Horace Turpin and daughter, Janet, of Medford also were guests at the McDonough home Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Rollund and son, Donald, who have been residents of Little Applegate for several years, are making their home in Medford.

Farmers in the Ruch area, whose property was damaged by a severe wind and thunder storm in August, still are repairing losses. Ray Offenbacher, whose buildings were almost demolished, expected to have a barn raising Wednesday.

Marcus Smith of Hubbard, Ore., is on a hunting trip in this valley and is a guest of A. L. Kromling. Mr. and Mrs. Brown of Dallas, Ore., also have been guests of Mr. Kromling and Mace Van Groder.

A. S. Kleinhammer and Cliff Dunnington are spending the week hunting at Preezeout.

With the lessening of fire hazard after the recent rain, John Byrne and Erwin Lewis, fire guards at Little Applegate and Perk's pasture, have been discharged from duties. They will continue in the employ of the forest service for several weeks, however.

Trail

TRAIL, Oct. 11.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Hutchinson returned home October 5 after spending ten days visiting relatives and friends at Portland and Hood River. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker took care of the place while the Hutchinsons were away.

Ray Merriman is now carrying the mail on the Elk Creek mail route.

Mrs. Agnes Porter of Medford is spending the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burk. Mrs. Porter suffered a heart attack and is hoping the change will be of benefit to her.

Mrs. Alma Merriman and Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Tucker spent October 8 in Medford, shopping and visiting with their sons, Lee Merriman and Wilber Tucker.

Ralph Watson and son, Carroll, are digging a well on their place along the highway.

Boyd Tucker is doing carpenter work for Mrs. Francis Ash.

Mrs. Minie Blaess has been on the sick list the past week.

The Trail Extension Unit met October 10, for an all-day meeting at the Elk Creek community hall. There was a demonstration by local leaders on buymanship.

Mrs. Leaboe's daughter, who has been visiting here for several weeks, returned to her home Wednesday in California.
