Sweeney-Hamlin Marriage Vows Given Yesterday

At one of the most impressive of the recent fall weddings, Miss Kathryn Sweeney yesterday became the bride of Warren Hamlin yesterday afternoon at four o'clock in the Presbyterian church. The vows were read by Rev. Peterson before the hundred guests assembled in the beautifully decorated church.

Autumn foliage in Indian Summer shades, combined with shell gladiolas, yellow chrysanthemums and tall, white lilies formed a lovely background for the ceremony.

The bridal party entered to the sounds of the ever-beautiful Wedding March by Lohengrin, played on the organ by Mrs. Marsh. "I Love You Truly" and "The End of a Perfect Day" were heard during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was wearing a white satin, fashioned on princess lines and caught up at the throat with a pearl clip, and wore a matching satin turban. She carried a sheaf of calla lilies, presenting a picture in white that charmingly set off her brunette coloring. Her going-away costume was a suit of soft green English wool, with a green hat and matching accessories. Her corsage was orchids and lilies of the valley.

Miss Mary Martha Sweeney, sister of the bride and her only attendant, wore a renaissance gown of deep blue with silver stitching at the pointed collar, and a silver and blue turban. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. Meson McDermott, of Portland, acted as best man for the groom, and ushers were Bob Fulton, of St. Helens, Charles Denton, of Seattle, and Frank Perri.

Immediately following the ceremony, a small group of intimate friends were entertained at a wedding reception given at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sweeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamlin both graduated from Medford high school and attended Oregon State college. They will honeymoon in the south.

Health Unit Tea Largely Attended

Members of the Phoenix Health unit arranged a silver tea held during the past week at the home of Mrs. J. B. Webster, of Phoenix. This unit also sponsors hot lunches for children of the Phoenix school.

More than thirty guests attended the tea, prizes being won by Mesdames C. A. Pickett, F. A. Denzer, Walker, Berthold Barnum, L. J. Alming, Clara Golding, Ethel Coverstone and Lee Denzer.

Missionary Society Annual Luncheon

A very fine literary and musical program, including vocal numbers, readings and a playlet, will be presented at the annual luncheon to be given by the Women's Missionary society at the First Presbyterian church Tuesday at 1 o'clock.

A delicious menu will be served and all members and friends are urged to attend.

Reservations should be made not later than Sunday. Those not having been contacted and desiring to attend, call Mrs. Walter Frazer Brown, 1173-J.

Miss Bryant To Portland School.

Miss Eleanor Bryant left early this week for Portland, where she will attend school. For the past year she has been with her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Beknap. She will return to Medford at the close of the school year.

Chateau Scene No-Host Party

Chateau du Compté was the scene Friday evening of a no-host dancing party arranged by a small group. A French dinner was served the guests at midnight.

Guests for the affair were Mrs. Chas. E. Smith, Will C. Smith, Vernon Clow, Viola Swisher, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Swope, Thelma Heard, Maurice Cole, Beulah Lee, LeRoy McCowan and Jack Smith.

Crater Lake Guild Has Annual Banquet On Monday Evening

Crater Lake guild held its annual banquet at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening. Fifty-seven members and guests were present at the tables, which were unusually well decorated with fall flowers and candles in autumn shades.

Preceding the dinner, Mrs. W. C. Cool, president, expressed a welcome and concluded with a short devotional period. During the meal, she presented and introduced her officers.

Eleanor Curry sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Genevieve Brown, and Miss Imogene Wallace was presented in two piano solos. Little Miss Alice Brill was also on the program, playing two violin solos, accompanied by her mother.

Clara Patrick was guest speaker for the evening, taking as her subject the Island of Ball, and bringing to those present her personal observations of the island.

Pocahontas Lodge Planning for Visit Of Great Officer

Preparations are being made by Pocahontas lodge for the entertainment of Miss Stella Ely, of Palo Alto, the Great Pocahontas of California, who, with several other great officers, will visit the local Pocahontas council on Friday evening.

A social night of the lodge was arranged Friday evening when a dance was given by the members. The committee in charge consisted of Gladys Lawrence, Glenna Maude Wenzel and Bud Lawrence.

Refreshments were served by Sarah Toile, Esther Dooms, Norma Martin and Nell Prock.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Jacksonville Grange hall on Oct. 23.

Mrs. Holloway Hostess at Luncheon.

Miss Alice Holloway was hostess yesterday at an informal luncheon arranged at the Colony club. Guests for the affair were Mrs. McCaakey, Mrs. Corbin Edgell, Miss Livingston and Miss Hubbard.

Betrothal Of Lieut. Glenn B. Wood And Hazel Swartz Told

Announcement was made yesterday of the betrothal of Lieut. Glenn B. Wood and Miss Hazel Louise Swartz of Chehalis, Wash. The wedding will take place this week in Chehalis.

Lieutenant Wood, a son of Mrs. Jennie R. Wood of 816 South Central avenue, is commanding officer of Camp Ostrich Bay, naval ammunition depot, at Bremerton, Wash. He is on a month's furlough and has been visiting at his home here the past few days.

Accompanied by his mother, who is going north to attend the wedding, Lieutenant Wood will leave here tomorrow for Chehalis. After the ceremony the couple will depart on an extensive motor trip through the southern states.

Lieutenant Wood is well known in scholastic circles here. Before accepting his present post he was principal for six years of the Brattain school in Springfield, Oregon.

Members of Beta Chapter To Give Talk at Session

During the second October meeting of the Beta chapter of the Delphieta society to be held Thursday morning at nine-thirty in the Girls' Community club rooms, various members will report on diversified topics to which they have been assigned.

Other reports will be the Spanish Armada, Mrs. O. O. Alenderfer, Elizabethan Seamen, Mrs. W. S. Bolger, Elizabeth As a Ruler and As a Woman, Mrs. Charles Lemery; Mary, Queen of Scots, Mrs. Bruce Bauer.

Mrs. Ruchen Padgack will review Willa Cather's "Lucy Gayheart," and Mrs. Harry Prentiss will discuss world events.

Normal Council Plans Homecoming

The Misses Dorothy Jackson and Beatrice Palmer were hostesses Tuesday evening at their apartment in Ashland to the Women's League council of the Southern Oregon Normal school.

A pot-luck supper was served followed by a social hour, during which plans were completed for the Homecoming activities which will take place next week-end.

Guests for the evening were Miss Virginia Hales, dean of women, the Misses Eriella Gearhart, Olive Hall, Bernice Reames, Roberta Nourse, and Nellie Breedlove.

Inasmuch as there are a great number of Medford young people attending the Normal, events of the school are always of interest here.

Study Club Adds New Members to Group at Meeting

The Thursday Morning Study club held its first fall meeting at the Girls' Community Club house October 10 with a large attendance. Several new members were added to the study group.

"Living With Books" was the subject handled by Mrs. Jack Spalding, who presented ways by which the reader might cultivate a keener sense of enjoyment for worth while literature, and the existing obstacles that keep the reader from gaining a true appreciation of good reading.

Appropriately following Mrs. Spalding's interesting talk, Mrs. H. C. Clement read examples of world wide literature, the selections having been chosen from "The Anthology of World Prose" as compiled by Carl Van Doren.

Helen Norris spoke on "How to Review a Book," stressing the importance of analysis of technique rather than a presentation of the obvious story synopsis.

New Glassware Aims At Serving Many Purposes

Double duty service ware is assuming an increasingly important place in present day household equipment.

In step with the times, glass manufacturers are showing a number of new three or four-in-one dishes. Among the new pieces is an iced cocktail, tomato or fruit juice set, which can be broken down into salad plate, cream, soup and dessert cup.

For the hostess who desires the greatest possible amount of mileage out of her ice cubes there is a glass ice bar, replacing the metal ones of yesterday, which can be filled with water and frozen in the drawer of an electric refrigerator. The bar will chill without diluting drinks and does not change flavor of the concoction.

PARENT TEACHERS LAYING PLANS FOR STATE MEET HERE

Organization and preparation for the Oregon State Parent-Teachers' association convention to be held in Medford October 22 to 25 inclusive is making progress among local organizations. The chief activity so far has been the membership drive, which is being entered into by all chapters in the state, and results of which will be tabulated this week.

The objective following this year, as announced by Mrs. L. D. Courtwright, chairman of the state membership committee, is "Every Home in Membership." Membership in 1933 was 15,831, in 1934 19,082, in 1935, 23,047. The goal for 1936 is 30,000 members. The membership drive will be completed throughout the state before the convention, when results and gains of all associations will be presented before the delegates at the membership "Pow Wow" luncheon on Wednesday noon, October 23. Colored feathers will be awarded and worn, and the color worn will depend upon the increase of membership in each association.

The man bringing the most members to his association before the convention will be dubbed "Big Chief," and four Princesses will be chosen from the largest associations in the following groups: Elementary schools, high schools, rural schools, and union schools. Two conferences on membership will be held at the convention, one especially on awards and various councils will present membership stunts.

One of the principal features offered delegates to the convention will be a caravan trip to Crater lake.

Preview of Scenic Film for Writers' Guild on Friday

Mrs. Agnes Hines of Forest Grove gave a preview of "Beautiful Oregon," a scenic film, before a group of members of the Writers' guild at the Hialto theater Friday afternoon.
