decide what sanctions should be applied to punish Italy for attacking Ethiopia.

It made its suggestions shortly after Baron Pompeo Aloisi and six other members of the Italian delegation had left Geneva for Rome.

The committee, working rapidly as a result of yesterday's overwhelming vote of sanctions against Italy by the league assembly, plan to present its suggestions to the league's general staff for sanctions later today.

In Effect Tonight

If adopted, as generally expected, the embargo against Italy goes into effect tonight.

The recommendation for the embargo against Italy is based on President Roosevelt's list of "implements of war."

The immediate effect of lifting the embargo on Ethiopia would be that Emperor Selassie's empire will be able to receive in the space of a very few days all kinds of armaments with which to carry on her defense against Italy.

By acting today, the committee will permit the entrance of arms into Ethiopia beginning tonight.

(Huge stores of arms destined for the Ethiopian government are reported stored in Djibouti, French Somaliland, where they were ordered held by the French government. Djibouti is only two days from Addis Ababa by train.)

ed to banditry just for the fun of it." The trio told police that they did not get much money from their victims.

State police here stated today that they will endeavor to complete the identity of Parker and Lacy, and that Garner will probably be called to identify his captors. It is not yet known whether an indictment against the two will be returned in this state, but state police admitted that it was probable.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Three youthful confessed robbers who kidnaped their victim in wild dabbling up and down the Pacific coast, were placed in the police "shadow box" today as robbery victims tried to identify them.

Two of the youths, William Parker, 21, and Henry Lacey, 18, confessed police said, to starting their criminal careers in Olympia, Wash. Authorities quoted them as saying they held up a man named Garner in Olympia, held up another near Red Cloud, and in his machine, came to Los Angeles, where James Lawson, 22, joined them.

Police said the youths admitted robberies in Stockton, Fresno and Los Angeles, but that they did not realize the death penalty could be asked of the jury that tried them.

Detective Lieutenant Bert Anderson said Parker and Lacy both admitted they held up a motorist near Olympia on Sept. 29, robbed and bound him, and carried him southward, finally releasing him between Grants Pass and Medford.
