

ARMY OFFICERS HERE BY PLANE, GET BIRD LIMIT

Two army sportsmen who arrived here Saturday afternoon for a morning of hunting got the limit bag of birds yesterday morning and were off in their Martin bomber for their home base in the afternoon, much elated with southern Oregon as an outdoor paradise.

The visiting airmen were Col. C. L. Tinker and Major D. H. Duntton of Hamilton field, San Rafael, Cal. They were taken hunting yesterday morning by Mayor George W. Porter, W. E. Morris and A. H. Banwell and each one of them, excepting Mr. Banwell, who did not participate in the shooting, bagged the limit of quail and pheasants.

The party hunted on the Morris ranch at Table Rock and on neighboring farms and all reported having had an exceedingly enjoyable day.

The visitors were met early in the morning at the Hotel Medford, where they stayed overnight, by Mayor Porter and Mr. Banwell who drove them to the Morris ranch where they were joined by Mr. Morris. At noon Mrs. Morris served an excellent lunch, the officers speaking highly of her hospitality and culinary skill.

"The officers were very favorably impressed with the outdoor sports afforded by Medford," Mayor Porter said today. "They were excellent shots and brought down every bird they fired at. What I liked most about them was their punctuality. They said they would be ready to leave the hotel at 4:30 a. m. and they were right on the dot. They said they'd like to leave on the return trip at two o'clock and precisely at two they took off. We all had a fine time and I have no doubt the officers will spread the word about the outdoor paradise we live in here."

cases the court refused or agreed to review. The announcement in each case consisted only of one word: "Agreed" or "refused." There will be no opinions for several weeks.

Other action by the high court included postponement pending a hearing on whether it will review a lower court decision holding unconstitutional the two per cent gross receipts tax imposed by the Louisiana legislature—then dominated by the late Senator Huey P. Long—on newspaper, magazine and motion picture advertisements in the state.

LODIA PARR, PHOENIX RESIDENT, SUCCUMBS

Parker-Pickering Wedding Surprises

Coming as a surprise to their many friends was the marriage last Friday evening of Miss Aileen Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker, and Howard Pickering, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Pickering of Eddyville, Neb. The ceremony took place very quietly at the Christian church parsonage, Reverend Baird officiating.

The bride graduated from the Medford high school, and later attended business college here. Mr. Pickering came to Medford several years ago, and has attended the Southern Oregon normal school and the University of Oregon. He will return to the university to school in January.

The couple were attended at the wedding by Miss Anne Patton and John Hinsen, both of Medford. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pickering left on a honeymoon trip up the coast. They are expected back after a week, when they will be at home at the Trowbridge apartments on West Tenth street.

DR. EMMITT CARPENTER TAKEN BY DEATH AFTER ILLNESS OF TWO WEEKS

Dr. Emmitt J. Carpenter, aged 36 years, passed away this morning in Phoenix at the home of his brother, George Carpenter, after an illness of two weeks.

Dr. Carpenter was born at Lebanon, Miss., April 26, 1899. His parents moved to Springfield, Mo., when he was a child and then to Mountain Park, Okla., where he lived his early life and gained his education. Later he moved to the Pacific coast and after a while attended and graduated from the Northwest Chiropractic college of Portland.

In 1928 he came to Medford and had since resided and practiced in this city. He was affiliated with several lodges of Medford. Dr. Carpenter is survived by four sisters and two brothers: Mrs. W. C. Carter, Moundville, Mo.; Mrs. Frank Roberts, Medford; Mrs. Henry Adams, Myrtle Creek, Ore.; Mrs. C. L. Waddell, Mountain Park, Okla.; Lewis Carpenter of Portland, Ore., and George Carpenter of Phoenix.

Funeral services will be held from the Conger Funeral Parlors Wednesday at 3 p. m. Rev. W. H. Eaton will have charge of the services and interment will be made in the Siskiyou Memorial park.

LEONARD'S SUPER SERVICE STATION IN NEW LOCATION

Chet Leonard, well-known Medford service station operator, announced today that his new station on North Riverside at Sixth street will open for business tomorrow with a complete line of Richfield products. Mr. Leonard formerly operated the station at Jackson and Riverside. His new location, formerly known as the Green and Shores service station, will be operated under the name of Chet Leonard Super Service with a full line of United States tires featured in connection with Richfield products and comprehensive automotive service. Leonard will also represent the United States Tire Company in Jackson county.

Workmen are now busily engaged in completely remodeling the station which will house the Chet Leonard Super Service. The present building will be transformed into an attractive California Mission-type structure, adding to the attractiveness of Medford's business district on Riverside avenue. New equipment, including the latest-type hydraulic hoist, is being installed and complete service will be rendered beginning tomorrow, according to Mr. Leonard.

Chet Leonard has had years of experience in service station fields and has been engaged in business in this city for the past seven years. During this time he has been identified with business and club activities in this community and the opening of his new station in Medford marks an expansion in his operations here.

of approximately $140 early Saturday night.

According to state police, the two women entered the station and while one engaged the operator in conversation, the other rifled the cash register. Soon after they had departed the operator discovered his loss and notified the police. Details as to how, or in what direction, the women were traveling were meager, and no arrests have been made though troopers are investigating.
