Story of the North on Craterian Bill

For years Jack London's "Call of the Wild" has been one of fiction's most popular adventures. On Sunday, the Craterian theater will show this famous epic of the North in the film version that has Clark Gable, Loretta Young and Jack Oakie in the leading roles.

Besides the beautiful scenery of the Klondike, actually filmed at Mt. Baker, Washington, where the production was snowed in for several days, "The Call of the Wild" recreates on the screen the mad desire for gold that sent thousands of men and women of all classes into the frozen north in search of the yellow metal.

"Smilin' Through" Coming to Rialto

Few motion pictures are able to stand the test of being rereleased following their initial release but Norma Shearer's triumphant film version of the famous stage classic, "Smilin' Through," in which she is starred with Leslie Howard and Fredric March is one of those rare productions which have lingered in the

Roxy Stars

Tim McCoy rides again as a Robin Hood of the range in "The Square Shooter," coming for tomorrow only to the Roxy theater. It is one of fighting Tim's most exciting action dramas, with charming Jacqueline Wells as the heart interest.

The fifth episode of "The Red Rider" with Buck Jones as the star, will be on the same program.

ments were destroyed here late yesterday in a $15,000 blaze which threatened for a time to become a general conflagration.

An explosion of a gasoline stove in the Evergreen restaurant started the fire at 3:50 p. m. The L. M. Shianley dry goods store, the Richardson market and H. A. Groce grocery also burned before workers from the Bonneville dam operations brought a powerful pumper into play.

HAGEN PUT OUT BY J. REVOLTA

TWIN HILLS GOLF COURSE, OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18.—(AP) Walter Hagen, Detroit sharpshooter who upset all calculations by winning medalist honors, was eliminated by Johnny Revolta of Milwaukee, fellow member of the Ryder cup team, one up in the first 18-hole round of the P. G. A. national tournament here today.

Gene Sarazen, tournament favorite, and Paul Runyan, defending champion, advanced to the second round with comparative ease. Sarazen over George Christ of Rochester, N. Y., 4 and 3, and Runyan eliminated Louis Chipstetta of Jackson Shores, Mich., 5 and 3.

Revolta's sensational recoveries from sand traps and Hagen's putting lapses were deciding factors in the downfall of "The Hag."

Harold Sampson of Burlingame, Cal., defeated Emory Zimmerman of Portland, Ore., 1 up.

Al Zimmerman of Portland, Ore., defeated Eddie Williams of Bensenville, Ill., 3 and 1.

Special Turkey Dinner 40c at Meria Top Notch Eat, 14 So. Central. Opening tomorrow.

Before leaving Hamilton expressed the belief that he had as good a chance as the next candidate to win the honors as speaker of the house.

Mr. Taylor will leave here for Salem Sunday to participate in the special session of the legislature called by Governor Martin to lay plans for a new capitol and to consider other emergency legislation.

The race for the speakership has developed into a fiery contest and in the event that Mr. Hamilton loses out Mr. Taylor said he would give his support to Henry Semon, Klamath Falls Democrat. Mr. Taylor said he is for giving the speakership to a southern Oregon man.

Hamilton left yesterday afternoon for Salem. Mrs. Hamilton and their young son, Alexander, and Hamilton's mother, Mrs. L. H. Hamilton of Central Point, will join him in the capital city Sunday, where Mrs. A. Moore Hamilton will act as his clerk during the session.

$1,000 AMPLE FOR DEBS WARDROBE IS CLAIM OF ARBITER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(AP)—The debutantes of the capital need spend no more than $1,000 apiece on their wardrobes for the season just now getting under way.

That is the expert opinion of Mrs. William Laird Dunlop, a "social secretary" who helps the debts blossom.

She said today she'd known debts to spend $2,000 or $3,000 for clothes, but she always advises against it, since those spending more than $1,000 "have no better time and make no better impression."

She recommends for each deb one black evening gown; one white evening gown; and a few pretty evening gowns in colors; one very smart tailored suit for luncheon and morning events; several pretty and informal afternoon gowns for tea dances; smart shoes and accessories.

Coming out balls normally cost anywhere from $500 to $1,500, though Mrs. Dunlop has helped with some running as high as $800. She's also seen as high as $2,000 worth of flowers
